Jerry Colangelo

Managing General Partner

The role of Managing General Partner has its obvious perks, yet it's also a role that entails many difficult decisions, and Jerry Colangelo was responsible for making an abundance of those decisions since the 2000 season ended. Jerry and his staff made organizational adjustments due to the high-cost of operating a competitive major league franchise, yet maintained the commitment to not impact the core of a club that won 100 games in just its second year, the greatest single-season turnaround in baseball history.

For openers he placed the reins of his club in the hands of Bob Brenly, giving the former catcher, coach and broadcaster his first shot at managing. In addition, Colangelo and the ownership group gave the go-ahead to add key veterans such as Mark Grace and Reggie Sanders, while agreeing to extended deals with pitchers Curt Schilling, Armando Reynoso and Matt Mantei.

The outcome of the 2000 season was tough to take for Colangelo, who is an intensely competitive individual and after deep consultations with his staff made the determination that changes were necessary. It was his earmarking of ownership dollars that paved the way for the acquisition of key ingredients to a club that went from 65 wins in its inaugural campaign to 100 victories and a National League Western Division crown in just its second year. The 35-game turnaround was just one of the firsts that also included the fastest expansion team to reach the century mark in wins and the fastest expansion team by six years to win a division title.

A highly visible leader, his typical day during the baseball season commences at America West Arena in the early morning and winds up well into the night at Bank One Ballpark. Despite the hectic schedule, Colangelo is available to the field staff, the players and the media on a daily basis. He is so highly regarded in the region, Jerry was named by The Arizona Republic the most influential sports figure in Arizona during the 20th century. He also served as the Honorary Grand Marshal for the 2000 Fiesta Bowl Parade.

The Diamondbacks are the second expansion success story of Colangelo's distinguished career, establishing his reputation in athletics with the Phoenix Suns, joining the franchise in 1968 as the general manager and climbing through that organization to his present status as Chairman, CEO and Managing General Partner. He has been behind the construction of two of the top venues in professional sports, first spearheading the effort to build America West Arena, then leading the charge for Bank One Ballpark, a necessary commodity for Major League Baseball to grant a franchise to the Valley.

"Losing" is not part of his vocabulary, typifying his upbringing in the "Hungry Hill" neighborhood of Chicago Heights. As a youth he was one of the top pitchers on a team that also featured the talents of future New York Yankee Jim Bouton. On the hardwood, Colangelo captured All-State honors, leading Bloom Township to a 49-8 mark and two appearances in the Illinois State Tournament. His athleticism led to 66 college scholarship offers for basketball and seven for professional baseball contracts. He was remembered to the neighborhood with the dedication of the Jerry Colangelo Gymnasium at Bloom Township on November 10, 1996.

He initially selected the University of Kansas, but transferred to the University of Illinois after prospective teammate, Wilt Chamberlain, chose to sign professionally. A high school arm injury to Colangelo limited his playing career to just two seasons of baseball at Illinois, thus his athletic focus turned to hoops. He earned All-Big Ten honors for the Illini, averaging 15 points a game, served as team captain as a senior and was an eventual inductee in the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame.

Colangelo's professional career in athletics began with the Chicago Bulls as head scout and director of merchandising in 1966. Just two years later, at the age of 28, he made the move to Phoenix, becoming the youngest general manager in professional sports, taking over the reins of the expansion Suns. He held that role until October, 1987, when he led a group of investors that purchased the Suns franchise for $44.5 million, and he has served as the team CEO since.

In 1993, the same year he earned an unprecedented fourth NBA Executive of the Year award, Colangelo began assembling yet another group of investors that would eventually convince the expansion committee that big league baseball was not just a spring fling in the Valley.

The assertive and confident style of management that directed the Suns to seven consecutive 50-win seasons, and three appearances in the Western Conference finals, was now headed to another major sport. On behalf of the potential ownership group, he negotiated a deal with the Maricopa County Board of Supervisors that enabled the county to fund $238 million toward the construction of what is now Bank One Ballpark. During the same time frame, he helped facilitate the relocation of the NHL's Winnipeg Jets, now the Phoenix Coyotes, arranging the lease agreement for major league hockey in America West Arena.

Hard work and a winning attitude has been a way of life for Colangelo, and those characteristics have been instilled throughout the Diamondbacks' organization. A tour of Bank One Ballpark or America West Arena provides insight into the first class way that Colangelo wishes his franchises to be perceived, not only by the athletes who call Phoenix home, but by the opposition as well.

The respect and presence that Jerry Colangelo established in the NBA quickly surfaced around his brethren in Major League Baseball, as he serves on both the Legislative Committee and Equal Opportunity Committee.

A man who believes in commitment, not only professionally, but within the community, Colangelo has distinguished himself as one of the Valley's most active community leaders. The list of his "off-field" activities reads like a veritable who's who in the region. He is on the Board of Directors of the Phoenix Art Museum, Greater Phoenix Economic Council, Phoenix Community Alliance and Phoenix Suns Charities. He serves as vice president of the Phoenix Downtown Partnership and is chairman of Southwest Leadership Foundation. He is a lifetime member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an organization dedicated to the promotion of Phoenix through sports and the driving force of the Phoenix Open golf tournament, easily the most attended single sporting event in the country. He is past chairman of Arizona State University's Dean's Council of 100, on the Honor Board for Junior Achievement of Central Arizona and is past chairman of the board for the Christian Businessmen's Club. Colangelo currently serves as chairman of the board for the Council of Leadership Foundation, chairman of the board for the Collaboration for a New Century, he's on the board of Athletes in Action and is the director and principal partner of Stratford American Corporation, a real estate development company. He is a former president of Valley Big Brothers.

Colangelo and his wife, Joan, whom he met on a blind date while at the University of Illinois, have raised a family of four children that now includes ten grandchildren. The Colangelo family includes daughters Kathy Holcombe, Kristen Brubaker and Mandie Okyere, and son, Bryan, who also maintains the Colangelo name on the basketball side, serving as the Suns' president and general manager.

Though his time is always at a premium, he found time to author a book, titled "How You Play the Game," giving insight into the world of the business of sports. Proceeds of the book sales go to YoungLife of Arizona, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities and Phoenix Suns Charities.

Jerry introduces Mark Grace at a December press conference announcing the signing of the veteran first baseman to a two-year contract.

Richard H. Dozer

President

The day-to-day operation at Bank One Ballpark is led by an individual who was raised in a baseball environment, but did not get an opportunity to work in the sport until the Diamondback franchise was awarded in 1995. Named President of the Diamondbacks on March 9, 1995, Rich Dozer has established a family atmosphere in the offices, which is appropriate since it was family that exposed him to the big leagues as a youth. Rich's father, the late Dick Dozer, made his living at baseball stadiums around the country, covering both the Chicago Cubs and White Sox for the Chicago Tribune. Regarded as one of the top sportswriters in the nation, Dick made the most out of the chance to spend time with his son, taking him to spring training, where he lived out any young man's dream, serving as a bat boy for each team.

The family aspect has not been lost on the younger Dozer, who has instilled that quality on all who have come aboard from other organizations. His unpretentious, open-door way of leadership has made the Diamondback front office one of the most comfortable and successful franchises in sports. He also displayed to the public a heart-felt side that is seen in the offices every day when the Diamondbacks reached the post-season in 1999, as Dozer invited Dwight Patterson to throw out the first pitch prior to the first Division Series game ever played in Bank One Ballpark. Patterson, who lured the Chicago Cubs to the Valley over 50 years ago to start what is now the Cactus League, was one of the most popular sports figures in Arizona. Sadly, the ceremonial first pitch was one of Patterson's final great memories as the Arizona legend passed away just three days later.

In joining the Diamondbacks, Dozer merely had to change his Jefferson street address from America West Arena to Bank One Ballpark. He was the ideal candidate for the job, possessing the knowledge of the inner workings of a Jerry Colangelo-run sports franchise after working for nine seasons with the Phoenix Suns. Dozer joined the NBA franchise in July 1987 as business manager, and climbed the corporate ladder to Vice President and Chief Operating Officer by June of 1989. Responsibilities varied from accounting, finance, ticketing, office administration, insurance, and arena financing and operations. He was also the President of America West Arena and involved in that facility's development.

Dozer is a former Certified Public Accountant, spending eight years in the Phoenix office of Arthur Andersen, where he specialized as an audit manager for clients in sports, hospitality and retail industries.

Among his many responsibilities, he has the unenviable task of making the call on opening or closing the roof on a daily basis. Though after three seasons some trends have been established, the daily timing of the roof closure is vital to ensure that enough sunlight reaches the grass to keep it growing, and the ballpark stays cool enough to allow the air conditioning to make the ballpark comfortable by game time. Dozer not only takes the playing conditions into consideration, but the building temperatures at all seating levels to ensure the comfort of the fans.

Much like Colangelo, Dozer's role is not just about the team, but about community as well. He serves on several boards, including Arizona Diamondbacks Charities, Phoenix & Valley of the Sun Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the Goodwill Industries Honor Board. Recently, Rich was named by Mayor Skip Rimsza to the 2000 Executive Bond Committee. He is an active member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an arm of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce that stages the Phoenix Open each year, one of the top attended single sporting events in the country, and he's also a member of the Phoenix Civic Plaza - Strategic Planning Task Force. He's on the board of the YMCA, the Dean's Council of 100 for the Arizona State University College of Business, the Arizona Tourism Alliance and the Phoenix Community Alliance.

He possesses a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Arizona, graduating in 1979. Rich has a nine-year old daughter, Danielle, and he and his wife Karie have a two-year old daughter, Laura Grace. They make their home in Phoenix.

Rich greets Mark Grace with his new jersey after signing with the Diamondbacks last December.

Joe Garagiola, Jr.

Vice President -
General Manager

The refinement of a club that went from a runaway division title to a third place finish the following season fell on the shoulders of Joe Garagiola, and he and his staff responded over the winter with some key acquisitions while keeping the core of the 1999 club intact. Employing the resources made available by ownership, Garagiola inked deals with veterans Mark Grace and Reggie Sanders, while also keeping Curt Schilling and Armando Reynoso in Diamondback pinstripes for an extended period and avoiding arbitration with closer Matt Mantei, agreeing to a four-year deal with him.

The changes leading up to 2001 were far less dramatic than those he engineered in turning this club from a 65-win inaugural season to the 100-win squad that represented the greatest single-season turnaround in major league history. Featuring players from the expansion draft, trades, free agency and the amateur draft, the Diamondbacks jelled as a team quicker than any previous expansion effort, winning a division title six years sooner than any other first-year franchise. Garagiola's preparatory work for 1999 did not go unnoticed, finishing third in Executive-of-the-Year balloting.

Garagiola immediately went to work to overhaul the roster, signing key free agents that included the likes of Randy Johnson, Steve Finley, Todd Stottlemyre, Greg Swindell, Greg Colbrunn and Reynoso. Following the recruitment of free agents, Garagiola went to work with other GM's, procuring key pieces to the puzzle via the trade route. He made a huge acquisition during the Christmas holidays from Detroit, as the Diamondbacks received Luis Gonzalez and cash considerations from the Tigers in exchange for Karim Garcia. Still in search of a leadoff hitter, Garagiola delivered during the second week of spring training, acquiring Tony Womack from Pittsburgh in exchange for a pair of minor leaguers. Womack responded by leading the National League in thefts for a third straight season.

Joe presents newcomer Reggie Sanders with his new Diamondback jersey after signing as a free agent in January.

Once the '99 campaign was underway the Diamondbacks hovered near the top in the N.L. West, but it became apparent that more bullpen help was a necessity. Garagiola solidified the pen with the mid-July acquisition of Mantei in a package that sent three players to Florida. The arrival of Mantei helped stake the Arizona bullpen to the second best ERA in the National League.

There's a saying that some of your best trades are the ones you don't make, and it ran true with pitcher Brian Anderson, who was thought to be on the outside looking in entering the 1999 season. Joe never received a proper compensation offer and Anderson has gone 19-9 over two seasons since Garagiola resisted the urge to make a move.

While turnover has been high since the inaugural squad took the field on March 31, 1998, Garagiola and his staff can take pride in their expansion draft effort. The Diamondbacks entered year 2001 with six players remaining from the original 35 selections, including Russ Springer, who returned as a free agent. While six have survived, Garagiola has used 10 others from the draft as part of trades that have featured the acquisition of Gonzalez, Womack, Curt Schilling and Matt Williams to name a few.

Garagiola joined the Diamondbacks in March, 1995, when the franchise was awarded to the region, but it was his work on the Arizona Baseball Commission that served as a driving force in procuring major league baseball for the Valley. He served as vice-chairman of the Governor's Cactus League Task Force, and was a member of the Mayor's Professional Baseball Committee. From there he branched out to the Maricopa County Sports Authority, serving as chairman. Garagiola was also chairman of the Arizona Baseball Commission, the group best known for completing the task of convincing existing major league clubs that Phoenix and the region were ready to possess their own club. His work in major league baseball dates back to the 1970's, when he was the general counsel and assistant to the president of the New York Yankees. Garagiola made his move to the Valley in 1982, applying his law practice to the firm of Gallagher and Kennedy. His concentration was on sports law, and he was the chairman of the Phoenix Metropolitan Sports Foundation from 1985-87.

As is a constant throughout the Diamondbacks' organization, Joe also has ties within the community, serving on the Board of Directors of the America West Airlines Educational Foundation and the Phoenix Memorial Hospital. Joe also was the 1998 recipient of the prestigious Institute of Human Relations Award from the American Jewish Committee.

Joe graduated from Notre Dame University in South Bend, IN, earning a B.A. cum laude in 1972. He earned his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 1975), and is admitted to practice law in Arizona, California and New York. He and his wife, Noel, have four children, Meredith, Valerie, Natalie and Christopher, and make their home in Scottsdale.

Sandy Johnson

Assistant General Manager

Sandy is in his third full season as Assistant General Manager, but has been on board since preparation began to draft and sign the first group of players who made up the original Diamondbacks. Originally a major league scout and Special Assistant to the General Manager, Sandy played an integral part in the preparation for the expansion draft, supplying a lifetime of knowledge and scouting experience.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Diamondbacks, Johnson was a member of the USA Baseball Selection Committee, the group that chose the 24-man roster that made-up the Gold Medal winning squad in the 2000 Olympics in Sydney.

Signing out of high school with the Pirates' organization, Sandy played 10 minor league seasons. He joined the scouting staff of the Seattle Pilots in 1969, then managed for three seasons in that chain while they made the move to Milwaukee, which included a Midwest League title with Danville in 1971.

After serving as a full-time scout for the Brewers in 1973-74, Sandy joined the Major League Scouting Bureau, serving as the Eastern Supervisor until 1981. He then joined the San Diego Padres as their Director of Scouting working there through the championship season of '84. While with the Padres, Johnson's ability to recognize and sign talent began to show in earnest, with the signings of youngsters Benito Santiago, Mitch Williams and Sandy Alomar, Jr.

The who's who of signings continued as his career moved to Texas, working in a variety of player personnel positions, including Assistant General Manager. While with the Rangers, Sandy was instrumental in acquiring the MVP honorees Juan Gonzalez, Pudge Rodriguez, Sammy Sosa and pitcher Kevin Brown.

Raised in South San Gabriel, CA, Sandy was inducted into the RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inncities) Hall of Fame in February, 1999, joining a list of prestigious previous honorees that include Duke Snider, Eddie Murray, Tom Lasorda and Ozzie Smith.

Sandy and his wife, Linda, make their home in Phoenix. They have three children, Matthew, Bethany Gehrman and Dane, and four grandsons, Stefan, Leo and August Gehrman, and Lars Johnson. A baseball family, Sandy's younger brother, Tim, is managing the Mexico City Reds in the Mexican League.

Mike Rizzo

Director of Scouting

Mike Rizzo's first full season as the Director of Scouting for the Diamondbacks was hectic to say the least, traveling nine countries on four continents in search of talent that could eventually land in Bank One Ballpark. Responsible for all facets of scouting, including draft strategy and selections in the June First-Year Player Draft, Rizzo operates a streamlined department of 47 while also controlling the scouting operations budget.

This is Mike's 19th year in pro ball, a career that began with a four-year stint as a minor league player in the California Angels' system. Once his playing career ended, he served as an assistant coach at the University of Illinois while completing his Bachelor of Arts in Communications. The Illinois-native began his professional scouting career with the Chicago White Sox, where he served as Midwest and Southeast territorial scout, during which time he inked future two-time American League MVP Frank Thomas. Rizzo earned the Scouting Excellence Award from the Chicago Pitch and Hit Club in 1993.

His stint with the White Sox was followed by a six-year stay with the Boston Red Sox, where his responsibilities ranged from area supervisor, international scout and major league advance scout.

He first arrived in the Valley in 1998, serving the Diamondbacks as the national supervisor of the Central region prior to his promotion to Director. Since coming on board, Rizzo has established scouting relationships in Latin America, the Far East, the Pacific Rim and Australia.

Mike's climb through the scouting ranks makes him the second member of the family to take up the vocation, as his father, Phil, has been scouting for better than two decades for various teams. He currently serves the Diamondbacks as a major league scout.

Mike was raised in Chicago, lettering in baseball, basketball and football at Holy Cross High School. He and his wife, Sheilah, have a son, Michael Jr. (2/15/90) and make their home in Scottsdale, where the Rizzo's have been known to get together on the basketball court when Dad isn't on the road.

Tommy Jones

Director of Player Development

An organization original, Tommy Jones has a variety of responsibilities that run year-round, including coordination between minor league general managers, field managers, coaches and trainers. A field manager at virtually every minor league level, Tommy Jones recognizes the necessities of a minor league franchise while still keeping his focus on the development of players at every level. Prior to making the permanent move into Arizona's front office, he managed the Rookie League Lethbridge club in 1997.

Jones came to Arizona after a 12-year minor league managerial career that included seven Manager-of-the-Year honors.

After concluding a minor league playing career that spanned six seasons (1976-81), Tommy went to work as a manager in the Kansas City organization. It was an eventful five years in the Royals' chain, from managing Bo Jackson in his first professional season at Memphis to being a member of the big league coaching staff the year that Kansas City won the World Series in 1985.

Jones' minor league travelogue also included stops in the organizations of the Yankees, Seattle Mariners, Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago Cubs, managing in each chain. He also got his first taste of serving as an administrator with the Cubs as their minor league coordinator.

Jones has a B.A. degree in pre-law studies from the University of the Pacific, where he played collegiately. He and wife, Joan, have two children, Sarah and Tyler, and make their home in Scottsdale.

Bob Miller

Director of Baseball Operations

Bob Miller is in his third season with the Diamondbacks and received a title change over the winter, now the Director of Baseball Operations. Initially the Assistant Director of Scouting, Miller still has responsibilities within the scouting department, yet also assists the Baseball Department in all phases of the operation, including computer work, contract negotiations, waivers and arbitration to name a few. Miller paid his dues prior to arriving in the Valley, working for 16 years in the minors, applying computer skills and baseball knowledge to a variety of stops. He was the Executive General Manager of the Amarillo Dillas of the independent Texas-Louisiana League, joining the organization prior to the '99 season, after a year as the Director of Baseball Operations in the league's Abilene (TX) office.

Prior to his work in the Texas-Louisiana League, Miller spent 14 seasons with the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, serving in a variety of roles. He began with the National Association in 1983 as the Director of Records and Computer Operations, overseeing the free agent program, reserve lists, qualification register, approval of Rule 4 Draft signings, free agent signings and rules interpretations. In 1994, he was named the Executive Director of Business and Finance, supervising the Minor League commissioner's office finances. It was then he developed the website, www.minorleaguebaseball.com.

A Florida native, Bob graduated with a B.S. in Finance cum laude from the University of South Florida, earning "Outstanding Student" honors of the graduating class by an alumni and administration committee. He and his wife, Chris, make their home in Phoenix.

Roger Riley

Director of Team Travel

Roger's responsibilities for the 2001 season have expanded once again, as he not only makes all of the club's travel arrangements, but he is also managing the Diamondback clubhouse. Aside from his regular duties on the road, Riley assists the baseball operations department when the needs arise regarding player movement and computer work. He made the move to Arizona in time for the inaugural season after eight years with the San Diego Padres.

While the game of baseball is on hold during the winter, Riley needs the "off-season" to have all of the hotels and charter aircraft booked long before the following year begins. He must also arrange for ground transportation in each city and make sure the hotel is prepared for the team's arrival with room keys in hand, regardless of the hour. Roger is also in charge of dispensing meal money to the traveling party, and handles player ticket requests both at home and on the road.

His role with the Diamondbacks also includes work on the schedule, and making sure that game times both at home and on the road are within the guidelines of Major League Baseball. Riley also works on the exhibition schedule with other Cactus League clubs and coordinates the travel plans for all players and staff members as they prepare for the six-week stay in Tucson.

Baseball was far from uncharted territory for Riley, who played college ball at the University of Kansas. It was there he began working as a statistician, and spent the last 19 years with a variety of network television assignments, including the Bowl Championship Series title game in the Sugar Bowl in 2000. Upon joining the Padres in 1990, Roger was the Assistant Director of Media Relations, then for two seasons worked as both the Director of Media Relations and the Travel Director. He departed from the media chair after the '96 season and combined his travel responsibilities with Baseball Administration, working with the General Manager.

He and his wife, Donna, have three daughters, Taylor, Shannon and Ashley, and make their home in Chandler.

Mike Swanson

Director of Public Relations

Known simply as "Swanee," Mike Swanson is in his 23rd year in the majors, fourth with the Diamondbacks. Aside from his daily duties with the ballclub, Swanson had the good fortune to spend the first two weeks of November last year as the Public Relations liaison for the Major League Baseball All-Star squad that played an eight-game series in Japan.

His arrival in Arizona marked the second straight franchise start-up for Swanson, who had a similar experience with the Colorado Rockies, joining that organization in 1992, a year before they played their first game in the National League. After six years with the Rockies, Swanee headed south to Arizona, joining the Diamondbacks after the 1997 season ended. He has also worked in the Public Relations departments for the Kansas City Royals and San Diego Padres, also expansion clubs when they began play.

Though baseball is his passion, Swanson has had the opportunity to be involved in all sports throughout his life. His mother, the late Betty Swanson, worked for both the Kansas City Athletics and Chiefs over a 36-year span, and oftentimes had the younger Swanson tagging along, working in the equipment rooms for both franchises, traveling with the Chiefs during their glory years of the early 70's.

From there he became a "numbers nerd," and had the good fortune to work virtually every major sporting event in the country as a television statistician. It all began in 1977 with Keith Jackson on college football and evolved into stints with Monday Night Football, and the sharing of booth space with some of the top announcers in sports. All totaled his statistical resume featured six Final Fours, six Super Bowls, four NFC Championship Games, five Sugar Bowls and six Cotton Bowls.

Swanson, 46, his wife Renee, two-year old daughter Rachel Elizabeth, and their yellow lab Rocky reside in Chandler.

Diamondback Business Vice Presidents

Scott Brubaker Senior Vice President of Marketing and Sales

Scott Brubaker made the trek "across the street" from America West Arena and with him came a successful marketing run that is now being applied to the Diamondbacks. His responsibilities feature supervision in a variety of areas including overall management of the sales and marketing effort, corporate sponsorships, luxury suite sales, broadcasting, community affairs, Hispanic marketing and Tucson operations. None of Scott's chores are new to him, as he gained valuable experience during his time with the Phoenix Suns and America West Arena.

Brubaker held dual positions prior to moving to baseball, working as Director of Marketing for the America West Arena and Director of Operations for Phoenix Arena Sports. Talk about diversity, he was responsible for the marketing of the Arizona Rattlers in the Arena Football League, the NHL Desert Series "out of venue" hockey games, the World Championship Boxing shows and various other sporting events and exhibitions.

His current supervision of suite sales is nothing new, as he was responsible for marketing America West Arena's 87 luxury suites, the in-arena advertising and other premium seating. Scott originally joined the Suns in 1986 as a sales and marketing representative after graduating from the University of Illinois.

Scott stays active away from the office, serving as a member of the Fiesta Bowl Committee, the North Central Committee for Young Life of Arizona, the Gompers Center for the Handicapped board, the American Cancer Society Chairman's Circle and the Arizona Diamondbacks Charities board. An avid, and outstanding golfer, Scott and his wife, Krissie, have four children, daughters Hilary, Heather and Hannah, and son, Jayce.

Dianne Aguilar

Vice President of Ticket Operations and Special Services

Dianne has brought over 20 years of ticketing experience to the Diamondbacks, which includes an impressive array of sporting events in the Valley. She supervised ticketing for Arizona State's 1987 Rose Bowl appearance, the NBA Finals, the opening of America West Arena and the NBA All-Star Game.

Born in Phoenix and a graduate of both Tempe High School and Arizona State University, her ticketing career began in the Athletic Ticket Office of ASU during her days as a student in 1976. While still a student, she was promoted to ticket manager and during her tenure, the Sun Devils played in the '87 Rose Bowl and Sun Devil Stadium was expanded to its current size.

In 1990, Dianne was named ticket manager for the Phoenix Suns and was later named Director of Ticket Operations for the move to America West Arena. One of her monumental tasks was determining seating assignments for season ticket holders from Veterans Memorial Coliseum into the new facility. This was a skill that came in handy during the seat selection process for the opening of Bank One Ballpark.

Dianne's favorite sport, baseball, was the one she had not worked and she jumped at the chance to join the Diamondbacks as V.P. of Ticket Operations and Special Services. Her responsibilities include supervision of all ticketing, the luxury suites at Bank One Ballpark, guest services and working with the ADA (American Disabilities Act) to ensure the stadium is handicap accessible.

Blake Edwards

Vice President of Sales

Blake joined the Diamondbacks during the initial start-up phase in March of 1995, joining the club as Director of Sales and Marketing, but his outstanding effort at the outset was rewarded as 1998 began with the promotion to Vice President of Sales. His primary responsibilities include working closely with Scott Brubaker in the supervising of corporate sponsorship sales, luxury suite sales, season ticket and group ticket sales and general team marketing.

Edwards spent eight years with the Phoenix Suns as a sales manager and account executive. His work was not exclusive to the Suns, as he also had responsibilities with the America West Arena, the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League, the Arizona Sandsharks of the Continental Indoor Soccer League and the Phoenix Smash of World Team Tennis.

A native of Tucson, Blake made the trip up Interstate 10 to Arizona State University, earning his Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing in 1987 and a Masters of Business Administration in 1994. He is involved with various community activities including the Fiesta Bowl Committee, the Board of Directors of the Make-A-Wish Foundation and Phoenix Metropolitan Boys and Girls Clubs Executive Council.

Blake and his wife, Kendall, have two sons, Cade and Carson, and they make their home in Scottsdale.

Mark Fernandez

Vice President of Community Affairs

Mark returned to Phoenix in August of 1999 after spending the better part of three years in Tucson as Director of Operations for the spring training site of the Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox. He represented both clubs in the development and construction of Tucson Electric Park while establishing a marketing and community presence in southern Arizona. His new responsibilities include continuing of the Tucson and southern Arizona operation, as well as supervising all Diamondback community programs, while also serving as Executive Director of Diamondback Charities.

Joining the Arizona office of the Diamondbacks was a homecoming for Fernandez, who joined the America West Arena/Phoenix Suns organization in January, 1992, serving as Director of Marketing and Booking for the arena, setting numerous attendance records for national touring events. Mark also supervised guest services and was Director of Game Operations for Phoenix Arena Sports.

As is consistent with the majority of personnel with the Diamondbacks, Mark gives back when away from the office serving on the Board of Directors of the Valley of the Sun United Way, St. Joseph's Hospital and Cox Charities. He and his wife, Trudie, and children, Grace, Jamie and Eden, make their home in Phoenix.

Scott Geyer

Vice President of Broadcasting

Scott's endless hours of work began in 1995 as he prepared the organization for its live television productions, as well as provided design insight into the construction of Bank One Ballpark from the media point of view. The Diamondbacks had the right man providing that information, as Geyer is in his 20th year of sports television, serving the club as the Director for each game telecast throughout the year.

Prior to his move to the Diamondbacks, Geyer spent 10 years as Producer/Director of the Phoenix Suns television package, while also managing the production and post-production division of America West Arena since it opened in 1992. His baseball television resume includes directing a major league package for FOX Sports Net and a five-year stint directing AAA baseball in the Valley in the 1980's.

Scott and his wife Lisa have two sons, Adam (7) and Travis (4).

Tom Harris

Vice President of Finance

Tom joined the Arizona Diamondbacks as the Vice President of Finance in July of 1995. The man in charge of the entire operating budget, Harris and his accounting staff work in concert with each department to maintain their individual budgets. He also supervises all general accounting activities, and ensures operations are in accordance with ownership goals and objectives.

Harris came to the Diamondbacks by way of the Phoenix Suns and the America West Arena, where he was the Financial Controller of the Arena for two years. Prior to entering the sports industry, he was employed by Gene A. Schwarzkopf, CPA, Ltd. for three years.

A native of Winslow, an Arizona town that the Eagles made famous in the song "Take it Easy," Tom graduated in accounting from Arizona State University, and earned a Master's in Taxation from ASU in December 1992. He began his professional career in 1985 at Arthur Andersen & Co.

Tom and his wife, Kathleen, have three children, Sean, Sarah and Kelly and make their home in Phoenix.

Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena Vice Presidents

Alvan Adams

Vice President of Facility Management

Area basketball fans recognize Alvan Adams as he makes his rounds at Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena, whose uniform number hangs proudly at AWA after an outstanding NBA career. The Suns' first round choice in the 1975 draft, Alvan earned league Rookie-of-the-Year honors in 1976.

After retiring from the hardwood in 1988, Adams turned his attention to the development of America West Arena a year later, then Bank One Ballpark in 1996. He was named to his present role in 1999, overseeing both sports and entertainment facilities.

Once he completed his NBA career, Alvan returned to the University of Oklahoma, earning a Bachelor's Degree. His civic involvement revolves around his interest in working with youth and the historic preservation of Phoenix.

Alvan and his wife, Sara, have two children and make their home in Paradise Valley.

Russ Amaral

Vice President of Event Services

Russ was promoted to his current role after spending over two years as Director of Ballpark Services for Bank One Ballpark. His promotion entails him overseeing guest service issues and event operations at both the ballpark and America West Arena. He was rewarded for his work ethic and knowledge last October as Major League Baseball invited him to assist with stadium operations at both Yankee and Shea Stadiums during the World Series.

Amaral joined the America West staff in May, 1992, as a part-time guest service representative, then becoming a department manager just four months later. He took over the event coordinator position in 1996, specifically overseeing Phoenix Coyote games. It was from there that Russ joined the effort in getting Bank One Ballpark ready for its debut.

Prior to joining the Arena forces, Russ was one of the original employees at America West Airlines in Phoenix. He spent nine years working a variety of positions, including the final two years as in-flight manager for B-747 onboard crews.

Amaral is a graduate of Oregon State University, earning a degree in Business Administration. He and his wife, Beverly, make their home in Phoenix.

George Bevons

Vice President of Security and Risk Management

George oversees the Security and Risk Management departments at both Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena. Over the past year, more than 4.5 million guests have been through the gates of the two facilities, and George sees to it that everyone is safe while enjoying the various events.

He has supervised the security and safety issues for the America West Arena since 1992, and with the construction of Bank One Ballpark, his expertise has expanded greatly. George and his family have resided in the Valley for over 20 years.

William Bolt

Vice President - Information Systems

When Bill joined the organization in 1991 as the Suns' Director of Information Systems, the computer count totaled five, but that figure has since grown to nearly 500, as he has been promoted to Vice President. He oversees the computer needs for all entities of both Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena.

Bill's role with the Diamondbacks and Suns is not his first work in professional sports, spending five seasons as the Director of Information Systems for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings. Bolt split his formative years between Detroit, MI, and Cleveland, OH, growing up fans of both the Tigers and Indians. He then attended the University of Minnesota.

Bill and his wife, Kathie, make their home in north Scottsdale.

Bob Nanberg

Vice President of Merchandising

Bob joined the Team Shop in May, 1998, bringing 32 years of retail experience with Major National Retailers. He was the Principal in a national women's accessory chain from 1986-95.

In addition to the Team Shop, Nanberg is involved with the Salvation Army, Arizona Humane Society and Sunshine Acres Children's Home.

Bob and his wife, Cheryl, have two grown sons, and two dogs.

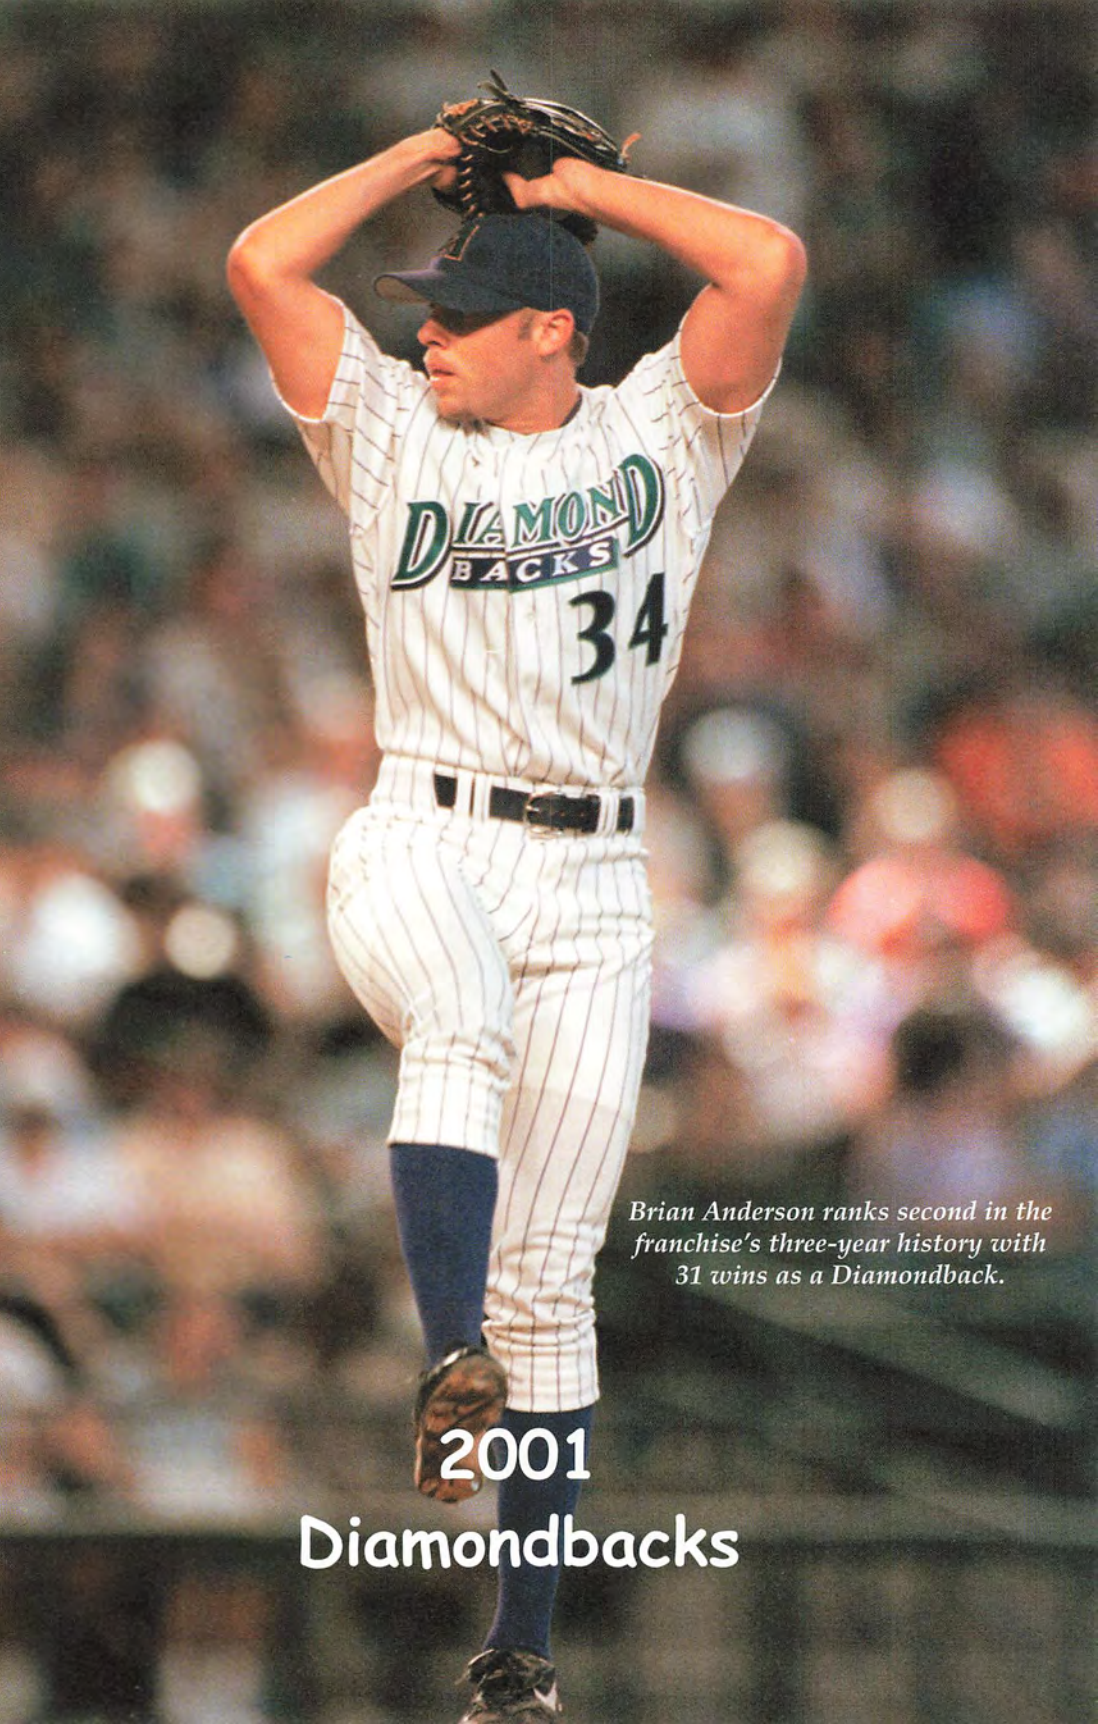

Paige Peterson

General Manager of Bank One Ballpark

As the General Manager of Sports and Entertainment Services, LLC, Paige oversees all operations of Bank One Ballpark and the America West Arena. He joined the organization in 1995 as Controller of America West Arena, where his responsibilities included budgeting, financial reporting and settlement of events held at the arena. In 1998, he took the initiative to lead the refinancing of the arena's debt, successfully saving the arena and City of Phoenix millions of dollars.

Prior to coming on board, Paige spent four years in public accounting with Arthur Andersen in Phoenix. He graduated from the University of Arizona, earning a degree in accounting and finance.

Paige and his wife, Jody, have a son, Rex, and make their home in Phoenix.

Brian Anderson ranks second in the franchise's three-year history with 31 wins as a Diamondback.

Bob Brenly

Manager

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 210

Age: 47

Born: February 25, 1954 in Coshocton, OH

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

Former Position: Catcher

15

FROM THE BOOTH TO THE BENCH—Bob was named the second manager in franchise history when he took over the reins on October 30, 2000...while the interview process was extensive, the Diamondbacks didn't have far to go to find their new skipper, as the affable Brenly spent the first 3 seasons of the club's history watching the action from the comfort of the television booth...he surrendered his spot upstairs at D'Back games as well as "the best seat in the house" at his weekly FOX Network assignment to sign a 3-year contract to manage the club...B.B. began his broadcast career immediately following his retirement as a player, joining the WGN radio crew in Chicago and working alongside Thom Brennaman and Harry Caray for two seasons...Brenly then took advantage of an opportunity to put the uniform back on in 1992, joining Roger Craig's staff as bullpen coach with the San Francisco Giants...he remained in uniform after a managerial change in the Bay Area, working on Dusty Baker's staff for the first 3 years of Baker's lengthy stay with the Giants...Bob went to spring training for a possible fourth year as a coach with the Giants in 1996, but a couple of weeks into camp received a phone call from his old running mate in Chicago, as Brennaman advised him of the opportunity at FOX...a flight to Los Angeles and a rehearsal tape later, Brenly was once again leaving the uniform for the broadcast booth...Bob's insight into the game earned him annual work in the FOX booth for all of the network's marquee baseball events including the All-Star Game, League Championship Series and World Series coverage...when Brennaman was named to describe the action for the expansion Diamondbacks, he made the recommendation of bringing his network TV partner to Arizona and the duo was together when the club debuted in 1998...the hiring of Brenly marked the second manager to be plucked from the broadcast booth and take over the field chores prior to the 2001 season, with Toronto's Buck Martinez leaving the serenity of the Blue Jay and ESPN telecasts to guide the troops north of the border...though it hasn't happened often, there has been precedent as Houston's Larry Dierker made the jump from the the Houston radio booth in 1997 to eventually become the BBWAA's choice for N.L. Manager of the Year in 1998...prior to the 1980 campaign in San Diego, former Yankee infielder Jerry Coleman left the booth to lead the Padres for one season...over the winter another member of the FOX Network brethren was tabbed for club responsibilities when Matt Millen was named the President/General Manager of the Detroit Lions.

WHO SAID "TOOLS OF IGNORANCE?"—The phrase used to describe catchers might need an adjustment after counting the number of major league managers who once put the gear on during their playing days...the wintertime hirings of Brenly, Martinez and Cincinnati's Bob Boone upped the count of former catchers to 7 who have assumed big league managerial roles...the trio from the winter of 2000 joined already active skippers Bruce Bochy (San Diego), Johnny Oates (Texas), Mike Scioscia (Anaheim) and Joe Torre (New York)...of the 30 men who entered the 2001 campaign as managers, 12 were former infielders to lead the pack by position, while 9 were outfielders in their playing days and 2 were pitchers.

PLAYING CAREER—Bob signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Giants after graduating from Ohio University in 1976...after 5+ years of minor league action, including the better part of 2 seasons with the Phoenix Giants, he was summoned to San Francisco in August, 1981, making his big league debut just a couple of hours away from his hometown of Coshocton, OH, when he played in Cincinnati on August 14...while that was a memorable day in his life, his debut at bat in Candlestick Park on August 28 made an even bigger splash when he homered off Pittsburgh's Rod Scurry...his 1982 season started slowly after breaking his collarbone in spring training and when Brenly appeared for the first time on May 14 he delivered a 2-out single in the eighth inning to break up Steve Carlton's bid for a no-hitter...Bob made a solid impression to open the 1983 season, homering and knocking in 4 on Opening Day, but his most consistent work offensively lasted the entire 1984 campaign...he established career bests in virtually every category, finishing with a .291 average with 28 doubles, 20 homers and 80 RBI...he hit .316 in the first half and was named to the N.L. All-Star team allowing him to play before the home crowd at Candlestick Park in the Midsummer Classic...his season climaxed when he was voted winner of the Willie Mac Award by his teammates...the '84 season also featured his first career grand slam off of Atlanta's Pete Falcone on June 6 in Candlestick...he was the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for August 20-26, hitting .440 with 4 homers and 14 RBI...he started the following week with an inside-the-park, game-winning home run at Montreal on August 29...Bob was Giants' Player-of-the-Month for August, hitting .312 with 8 homers and 29 RBI... though he never duplicated the numbers of 1984, Brenly recorded 73 home runs over a 4-year stretch from 1984-87...with 19 home runs in 1985, he was the first Giant catcher to lead the team in homers in 100 years when Buck Ewing hit 6 of the team's 16 in 1885...the 1986 season had its share of high points, but he will often be remembered for a game on September 14 against Atlanta that was full of the highs and the lows...on that afternoon, B.B. became just the fourth player since 1900 to commit 4 errors in an inning...playing third base, he was charged with 3 fielding and 1 throwing miscue in the fourth inning, but he reciprocated by knocking in 4 runs on 3 hits, featuring 2 home runs including a game-ending blast off of Paul Assenmacher...for the second time in his career he victimized a potential no-hitter by a Phillie hurler, breaking up Don Carman's bid for a perfect game with a leadoff double in the ninth inning on August 20...Bob had his fourth and final double-digit homer season in 1987, featuring a 3-run pinch-hit home run in Candlestick Park on May 12 off St. Louis' Ricky Horton, the 500th hit of Brenly's career...he had blasted the second grand slam of his career just 2 days earlier off of Houston's Mike Scott...his last home run of the year was a 10th inning game-winner to beat Atlanta on the final day of the season, and was the 205th blast by the Giants in 1987 to set a team record...Brenly started 5 games of the NLCS against St. Louis, delivering a home run in Game #4 off of Danny Cox...Bob never got it going offensively in 1988 hitting just .189 in 73 games...he delivered his sixth career 2-homer game on May 8 at Wrigley Field and tied a career-best with 5 RBI on August 7 in Atlanta...the 1989 season was his last as a player and it began north of the border with Toronto, signing with the Blue Jays as a free agent...he was used mainly as a designated hitter, playing in 48 games before being given his unconditional release on July 23...his last big league homer and lone American League shot took place on June 14 in Milwaukee off of Mark Knudson...Brenly signed a AAA contract with the Giants AAA affiliate in Phoenix, hitting .255 in 27 games for the Firebirds before his contract was purchased by San Francisco on August 31...the home folks welcomed Brenly back with a standing ovation as he came to the plate for his first at bat on September 2, and he responded with an RBI double off of Frank Viola...he delivered a game-winning RBI in the 12th inning at Candlestick on September 14 off the Reds' Norm Charlton.

The Brenly's after the press conference naming Bob manager.

PERSONAL—Robert Earl (Bob) Brenly...he and his wife, Joan, have a daughter, Lacey (7/9/82) and son, Michael (10/14/86) and make their home in Scottsdale...Bob was a 1972 graduate of Coshocton (OH) High School, lettering in baseball and basketball...he then graduated from Ohio University in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science in Health Education while starring on the baseball diamond, earning All-American honors for his senior season after tying Mike Schmidt's school record for home runs (10)...Brenly was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame on October 29, 1988...known for his television work over the last few years, Bob actually got his first taste of working in the media while still active as a player with the Giants, hosting "The Bob Brenly Show" after every Giants game in 1988...he was also active with the ALS Society during his career, serving as an honorary chairman.

COACHING CAREER—An organizational original, Murph is in his fourth season on the major league coaching staff but has assumed new duties for 2001 as the club's hitting coach...he joined the Diamondbacks in

Courtesy Oakland Athletics

1996 as manager of the Arizona Rookie League entry, then spent the '97 season as a coach at High Desert (A), as the Mavericks won the California League title...Murph followed that with a stint as the first base and outfield coach for the Grand Canyon Rafters in the Arizona Fall League, then joined the big league club in 1998...he spent his first 3 seasons with the Diamondbacks as the outfield and first base coach, employing his defensive expertise to a group of outfielders that features 4-time Rawlings Gold Glove honoree Steve Finley...Murph was also behind the success of a pair of position switches when Tony Womack and Travis Lee each made successful transitions from infielders to outfielders...Murph was ticketed to manage in the Dominican Republic this past off-season, but his work was cut short due to recurring problems with a knee that was surgically repaired last season.

PLAYING CAREER—Recognized as one of the top centerfielders in the game during his time, Murph has the hardware to show for his efforts...he was a 6-time winner of the Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence, procuring all of them in consecutive seasons from 1980-85 with the Oakland A's...he spent 12 years in the majors, the first 10 of which were with the Athletics before finishing up in 1988 and 1989 with Detroit and Philadelphia, respectively...though his offensive numbers didn't make the same headlines that his glove work commanded, Murph delivered 166 home runs and 609 RBI...he was named to The Sporting News All-Star team in 1981, leading the A.L. in game-winning RBI...he enjoyed a 33-home run season in 1984 with the A's, knocking in 88 runs, while posting 27 homers and 94 RBI in 1982...he also ended his playing career with 100 stolen bases, twice pilfering 26 in a season...Murph was part of an unusual trivia question in 1980, as he and Wayne Gross each stole home in the first inning of a game vs. Kansas City on May 28.

PERSONAL—Dwayne Keith Murph...he and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Dwayne (5/12/73) and Scott (11/23/74), and a daughter, Christina (9/2/ 79) and make their home in Ahwatukee...Murph played for one season in Japan in 1990 with the Yakult Swallows, then returned stateside to coach football...a 3-sport athlete at Antelope Valley (CA) High School, football landed him a scholarship to Arizona State, but he turned it down to sign with the Athletics in 1973...he returned to the gridiron in 1991 at Monte Vista (CA) High School, coaching the freshman team, then the junior varsity the following season before taking over the head coach position at California High School from 1993-95...he then returned to baseball, joining the Diamondbacks' organization...an avid golfer, Murph can oftentimes be found on one of the many courses in the Valley.

First Base Coach

Ht: 5-8

Wt: 170

Age: 42

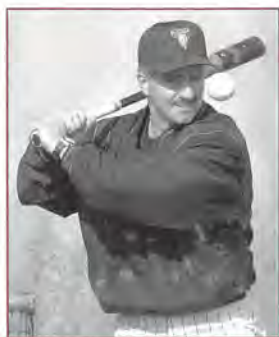

Born: March 11, 1959 in Havana, Cuba

Residence: Mesa, AZ

Former Position: Outfielder

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER—Eddie joined the Diamondbacks after a gratifying trip to Australia last summer, accompanying the U.S Olympic team on their Gold Medal journey to Sydney...he took a late-July leave of absence from his managerial role with Queens, one of Toronto's short-season A clubs, to handle the third base coaching chores for Tommy Lasorda...Rodriguez joined the Olympians in San Diego for workouts then made the trek down-under where the squad went 7-1 featuring a 4-0 win over Cuba to bring home the Gold... Eddie was in the midst of his second season at Queens after joining the Blue Jays' chain in 1998 as the third base coach for the big league club...prior to arriving in Toronto he spent 15 years in the California Angels' organization dating back to a coaching role with Peoria (A) of the Midwest League in 1983...he was twice employed as a player/coach, doing double-duty with Waterbury in 1984 (64 games) and appearing in 9 games during a coaching stint with Quad Cities in 1986...Eddie was also with Quad Cities in 1985, but did not appear in a game as a player...he got his first test as a manager in 1986, serving as the skipper at Quad Cities from 1987-89, then managed at Midland (Texas League) in 1990...Rodriguez was tabbed as the minor league roving defense coordinator from 1991-93, then completed his extended stint with the Angels' chain as their field coordinator from 1994-97.

PLAYING CAREER—Eddie's playing career spanned 6 minor league seasons, but he also got a jump on coaching while playing, twice serving as a player/coach...his career began in 1978 after signing with Baltimore as a January draft selection...he hit a professional-high .289 in his first season with Bluefield (A) in the Appalachian League...he spent the entire 1979 season with Miami and opened the following campaign there, but was moved to Redwood...Rodriguez spent 1981 with Holyoke and was released after the season...he then spent portions of the 1984 and 1986 seasons as a player/coach.

PERSONAL—Eduardo (Eddie) Rodriguez...he and his wife, Mavelin, and son, Joshua (2/14/88) make their home in Mesa, AZ...a native of Havana, Cuba, he graduated from Miami Senior High School in 1977 then attended Miami Dade South Junior College...Rodriguez was selected by Minnesota in the 1977 June draft, but chose not to sign until the following January when Baltimore made him a draft choice.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER—Bob Brenly's appointment of Chris Speier as the third base coach marks a homecoming for the Scottsdale resident and former shortstop who managed in the Diamondbacks' minor league system for 4 seasons...he left the chain prior to 1999 and got his first taste of coaching at the major league level, serving as the third base coach for Davey Lopes in Milwaukee...Speier experienced instant success as a minor league manager in the Diamondbacks' chain, getting his first test with Lethbridge (Rookie) in 1996, taking that club to the post-season...he followed with a California League championship in 1997 at the helm of the High Desert Mavericks (A), earning league Manager-of-the-Year honors...his last 2 years in Arizona's minor league chain were spent managing the Tucson Sidewinders of the Pacific Coast League...Chris also returned to the Valley to manage Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League during the 1998 season...he came to the Diamondbacks initially after coaching the Cubs' AA club in Orlando in 1995...his professional coaching career began as a roving instructor for the Giants in 1990.

© San Francisco Giants Archives

PLAYING CAREER—Chris had a 19-year major league career to tie a modern day record for most years at shortstop...his extended career began with just 1 season of minor league ball at Amarillo (AA) in 1970, then his big league career started with 6+ years in San Francisco and ended 19 years later with a 3-year return engagement with the Giants...in between stays by the bay, Speier made stops in Montreal, St. Louis, Minnesota and with the Chicago Cubs...he was such a valued member of the Expos that he was named to their Hall of Fame in 1988 for his 7+ seasons north of the border...Chris collected his 1,000th major league hit in Candlestick Park on July 24, 1977, just months after being traded by the Giants to the Expos...Speier hit for a pair of cycles during his career, the first on July 20, 1981 against Atlanta while an Expo...he had a 5-hit game vs. St. Louis, featuring the cycle on July 9, 1988, during his return stint with the Giants...Chris also had an 8-RBI game on September 22, 1982 against the Phils...his 1,500th career hit was a homer exactly a year later on September 22, 1983 off Philadelphia's Ron Reed...a trio of Speier's clubs wound up in post-season play, the 1971 and 1987 Giants, and the 1981 Expos...he homered off of Pittsburgh's Steve Blass in Game #4 of the 1971 NLCS...Chris was named to consecutive N.L.

All-Star teams from 1972-74, and he was the shortstop on The Sporting News' 1972 National League All-Star squad.

PERSONAL—Chris Edward Speier...he has 4 sons, Justin, Luke, Cole and Travis, and 2 daughters, Erika and Brittany, and makes his home in Scottsdale...his oldest son, Justin, is a pitcher for the Cleveland Indians...Chris graduated in 1968 from Alameda (CA) High School, then attended the University of California at Santa Barbara where he lettered in baseball...he was initially selected by the Washington Senators in the 11th round of the 1968 June draft, but chose to attend college...he eventually signed with the Giants as a selection in the secondary

Diamondbacks On The Web

The Arizona Diamondbacks' official world wide web site is now part of Major League Baseball Advanced Media and contains the most up-to-date information in Major League Baseball's young web life. Updated daily, it provides fans with the latest news and information about the Diamondbacks, featuring team press releases, information on Bank One Ballpark, box scores, real-audio broadcasts, and daily game notes. Fans can also order tickets, receive an extensive updated statistical package and order team merchandise, while keeping up with the organization's minor league clubs.

Pitching Coach

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 193

Age: 44 (Turns 45 on November 3)

Born: November 3, 1956 in Detroit, MI

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

Former Position: Pitcher

COACHING CAREER—Bob has had an abbreviated coaching career, but he brings an abundance of winning to Bob Brenly's initial staff, finishing his career with a 211-146 record, a .591 winning pct., featuring 8 years of post-season action...Welch's coaching work has included a year as pitching coach at Arizona State University in 1995, then he managed the Valley Vipers of the Western Professional League last summer.

Courtesy Los Angeles Dodgers

PLAYING CAREER—Bob was the American League Cy Young Award winner in 1990 with Oakland, posting a 27-6 mark for the league champs...the '90 campaign was the high point of a 17-year major league career that began with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1978 and ended with the A's in 1994, his only 2 big league stops...Welch was LA's first pick in the 1977 June draft, the 21st player selected overall and just 25 minor league starts and a little over a year, he was summoned to the majors on June 19, 1978, as a 21-year old...from that point, his only minor league action was a rehab stint in 1985...Bob tossed 3 shutouts in his first summer with L.A., including a 4-0 win over San Diego on September 24, icing the N.L. West title...he fanned Reggie Jackson to save Game #2 of the World Series in one of the most memorable moments in Fall Classic history...Welch earned his first of 2 All-Star appearances in 1980, featuring a 6-game winning streak from April 30-June 3...his 1982 campaign witnessed 16 wins and 6 no decisions that wound up 1-run games...he also got his first taste of the outfield, playing right and left in a 21-inning game on August 17-18 in Chicago...he tied Fernando Valenzuela for the Dodger lead in wins with 15 in 1983, while his

2.65 ERA ranked third best in the N.L., as he finished eighth in the Cy Young balloting...he tossed his second career 1-hitter on June 1 vs. Philly, the lone knock a Von Hayes single in the fourth inning...Bob had a deceiving 7-13 record in 1984, as the Dodgers scored just 21 runs in his 13 setbacks, including 3 shutouts...he recorded his 1,000th career strikeout by getting San Diego's Garry Templeton on June 22...he won his 100th career decision on September 8 against Atlanta...Bob went 15-9 in 1987, and in the 9 games he lost, the Dodgers totaled just 15 runs...his last start as a Dodger was also his third career 1-hitter, defeating the Giants on October 1...Bob made the move to Oakland as part of a 3-team, 8-player trade between the A's, Dodgers and Mets on December 11, 1987...he won 17 games in 1988 and went up against his old mates from L.A. in the World Series, allowing just 1 run over 5.0 innings with 8 K's in a no decision, the only game the A's won in the '88 Fall Classic...the 1989 season marked his second straight 17-win campaign with Oakland...he was the A's scheduled starter for Game #3 of the World Series at Candlestick Park, but during his warm-up the tragic earthquake struck the Bay Area and by the time the Series resumed 11 days later, Dave Stewart was given the start...his record-setting 27-6 season of 1990 featured a start in the All-Star Game at Wrigley Field, a win over Boston in the ALCS and 15 of a possible 28 first place votes in the Cy Young Award balloting...the 27 wins were the most in the majors since Steve Carlton won 27 in 1972 with the Phillies, and the most in the A.L. since Denny McClain's 31 in 1968...Bob recorded his 20th victory on August 17 vs. Baltimore, the earliest any pitcher won 20 since Wilbur Wood with the White Sox in '73...Welch was the 11th pitcher since 1942 to win 20 more games than he lost...he was a 4-1 winner in Game #2 of the ALCS at Boston, allowing a run in 7.1 innings...the '90 season climaxed a 3-year stretch in which Welch went 61-23...as his career continued, injuries nagged him, as he was a 3-time visitor to the disabled list in 1992 with shoulder, knee and elbow ailments...he became the 91st pitcher in big league history to eclipse the 200 victory mark with a win in the 1993 season opener over Detroit...Bob was relegated to a majority of relief work in his final season of 1994, appearing in 25 games for the A's, 17 of which were out of the bullpen.

PERSONAL—Robert Lynn (Bob) Welch...he and his wife, Mary Ellen, and sons Dylan (7/29/89) and Riley (9/12/90) make their home in Scottsdale, AZ...Bob prepped at Hazel Park High School in Ferndale, MI, then pitched for 3 seasons at Eastern Michigan University, going 17-8 with a 1.62 ERA, while earning All-America honors as a sophomore...he was also a 2-time All-Mid American Conference choice...he was selected one of the 10 Outstanding Young Americans by the United States Jaycees in 1986...early in his career, Bob won the battle against alcoholism and in 1982 co-authored a book with the New York Times' George Vecsey, "Five O'Clock Comes Early, A Young Man's Battle with Alcoholism," detailing Welch's struggle to keep his career on track.

Roger Craig

Spring Training Advisor

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 193

Age: 71

Born: February 17, 1930 in Durham, NC

Residence: Warner Springs, CA

Former Position: Pitcher

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER—When Bob Brenly was given the opportunity to tap into his resources, he didn't hesitate to ask if Roger Craig could come to spring training to assist with the coaching staff...Craig, a veteran of over 40 years in professional baseball, managed Brenly, Bob Melvin and Chris Speier during their playing days with the Giants...Roger had 9 full seasons as a manager in the National League beginning with the 1978-79 campaigns in San Diego, then 7+ years at the helm in San Francisco...the club that he took over with 18 games remaining in 1985 made a dramatic turnaround in 1986, going 83-72...the Giants followed that a year later with their first of 2 Western Division crowns under his guidance with a 90-72 record in 1987...his 1989 squad went 92-70 and ended up in the World Series, a Fall Classic that was interrupted by the tragic earthquake that hit the Bay Area...when not managing, Craig established himself as one of the top pitching coaches in the game, leading the Detroit Tiger staff from 1980-1984, with the last club in that stretch running away with the American League crown and eventual World Series title.

PLAYING CAREER—Roger's professional playing career began as a minor league pitcher in 1950 and featured big league stops with the Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers (1955-61), New York Mets (1962-63), St. Louis Cardinals (1964), Cincinnati Reds (1965) and Philadelphia Phillies (1966)...he appeared in 7 World Series games during his career, including 5 with the Dodgers and a pair with the Redbirds combining for a 2-2 mark...Craig was a lifetime 74-98 on the hill, but those numbers were skewed dramatically when he made a 2-year stop with the New York Mets when they began their franchise in 1962-63, combining for a 15-46 mark in those campaigns...Roger was a combined 59-52 over his other 10 major league seasons.

PERSONAL—Roger married his high school sweetheart, Carolyn, and this year the couple will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary...the Craigs have a son, three daughters and seven grandchildren, and the entire family makes their home in the San Diego area.

Behind the Seams

Paul Lessard
Head Athletic Trainer

The Diamondback training room has been a true test of Paul's abilities as not only a trainer but his expertise in rehabilitation, as he and partner Dave Edwards have excelled at getting players back on the field. The work by the training staff is enhanced by one of the top medical facilities in any professional sports venue, featuring a room dedicated to hydro-therapy and an in-house X-Ray machine with technicians.

Paul's four years of work with the Diamondbacks is his first major league action, but not his first baseball experience, breaking in with the Ft. Lauderdale Yankees in 1987. Prior to returning to baseball, Lessard had a 10-year career as a trainer in collegiate athletics.

The 38-year old Lessard graduated from Northeastern University with a degree in athletic training. He spent two years as the assistant athletic trainer for the Atlanta Falcons, then went to work in the Yankees' chain before returning to the college ranks. Paul was the senior athletic trainer at Boston University from 1988-94, then served as the head athletic trainer at Holy Cross University from 1994-97.

A native of Stamford, CT, he serves as a certification exam coordinator for the NATA and is a member of the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Organization of Massachusetts. Paul has a pair of daughters, Grace and Anne.

Dave Edwards
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Dave is in his fourth season as the assistant athletic trainer with the major league club, though he's one of the organization originals, working for a pair of minor league seasons. The 35-year old's baseball training career started in the Arizona chain in 1996 for the Rookie League entry, then it was on to High Desert, working for the California League champs in 1997. Edwards' bilingual skills are a terrific asset in the training room, eliminating any potential medical communication difficulties with Spanish speaking players, as well as serving part-time as an interpreter.

A native of Deming, NM, Edwards received a degree in athletic training from New Mexico State University in 1988. During his final days at New Mexico State, Dave began plying his trade in pro baseball with Pocatello and Everett in the Giants' chain from 1987-90. He earned his Master's in athletic training from the University of Nevada in 1991, then returned to the Valley as the head athletic trainer at Grand Canyon University from 1991-96. He was also the assistant trainer for three seasons for the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League.

Dave is single and makes his home in Phoenix.

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Dave is in his second full season with the big league club, joining the championship squad at mid-stream in 1999 and remaining here since. His Diamondback career began as the minor league strength and conditioning coordinator in 1998, designing both winter and in-season programs for all minor league players. Page also trained and supervised the strength coaches for each affiliate, and worked specifically with the Tucson Sidewinders until his move to Phoenix.

His baseball strength coaching career began in the Marlins' chain, administering an in-season program with the Portland Sea Dogs in the Eastern League, also serving as their bullpen coach.

A four-year baseball letterman at the University of Southern Maine in Gorham, Dave received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1989. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association, and completed a sports medicine internship in 1997.

Dave and his wife Lori had their first child last October, son Jackson, and they make their home in Tempe.

Dr. Michael Lee Head Team Physician

After assisting the Diamondbacks with their orthopedic needs for the past five years, Dr. Michael Lee was named Head Team Physician last November. In his new role, Dr. Lee will oversee a support team of orthopedists and primary care physicians to provide whole-spectrum medical care to the entire Diamondbacks organization. He is board certified in orthopedic surgery and is an active member of the Major League Baseball Team Physicians Association.

He had previously taken care of other major league clubs, as well as serving as orthopedic consultant to the Arizona State University sports teams. Dr. Lee grew up in Phoenix, then graduated from the University of California-San Diego and attended the University of Arizona, where he completed Master's coursework in Exercise Physiology, graduating from the College of Medicine with honors in 1988. He completed his orthopedic residency at the University of Kansas, then was awarded a Sports Medicine fellowship with the University of Illinois School of Medicine.

Dr. Lee returned to Phoenix seven years ago with his wife, Martha, and three children, Conor (19), Allison (17) and Brendan (16).

Dr. Roger McCoy Team Physician

Roger L. McCoy, M.D., has been part of the Diamondbacks' family since the organization's start-up, working with the minor leaguers prior to the opening of the '98 major league season. He is a Board Certified Family Physician with special training in sports medicine. After graduating from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, he received his master's degree in anatomy as well as his medical degree from Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. While completing his family practice residency in Toledo, he served as a team physician for the University of Toledo and a couple of local high schools for three years.

Dr. McCoy was honored as the Sports Medicine Fellow at Michigan State University where he served as team physician and a faculty member teaching and developing course work at the medical school.

Aside from his responsibilities with the Diamondbacks, he is also team physician for Arizona State University, a published author in sports medicine literature and a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine.

Greg Latta Head Minor League Trainer/Rehabilitation Coordinator

Greg joined the Diamondbacks at the end of the 2000 season as the club's coordinator of rehabilitation and minor league head trainer. Working out of the Tucson complex, 42-year old Latta continues the work he did most recently for the Chicago White Sox minor league system.

After graduating from Western Michigan University in 1982, Greg took his degree in education and went in another direction, hired by the White Sox and assigned to their AA team in Glens Falls, NY. He moved up to AAA in 1985 and through 1997 made stops in Buffalo, Hawaii, Vancouver and Nashville before making his way to Tucson and settling in as the minor league head trainer and rehab coordinator for the Sox.

Greg and his wife, Sue, and son, Nicholas, make their home in Tucson.

In the Clubhouse

Bob Doty

Visiting Clubhouse/Equipment Manager

A native San Diegan, Bob made a tough decision but made the move to Arizona in the winter prior to the 1998 season, assuming the same role he held in San Diego for a dozen seasons. Adept in all phases of the equipment operation, Doty is also in charge of ordering and stocking equipment for the major league and minor league clubs. He joined the Diamondbacks after a 20-year stay in his hometown with the Padres.

The role of the visiting clubhouse attendant is an all-encompassing position including unpacking each team when their equipment arrives at Bank One Ballpark, regardless of the time of day, while also cleaning all of the uniforms and making sure the clubhouse is properly catered for the visiting players.

A graduate of University High School in San Diego, Bob and his wife Angie have a pair of daughters, Lauren and Sarah, and make their home in Phoenix.

Jim Currigan

Video Coordinator

Jim has been with the Diamondbacks since their inception, but in 2001 has assumed a new role as the video coordinator. A member of the organization's in-house television production crew since 1997, Currigan will now assist the coaching staff and players by taping every pitch of every game. A new video system will be in place for the 2001 season and comes complete with an abundance of satellite dishes in order to tape the upcoming opponents for scouting purposes.

Jim was a 1997 Broadcast Journalism graduate of Arizona State University. He and his wife Mary, make their home in Phoenix and are expecting their first child in May.

Jeff Motuzas

Bullpen Catcher

Though the job title is that of bullpen catcher, his day is full of more than simply warming pitchers. Bullpen catching is his last responsibility on a game day, as it begins with preparing baseballs for batting practice, then throwing B.P. on a daily basis. He is also available in the clubhouse and batting cage during the winter months, catching the pitchers who come in for work as well as throwing batting practice to the hitters who participate in the voluntary workouts in Bank One Ballpark during the "off-season."

Formerly a catcher in the Yankees' chain, he was a 13th round pick of New York in 1990 after earning All-American status at Nashua (NH) High School. Aside from his role with the Diamondbacks, Jeff is a certified personal trainer.

He is single and makes his off-season home in Phoenix.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Cleveland Indians as the first choice in the first round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Brian recorded his second highest career win total with 11-7 mark, one win short of his career high, while 213.1 innings established a career-high, 5.1 more than the '98 season...he was the starting pitcher in 17 consecutive Arizona victories between July 24, 1999, and May 23, tying the Yankees' Whitey Ford (1961) for the third longest in the post expansion era (since 1961) according to Elias Sports Bureau...only Tom Filer (1982-88 with the Cubs, Blue Jays and Brewers) and Chuck Finley (1997-98 with Anaheim) had longer streaks...B.A. opened the year with 5 straight wins spanning 10 starts, extending personal winning streak to 11 in a row dating back to July 24, 1999, when the streak began with a 3-0 win at home over Los Angeles...his last win in the streak was June 2 in Texas, a 5-4 triumph...the winning streak was snapped with 9-4 loss in Chicago on June 7, allowing a club record-tying 9 earned runs in 5.2 innings...B.A. had his only 2 complete games of the year in mid-September going the distance in consecutive starts at Los Angeles and at San Francisco, splitting the decisions...he lost 1-0 to Chan Ho Park in Dodger Stadium on September 19, allowing an eighth inning run...he followed that with an 8-3 win in San Francisco on September 24, scattering 7 hits and 3 runs, with all 3 tallies coming via solo homers...he finished second in the N.L. in fewest walks per 9-innings with a 1.6 mark, leading the league until his final 2 starts of the year, but allowed 7 walks in consecutive outings against the Giants, including a career-high 5 free passes in final start on September 29, a 4-3 loss...had a streak of 117 consecutive batters faced without issuing a walk from May 12-June 7...Brian led the staff with 10 pickoff/caught stealings, tying Al Leiter and John Halama for the major league lead, the second time in 3 seasons he's tied for the top spot in the majors...the long ball was once again prevalent, allowing 38 roundtrippers ranking second in the N.L., one home run shy of his career high set in 1998...of the 101 runs he surrendered during the year, 55 of were the direct result of the home runs (54%)...he finished with 14 no decisions, tops among all N.L. starting pitchers...he allowed 2 hits in 8.0 innings of a 2-0 win over Colorado in Bank One Ballpark on June 23, the 20th shutout in franchise history...he gave up 2 or fewer earned runs in 6 consecutive starts from June 23-July 18, totaling 6 earnies in 43.2 innings for a 1.24 ERA, going 2-1 with 3 no-decisions...he was 0-2 in his 6 July starts despite compiling a 2.52 ERA...the drought was broken on August 3 when he defeated Atlanta, 8-4...his 3.36 ERA in night games ranked seventh in the league.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—He opened the year in the pen due to the off-season addition of Randy Johnson, Todd Stottlemire and Armando Reynoso...Anderson was 0-1 with a save in his first 8 bullpen appearances, allowing 11 earned runs in 10.1 innings (9.58 ERA)...the save was the first regular season rescue of his career, working the final 3.1 innings vs. the Giants on April 16...he was optioned to AAA on May 8, made a pair of starts, then returned to the big league club 12 days later to replace the injured Stottlemire in the rotation...Anderson gave up 19 earned runs in his first 18.2 innings as a starter, a 9.16 ERA, then went 5-1 with a 3.84 ERA over his next 11 starts (28 earned runs in 65.2 innings)...the stretch concluded with a 3-hit, 4-0 win at home over the Cubs on August 17, his second career shutout...Anderson returned to the pen in mid-August when Stott returned, and worked 4 times before getting another opportunity to start...Brian finished the year posting a 1.98 ERA in 4 starts (6 earned runs in 27.1 innings), featuring a complete game 10-3 victory over the Rockies on Sept. 27 in B.O.B...his second half featured a career-high 6-game winning streak, spanning 13 appearances (9 starts), allowing 15 earnies over 64.2 innings for a 2.09 ERA...his second half resurgence included the disappearance of the home run ball, allowing 2 homers in his last 13 appearances (64.2 innings)...Brian also contributed with the long ball, hitting the first of his major league career on August 4 at home, taking Mark Gardner deep in an 8-4 win over the Giants...he was most impressive on the Bank One Ballpark mound, going 7-0 with a save and 2.97 ERA in 18 outings (12 starts). DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Brian made his only post-season appearance of '99 in the fourth game of the series against the Mets, tossing 7.0 outstanding innings in Shea Stadium on October 9...he allowed a pair of runs on 7 hits, with no walks and 4 K's in a 7-inning performance in what proved to be the deciding game of the series, as Arizona fell by a 4-3 count in 10 innings. 1998—Arizona's first choice in the expansion draft, he led the majors by allowing just 1.0 walk per 9-innings, surrendering 24 freebies, besting Rick Reed and Jose Lima (1.2) in the N.L., and David Wells (1.2) in the A.L....Anderson allowed no more than 1 walk in 27 of his 32 starts, including 15 starts without a pass issued...he closed the year with 1 walk in his last 6 starts, featuring a streak of 156 consecutive batters faced between free passes...when runners did reach base, Anderson picked off 12, tying

Florida's Jesus Sanchez and Detroit's Justin Thompson for the major league lead...Brian recovered from a 1-6 start by winning 11 of his last 18 decisions...he fired the first complete-game shutout of his career, Arizona's lone 1-0 win, a 3-hitter at Pittsburgh on Sept. 3...the home run ball was his achilles heel, allowing 39, tying Colorado's Pedro Astacio for most in the majors...the easy-going lefthander was voted the initial winner of the team "Good Guy" Award by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA. 1997—Injuries made for a slow start to the year, missing a shot at Cleveland's opening day roster with a left knee sprain, then served disabled time with left shoulder tendinitis in mid-July...POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: After an idle Division Series, he combined the ALCS and World Series for 10.0 innings of relief in 6 appearances, allowing 2 earned runs for a 1.80 ERA...he appeared 3 times vs. the Orioles in LCS, earning the victory in the deciding sixth game, fanning a pair in the 10th inning, then watched as Tony Fernandez snapped a scoreless tie with an 11th inning homer...was used 3 times vs. the Marlins in the World Series, earning the save in game #4, working the final 3.0 innings of a 10-3 Tribe win. 1996—Was acquired by Cleveland from the Angels on February 15 and had 3 stints with the Indians...his work in Buffalo (AAA) earned him lefthanded pitcher on the American Association Post-Season All-Star team...he was the winning pitcher in Cleveland's Central Division clinching win on Sept. 17 in Chicago. 1995—Made 18 appearances (17 starts) for Angels, despite missing over 6 weeks after straining a left biceps in a May 5 start vs. Seattle...posted his first major league complete game, a 6-hit, 13-3 win on July 22 vs. Detroit...he tied a major league record by surrendering 4 homers in an 8-pitch sequence in the second inning of an 8-0 loss at Baltimore on Sept. 5. 1994—Opened the year with Vancouver (AAA), but was recalled on April 9 after Mark Langston was diagnosed with bone chips in his elbow...B.A. earned his first major league win the day after his recall, 4-1 in Milwaukee...was injured on May 6 when Oakland's Geronimo Berroa hit a first inning grounder off of his left thumb causing a non-displaced fracture...he finished the inning but was removed while warming up for the second and he was subsequently placed on the D.L...18 starts were the most among rookies, while 7 wins ranked second. 1993—He signed and was assigned to Midland (AA) on August 18, making a pair of starts before heading to Vancouver (AAA) on August 31...just 2 outings later, the quick climb was complete as his contract was purchased by the Angels on Sept. 7...made big league debut on September 10 at Toronto, then made his first major league start on the final weekend of the season, September 30 at Minnesota, making Brian the youngest Angels' starter since Mike Witt in 1981.

PERSONAL

Brian James Anderson...he and his wife, Anna, and rottweiler, Lexi, make their off-season home in Bratenahl, OH, where they are season ticket holders to the Cleveland Browns...Brian was a 1990 graduate of Geneva (OH) High School, lettering twice in basketball, 3 times in golf and 4 times in baseball...from there he went to Wright State University in Dayton, compiling a 28-8 ledger in 46 career games (39 starts), with a 2.23 ERA...he was the Mid-Continent Conference Pitcher and Player of the Year in 1992, going 12-3, then went 10-2 with a 1.14 ERA in '93, walking just 6 men in 95.0 innings...Anderson was named first team All-American by Mizuno and Baseball America and was selected to the GTE All-American Team...he was also a finalist for the 1993 Golden Spikes Award...his work on the field at Wright State was rewarded with his induction into the school's Hall of Fame and the retirement of his familiar #34, as well as earning the Distinguished Alumni Award...despite his Ohio ties, Brian is a die-hard University of Nebraska football fan.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Rod had his first career look at AAA action spending the entire season with Tucson, leading the Sidewinders in home runs (13) and RBI (75) while his 25 doubles tied Mike Mitchell for second on the club behind Luis Ortiz (26)...he was recalled to the major league club when the roster expanded in September, appearing in 5 games for the Diamondbacks, starting 3 times...Rod homered in his first big league at bat of the season, hitting a 2-run shot off of Atlanta's Terry Mulholland on September 16 in Bank One Ballpark...the home run started a mini 3-game streak for Rod, who singled in starts at San Francisco on September 23 (second game) and at Colorado on September 28, knocking in a run against the Rockies.

1999—Rod got a surprise phone call in mid-September that found him heading to the majors for the first time in his career...already finished with his first year of AA ball at El Paso, he received the news on September 18, when his contract was purchased to add depth to a depleted catching corps due to a hand injury to Damian

Miller...Rod ended up making 5 starts for the D'Backs, collecting his first big league hit on September 27 off of Colorado's Brian Bohanon...he was also behind the plate in the season finale on October 3, when Arizona posted its 100th win, contributing a double and his first major league homer, a second inning solo blast off of San Diego's Heath Murray...Rod hit .318 in 127 games with El Paso, finishing with the third best batting average among all minor league catchers. 1998-Playing for High Desert (A) in the California League, he led the entire Diamondback organization with 23 home runs...he recorded organized baseball's first 3-homer game of the year when he battered Lancaster on April 7...that kicked off a stretch of 6 homers in 6 games (10 RBI), earning California League Player-of-the-Week honors...finished 5th in California League in hitting (.303) and 2nd in home runs (23)...went 5-for-6 with 3 doubles vs. Bakersfield on August 2 in the midst of an 11-game hitting streak...had a league-high 4 extra-base hits in post-season playoffs. 1997-Missed the first half of the season because of a back injury, but came back to give High Desert 30 RBI and 7 HR in just 57 games. 1996-Started the season on loan to Visalia in California League and struggled until joining Lethbridge for start of short-season Pioneer League campaign...hit .337 in 51 games for Diamondbacks' affiliate.

PERSONAL

Rodrigo Richard (Rod) Barajas...he and his wife, Stacie, and son, Andrew (10/23/95) make their home in Norwalk, CA...earned first-team all-conference honors at Santa Fe Springs High School and repeated the honor at Cerritos Junior College in Norwalk, where he was also team MVP...Barajas went undrafted, but was signed by Arizona after attending a tryout camp.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Began the year with Montreal but was solved for at least 3 earned runs in each of his 4 appearances with the Expos and was subsequently traded to Kansas City on April 25 for pitcher Brad Rigby...Miguel had an outstanding debut with the Royals, tossing 4.0 shutout innings of 1-hit ball in a victory over Seattle...the outing earned him a spot in the starting rotation, appearing 9 times but going 1-6 with a 6.56 ERA...included was a 5-game losing streak from May 23-June 12...he returned to bullpen duty, working 4 times before being designated for assignment on June 28...Batista was outrighted to Omaha on July 7, finishing the year with the AAA affiliate, working 3.0 innings and incurring a loss in his lone start...he finished the year by going 2-1 with 3 saves and a 4.97 ERA in 17 relief appearances.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Worked in a variety of roles on the Montreal pitching staff, serving as a starter, long reliever and set-up man...he began the year as a starter for the first time in his career, winning Montreal's home opener against the Mets with 7.1 innings in a 5-1 victory...fired his lone career complete game on April 14 vs. the Brewers, tossing a 6-hitter in a 15-1 victory...he posted a 6-2 mark and 3.56 ERA to open the year, climaxing with a 3-game winning streak...was handed a trio of consecutive losses and landed in the bullpen, working there until late-September...spent 25 days on the disabled list with a strained left oblique muscle from July 16-August 9...a career 0-for-42 at the plate, Batista snapped the 0'er with an infield hit on April 8...he connected for the only home run of his career on May 24 in Philly, hitting a 2-run shot off of Joel Bennett in the fifth inning for a 4-2 lead (Miguel eventually incurred a 5-4 loss)...earned lone career save on October 2 at Philadelphia with 3.0 innings. 1998—Proved versatility in his first full season in the majors, working predominately in relief but was called upon for 13 starts, going 2-2 with a 3.08 ERA in that role...was particularly sharp as season wound down, going 1-0 with a 2.27 mark in his last 6 starts...posted first major league win on May 15 in Los Angeles, tossing 7.2 innings of a 4-2 triumph, his 33rd big league appearance. 1997—Lone season in the Cub chain, he opened the year with Iowa (AAA) appearing in 31 games (14 starts)...opponents hit just .229 (81-for-353) in his starts while working at least 6.0 innings in 13 of the 14 assignments...had his contract purchased by the big league club on August 10 and spent the final 6 weeks with Chicago, going 0-5 with a 5.70 ERA in 11 games (6 starts)...first major league start was a tough 2-1 loss to Chan Ho Park and the Dodgers in Los Angeles on August 11. 1996—Spent the majority of the season with Charlotte (AAA) in the Florida organization, but was recalled on August 8 and made his Marlin debut with a scoreless 9th inning against the Mets...it was Miguel's first big league action since the '92 season. 1995—Split the year between starting and relieving for Charlotte, his first year in the Marlins' chain. 1994—Appeared in just 3 games for Harrisburg (AA) due to a season-long stint on the disabled list with a right shoulder strain. 1993—Finished second in the Eastern League with 13 victories for Harrisburg...gave up just 11 home runs in 141.0 innings. 1992—Opened the year on Pittsburgh's major league club by virtue of being a Rule V selection the previous December...pitched once allowing 2 runs in 2.0 innings at Philly on April 11 and was returned to the Montreal organization on April 23...made 24 starts for West Palm Beach (A) upon his return. 1991—Surrendered just one home run in 133.2 innings of work with Rockford (A). 1990—His first action on U.S. soil, Batista totaled 12 appearances with Gulf Coast (Rookie) and Rockford. 1988/90—Signed with Montreal as a non-drafted free agent on February 29, 1988, and spent two seasons with the Expos' Rookie League club in his native Dominican Republic.

PERSONAL

Miguel Jerez Batista (Decartes)...he and his wife, Claudia, make their off-season home in Weston, FL...a native of the Dominican Republic, Miguel graduated from Nuevo Horizontes High School in 1986 in San Pedro de Macoris...he was signed by the Diamondbacks after catching the organization's attention during the 2000-2001 Winter League season, going 6-2 with a 3.34 ERA in 13 games for the Azucareros, leading the Dominican League in strikeouts with 61 in 70.0 innings...he was the starting and winning pitcher in the Caribbean World Series championship game on February 7 against the Hermosillo (Mexico) club, allowing 3 runs on 6 hits in 7.0 innings while fanning 9 in the 5-3 victory, staking the Dominican Republic to their fourth title in 5 seasons.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Florida Marlins in exchange for infielder Andy Fox, June 9, 2000.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Danny opened the year with the Florida Marlins, but his season flourished after joining Arizona on June 9 in exchange for utility man Andy Fox...hitting just .191 at the time of his trade to Arizona, he finished the year hitting .317 (83-for-262) in 3 1/2 months as a Diamondback...a veteran of 7 major league seasons and 4 different clubs, Bautista established career bests in every offensive category including at bats (351), runs (54), hits (100), doubles (20), triples (7), home runs (11) and RBI (59)...he had 5 career triples prior to his trade to Arizona but recorded all 7 of his 3-base hits for 2000 after arriving in Arizona...his first hit as a Diamondback snapped a 2-2 tie with Anaheim on June 11, a seventh inning home run that completed back-to-back blasts off of Scott Schoeneweis...Greg Colbrunn had tied the game just moments before with a shot to left-center...Danny had a career-best 15-game hitting streak from August 15-September 1, hitting .351 (20-for-57) with 3 doubles, 2 triples, a homer and 17 RBI...he also had a 10-game hitting streak from July 17-28, hitting .438 (14-for-32)...included during the streak was his first career 2-homer game on July 27 at St. Louis igniting 17-5 victory with solo blast off of Rick Ankiel and 2-run shot off of Alan Benes...Bautista started 40 of Arizona's final 44 games with 2 of the missed starts occurring in Los Angeles on final road trip when he returned to Phoenix to be with wife Frandy for the birth of son Daniel, the couple's third child...upon returning to the club, Danny hit safely in 11 of the final 12 games of the year at a .385 clip (20-for-52) with 14 runs scored, 5 doubles, 2 triples, a homer and 11 RBI...he struck out once every 4.5 at bats with the Marlins (20 strikeouts in 89 at bats), but just once every 8.7 at bats (30 K's in 262 AB's) after becoming a Diamondback.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Was released by the Braves at the end of spring training and signed a minor league contract with Florida on April 8...opened the year with Calgary (AAA), but hit .319 in 38 games and had his contract purchased on June 11...made Marlin debut that night as a pinch runner, then made his first start 2 nights later vs. the Yankees collecting 3 hits including a double...hit safely in 36 of his 47 starts for the Fish...made his return to Atlanta on July 6 and delivered a home run against his former mates...hit his 4th career pinch home run on September 1 at St. Louis. 1998—Employed mainly as a defensive specialist for the Braves, appearing in 82 games but starting just 27...was on the disabled list from April 17-May 7 with a partial tear of the labrum in his left shoulder, then returned to the shelf from August 27-September 17 with a partial tear of the left medial collateral ligament. POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Saw action in a pair of Division Series games as a defensive replacement, working in 5 of 6 games of the NLCS, including starts in games #3 and #6. 1997—Began the year with Richmond (AAA), remaining there until June 23 recall to Atlanta...visit to the Braves was short-lived as his contract was designated for assignment on July 5...he was purchased from AAA on July 10 and returned to the Braves...hit pinch-hit leadoff homer in the bottom of the 9th on August 6 to defeat the Cardinals 4-3...hit his first 2 home runs as a Brave in consecutive games on July 22-23 in Wrigley Field. 1996—Opened the season with the Tigers making 18 outfield starts before being dealt to Atlanta on May 31 for outfielder Anton French...season came to an abrupt end when he was hit by a pitch from Cardinals' Jeff Parrett on June 27, incurring a broken nose, a fractured orbital floor under the left eye and blurred vision...underwent successful surgery performed by Dr. Robert Crow on June 29...vision in left eye cleared as season progressed and Danny was able to participate in pre-game workouts in September. 1995—Spent the first 4 months of the season with Detroit before being optioned to Toledo (AAA) on August 8...was recalled on September 1...homered in 3 consecutive games from September 16-24. 1994—Danny was Detroit's opening day rightfielder but was hitting just .227 through 10 games and was optioned to Toledo on April 19...recalled on May 26 and started 13 straight games before breaking middle finger on left hand while attempting to make a diving catch on June 7 vs. Boston. 1993—Spent the entire year with London (AA), hitting .285 in 117 games and was rewarded with September recall to the big league club...debuted as a pinch-runner on September 15 vs. the Blue Jays...made his first major league start on September 17 against Cleveland, collecting an infield hit off of Jason Grimsley in first big league at bat...his first major league homer on October 1 in Yankee Stadium off of Frank Tanana. 1992—Displayed outstanding outfield arm with Fayetteville logging 17 assists from rightfield.

PERSONAL

Daniel (Danny) Bautista...he and his wife, Frandy, have a daughter, Daniela (3/20/98) and sons, Gerald (4/20/94) and Daniel (9/20/00), and make their home in the Dominican Republic...Danny signed first professional contract with the Detroit organization as a 16-year old...his stepfather, Jesus de la Rosa, appeared in 3 games for Houston in 1975.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 17, 1997.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

At first glance Jay's 2000 numbers would indicate a down year compared to the career campaign he enjoyed in 1999 when he led the club with 38 home runs while setting career bests in runs (132) and RBI (112)... despite not attaining the numbers he reached in '99, his overall statistics for the 2000 season were still above his career average in virtually every offensive category:

	RUNS	HITS	DOUBLES	HOME RUNS	RBI	STRIKEOUTS
Career average entering 2000:	82.7	144.0	29	13.9	62.8	105.5
2000 season totals:	87	151	30	18	68	88

Jay was hitting .300 as late as June 9, but tailed off over the final 3 1/2 months, batting just .246 (83-for-338) to finish with an overall season mark of .263....he had a pair of multi-homer games, the first on July 13 at home against Texas, going deep twice off of Rick Helling, snapping a personal 0-for-20 slide with first blast...duplicated multi-homer effort on September 28 in final road game of the year at Colorado, driving in 5 to match career best set initially on June 27, 1997 while with Kansas City against Milwaukee (now has 8 career multi-home run games)...Jay's season high hitting streak was an 11-gamer from August 11-23 batting .386 (17-for-44) with 10 runs scored, 5 doubles, 2 homers and 10 RBI...his lone 4-hit game occurred on June 2 as the designated hitter in Texas...he homered in consecutive games on September 13 & 15, taking Kevin Brown and Tom Glavine deep... Jay scored 1,000th run of his career on May 28 vs. Milwaukee...he keyed a 2-0 win over Atlanta in Curt Schilling's first Bank One Ballpark start on August 2, driving in the Diamondbacks' first run with a third inning double and then scoring the team's other run on a single by Matt Williams.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Jay entered the 2001 season with 800 career RBI, displaying the ultimate model of consistency by knocking in 400 in his career home parks and 400 while playing on the road.

1999—A career-year for Jay, who posted his most consistent major league season offensively, made a position switch defensively and was elected by the fans to start in the All-Star Game...he shattered his previous single-season bests in home runs (38), RBI (112) and runs scored (132)...36 of his 38 home runs came as a second baseman, making Jay the seventh at that position to achieve 30 homers in a season, the 11th time it has been accomplished...he earned the first National League Player-of-the-Week award in franchise history hitting .355 (11-for-31) from April 12-18, with 4 homers, 10 runs and 9 RBI, featuring his first of 3 multi-homer games (April 13 vs. the Dodgers)...he also went deep twice in a game on April 25 in San Diego and July 17 in Texas...one of the most exciting of his homers took place at home on July 11, the final game before the All-Star break, hitting a grand slam that not only snapped a 3-3 tie with Oakland, but won a lucky fan $1 million, Jay's fifth career slam...on 3 occasions he tied a club record by homering in 3 straight games...he logged a trio of 4-hit games on the year, the last on Sept. 19 vs. Florida, giving him 12 career contests of at least 4 hits in a game...went 7-for-12 (.583) with 18 RBI when batting with the bases loaded...he went 0-for-1 with a walk as the starting second baseman for the National League All-Star team at Fenway Park, his first Midsummer Classic appearance since 1993 with the Pirates. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Jay went 4-for-14 (.286) in the 4-game set with the Mets...he had a pair of hits and scored twice in Arizona's lone post-season victory, a 7-1 win at home in game #2 on October 6...he also delivered a clutch 2-run double in the 8th inning of game #4 at Shea, barely missing a home run, that gave the D'Backs a short-lived 3-2 advantage. 1998—Homered in the season finale to achieve the 20-homer mark...collected his 1,500th big league hit with an RBI single off of Atlanta's Greg Maddux at B.O.B. on Sept. 18...milestone hits #500 and #1,000 came off of pitchers also in the park that night, collecting those off of Andy Benes and Tom Glavine, respectively...a shortstop for the majority of his career, he was moved to second base on Sept. 11 for the final 15 games of the year. 1997—Only year with K.C., he set a club record for shortstops with 21 homers and 92 RBI, earning team Player-of-the-Year honors...set a career-best with 5 RBI on June 27 vs. Milwaukee, including a grand slam off Bryce Florie...had 3 doubles on Sept. 6 vs. Oakland...finished tied for second in the A.L. in fielding pct., matching Cleveland's Omar Vizquel with a .985 mark. 1996—Was Pirates' opening day shortstop for the eighth straight year, the longest streak since Dick Groat started 8 in a row (1955-62)...led major league shortstops with a .986 fielding pct., committing 10 errors in 703 chances...included was a personal best 46 straight games without an error from April 22-June 15 (209 chances)...hit third career slam on April 16 in St. Louis off Tom Urbani...shared N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors with Hideo Nomo for Sept. 16-22...he was named by Baseball America as the N.L.'s second best bunter...Jay was traded to Kansas City with Jeff King on December 13, in exchange for 4 players. 1995—Made first career appearance at third base as a starter on June 27 in Wrigley Field...collected 1,000th major league hit on July 25 off Atlanta's Tom Glavine. 1994—Hit second career grand slam on May 31 at San Diego off of A.J. Sager...matched a career-best with 5 hits on August 7 vs. St. Louis...led league shortstops in assists and total chances. 1993—Won first Rawlings Gold Glove, snapping Ozzie Smith's 13-year reign, the second Pirate shortstop ever to win the award (Gene Alley, 1966-67)...led all N.L. shortstops in fielding pct. (.986), committing league-low 11 errors...named to the Silver Slugger team and The Sporting News All-Star team...was named to first All-Star team. 1992—Had the N.L.'s longest hitting streak of the year, a 22-gamer (August 24-Sept. 16)...led all N.L. shortstops in putouts, assists, double plays and total chances. 1991—Was the third Pirate shortstop to hit at least 16 home runs in a season, joining Glenn Wright (18 in 1925) and Arky Vaughan (19 in 1935)...led the majors in sacrifice bunts (30) for the second straight year, and was the first player with 15 homers and 30 sac's in the same season since Johnny Logan with the Milwaukee Braves in 1956...hit second career inside-the-park homer on May 8 off Cincy's Norm Charlton...had 5-hit game on June 26 vs. Chicago...had first career 2-homer game on July 27 at Houston...hit first career grand slam on Sept. 30 off New York's Doug Simon...led Pirates in LCS with .414 mark vs. Braves, tying the 7-game series record for most singles (9)...topped N.L. shortstops in assists and total chances. 1990—Led majors with a team record 39 sacrifice bunts...led N.L. shortstops in putouts and total chances. 1989—Acquired from Cleveland on March 25 in exchange for infielder Felix Fermin and was the Buc's Opening Day shortstop, but was optioned to Buffalo (AAA) on April 21...had first inside-the-park home run on Sept. 18 off Philly's Chuck McElroy. 1988—Was Cleveland's opening day shortstop, but was optioned on July 10...recalled on Sept. 6, and hit .341 in final 16 games. 1986—Made a big splash in major league debut on Sept. 29 vs. Minnesota, homering on first pitch seen in big leagues off of Bert Blyleven, the 11th player ever to homer on first pitch thrown to him, a year after being traded for Blyleven...Jay was also the 55th player to homer in first major league at bat...was named to Eastern League All-Star team. 1985—Traded to the Indians with Curt Wardle, Rich Yett and Jim Weaver in exchange for Blyleven. 1984—Was the eighth overall player taken in the June draft, reporting to Elizabethton, starting the trend of leading his league in putouts and assists.

PERSONAL

Jay Stuart Bell...he and wife, Laura, have a daughter, Brianna (8/5/91), and sons, Brantley (11/16/94), and Brock (3/18/98)...a Florida native, Jay graduated from Tate High School in Gonzalez, FL, guiding his senior team to the Quad-A State title, while earning a spot on Florida State All-Star team...he was named the Dapper Dan Man-of-the-Year in 1993, an award given annually to a Pittsburgh sports figure in recognition of outstanding achievement on a national level...he was also the '93 recipient of the Pittsburgh Points of Light Foundation Award for his community service work...he also works locally with Young Life...when not working out at Bank One Ballpark, Jay spends a good portion of his off-season on the links...he has been active in PGA tour Pro-Am's, teaming in January with Gary Nicklaus, son of golfing legend Jack Nicklaus, in the Touchstone Energy Tucson Open...a year ago he partnered with Tiger Woods in the Pro-Am event of the Williams World Challenge at Grayhawk.

B/T: L/L

Age: 22 (Turns 23 on May 16)

Born: May 16, 1978 in Tarzana, CA

Residence: Long Beach, CA

M.L. Service: 12 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as Arizona's first round pick in the 1996 June Free Agent Draft.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Nick had an abbreviated season due to a strained left intercostal (rib cage) appearing in a total of 15 games for 3 different clubs...opened the year in Tucson with the AAA club, but was limited to 4 appearances (3 starts) posting a 2-1 mark, but suffered the injury that forced him onto the disabled list from May 4-July 28...he made 4 rehab appearances with the Tucson Rookie League club, totaling 8.0 innings, then once deemed healthy Bierbrodt was sent to El Paso (AA) for his last 7 starts of the year...best outing was on August 9 at Round Rock when he allowed just 2 hits in a 7-inning stint, fanning 8 for a 2-1 victory over former high school teammate Eric Ireland...had the thrill of a lifetime prior to joining El Paso, working 4.0 innings for the big league club in their exhibition contest against Cleveland in the Hall of Fame game at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown, NY...Nick allowed 2 runs on 5 hits with no walks and 4 K's against the Tribe.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Opened the year with El Paso, experiencing AA ball for the first time in his pro career...went 5-6 with a pair of complete games, including his last start for the Diablos, allowing just 2 hits in a 5-inning weather shortened stint on June 19 at Midland, fanning a season-high 7...he was promoted from El Paso to the majors, where Nick literally had a "cup of coffee" with the big league club, spending 5 days on the roster but did not appear in a game...when optioned, he was sent to Tucson finishing the year with his first AAA action, going 1-4 in 11 starts for the Sidewinders. 1998—Spent the entire season at High Desert (A), going 8-7 in 24 games (23 starts)...he was named organizational Pitcher-of-the-Month for August, going 1-0 with a 2.81 ERA...his 3.40 ERA was good for fifth in the California League, and ranked fourth in the organization...his best stretch was from May 1-19, going 3-0 with a 0.84 ERA. 1997—Missed the first part of the season because of a pulled muscle in his rib cage, but finished with a 4.04 ERA in 15 starts for South Bend (A) in the Midwest League. 1996—Named organizational Pitcher-of-the-Month for July, when he went 1-1 with a 2.00 ERA for Phoenix (Rookie) of the Arizona League...named to Arizona League post-season All-Star Team as lefthanded starter...was leading the league in ERA (1.66) when he was promoted to Lethbridge (A), where he was 2-0 with a 0.50 ERA in 3 starts.

PERSONAL

Nicholas Raymond (Nick) Bierbrodt...he is single and resides in Long Beach, CA, where he graduated from Millikan High School in 1996...Nick earned all-city and all-conference honors on the diamond and also played basketball...he was the first player ever selected by the Diamondbacks in an amateur draft, going in the initial round of the 1996 June free agent draft...spent the past "off-season" in the Dominican Republic pitching for Azucareros del Este.

Age: 22 (Turns 23 on December 17)

Born: December 17, 1978 in Humacao, PR

Residence: Yabucoa, PR

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 36th round of the 1997 June Free Agent Draft.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Alex made his AA debut in 2000 and eclipsed the .300 mark for the second straight year, hitting .301 for El Paso, the 9th best average in the Texas League while his 157 hits ranked 4th in the loop...started the season strong hitting safely in 15 of the first 18 games at a .386 clip...after going consecutive games without a hit for the first time, Alex hit safely in 24 of the next 27 contests, featuring a season-high 11-game hitting streak, closing the streak with at least one RBI in 7 consecutive games...the only thing that slowed Cintron in the early going was a week-long stint on the disabled list with a lower back strain (May 19-26)...he earned a spot on the Texas League All-Star team, then continued to swing a solid bat in post-season play hitting .429 (9-for-21) in the 5-game series against Round Rock.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—His first full season as a pro, Alex hit .307 in 128 games for High Desert (A), sharing the shortstop spot on the California League post-season All-Star team with Lake Elsinore's Nelson Castro...Cintron hit safely in 18 straight games from August 4-22, batting at a .378 clip...his 17 sacrifice bunts ranked first in the league and fifth overall in the minors...was out of action for a week in May with a right ankle sprain. 1998—Spent the entire year at Lethbridge (A) hitting .264 in 67 games...hit .450 during an 11-game hitting streak from July 28-August 9.

PERSONAL

Alexander (Alex) Cintron...he is single and makes his home in Yabucoa, PR...he returned to his native Puerto Rico last winter to play for Caguas where he continued his run of .300 hitting.

Rewriting the Record Book

Arizona's 35-game turnaround from the inaugural year to the 1999 season was the greatest single-season reversal of fortune in major league history. The 100-win campaign wound up a half game better than the 1903 New York Giants, who turned a 48-88 ledger from 1902 into an 84-55 mark the following season, a 34 1/2-game about face, standing as the most prolific for 96 years.

When the Diamondbacks clinched the N.L. West title on September 24, 1999, they became the fastest expansion team to qualify for post-season action, a year sooner than the 1995 Colorado Rockies, who used a 144-game season to clinch a Wild Card berth. Arizona's division title broke the previous mark by 6 years, besting the 1969 New York Mets, who went on to win the World Series, and 1976 Kansas City Royals, each club winning their respective divisions in their eighth season.

The 14-game margin of victory between Arizona and the Giants was the largest spread between first and second place clubs in the N.L. West since the 1975 Big Red Machine of Cincinnati, coasting to a 20-game difference over the Dodgers, when the league was made up of just 2 divisions.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 11, 1998.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Greg opened the year in a familiar role coming off the bench and spot starting when needed, but wound up the everyday first baseman after Erubiel Durazo succumbed to wrist surgery in mid-August...it was his most extensive work since serving as Florida's first baseman in 1995-96...he set a franchise record by reaching base in 9 consecutive plate appearances from April 22-30...the streak consisted of 6 hits and 3 walks, featuring a career-high tying 4-hit game on April 29 in Chicago...Colby also set a franchise record with 3 consecutive pinch hits from May 6-17, starting with a 2-run double vs. Pittsburgh on May 6, continuing with a run scoring single at San Diego on May 13 and ending with a single in Montreal on May 17 (Craig Counsell later broke the mark with 4)...Greg batted .349 (66-for-189) in his last 50 starts with 16 doubles, 9 home runs and 38 RBI...once becoming a line-up regular on August 6 his longest RBI drought was 4 games (September 18-21)...other than the 4-game dry spell, Colby never went more than 2 straight without knocking in a run from August 6 through the end of the season, spanning 47 starts...5 of his first 7 home runs came against lefthanded pitching due to platoon duty, but 7 of his last 8 were off of righthanders after becoming a regular...Colby was hit by pitches 4 times in 4 games from June 4-7 and finished second on the club with 10 hit by pitches...he had his second 4-hit game of the year, sixth career, on July 27 in St. Louis featuring 2 doubles and 3 RBI in 17-5 win...Greg went 6-for-24 (.250) as a pinch hitter but was not used in that role after August 14...he is a lifetime .340 pinch hitter (53-for-156) with 37 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Greg's career numbers demonstrate his overall offensive consistency, as he's a lifetime .288 hitter (338-for-1174) in his home park while posting a .289 mark (359-for-1242) when on the road...he has also batted .289 (374-for-1293) prior to the All-Star break and recorded a similar .288 mark (323-for-1123) post-break.

1999—His first year with the D'Backs, Greg's .375 (9-for-24) pinch-hit contribution off the bench helped provide Arizona with the best overall pinch-hit average in the National League at .319 (60-for-188)...his lone pinch homer of '99 was a solo shot in the 10th inning on May 31 in Montreal off of Steve Kline...signed to offset the opposition's lefthanded pitching, Colby hit .361 (35-for-97) against southpaws...he also shined during his limited duty at first base, hitting .324 (34-for-105) in his 31 starts on the infield, committing only 1 error...consistent all year, he saved the best for last, going 10-for-19 (.526) in 6 games to close the year...he keyed an August 17 win at home over the Cubs with a bases loaded triple in the first inning, as Arizona scored all of its runs in a 4-0 win, Brian Anderson's first shutout of the year.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Greg made a pair of starts vs. the Mets, playing first base in games #2 & #4, collecting an extra-base hit in each contest...he doubled, walked, was hit by a pitch and scored a run in the second game, Arizona's lone win in the series, then tied the fourth game with a fifth inning solo homer in Shea off of Al Leiter. 1998—The second consecutive year that he opened with a new club, but found himself participating in post-season play as a member of the Atlanta Braves...this time, he inked a free agent contract with Colorado, playing there through July 29, before being shipped to the Braves on July 30...in '97, he had signed a free agent deal with Minnesota, only to be moved to Atlanta on August 14...all told in '98, he led the majors in pinch-hit average, batting .364 (16-for-44) with 3 doubles and 11 RBI, while his 16 hits ranked second to Houston's Dave Clark...he went 2-for-8 in the post-season, with both hits coming in consecutive pinch-hit appearances vs. the Padres on October 7 & 8. 1997—Had first career post-season experience, courtesy of the mid-season trade from Minnesota to Atlanta...appeared in 70 games for the Twins, making 52 starts at first base...had third career 4-hit game on May 12 vs. Toronto...hit his second career grand slam vs. Blue Jays on August 4 off of Omar Daal...was hitting .281 with 5 homers and 26 RBI at the time of his August 14 trade to Atlanta...went 8-for-16 as a pinch hitter after joining the Braves, including a home run...enjoyed a terrific post-season, delivering a 2-run single in a pinch-hit appearance vs. Houston in Division Series, then went 2-for-3 off the bench in the LCS vs. the Marlins. 1996—The end of a 3-year stay with the Marlins, he was the everyday first baseman for the second straight campaign, establishing career bests in doubles, walks and games...also had a career-high 21-game hitting streak from May 31-June 23, hitting .386 (34-for-88)...was disabled from July 24-August 8 with a right wrist bruise...he set a Marlin record and ranked sixth in the N.L. with 12 HBP's. 1995—Set a Marlin club record and personal single-game best with 7 RBI on July 18 at San Francisco, his first career 2-homer game, featuring his first career grand slam (off of Chris Hook)...blasted 2 homers on August 18 at Pittsburgh in the second game of a doubleheader...set a then club record with a 17-game streak (August 20-Sept. 6). 1994—Injury riddled campaign, he made the Marlins' Opening Day roster just 9 months after undergoing surgery to repair a ligament tear in his right elbow... was disabled from April 9-May 27 with torn cartilage in his right knee...was once again disabled from July 15-30 with a pulled rib cage muscle...he returned to hit .324 with 30 RBI over final 38 games. 1993—Final year in the Montreal chain, the campaign began on the D.L. due to buristis in his right elbow...had first career 4-hit game on April 29 in Los Angeles...hit first major league homer on July 22 off Giants' Rod Beck...was disabled August 4-18 with a muscle strain in the left side of his back. 1991—Missed the entire season after Dr. Jobe performed surgery to repair a tendon in his right elbow. 1990—Led Jacksonville (AA) in hits, doubles and at bats, earning league and Class AA All-Star honors as a catcher by Baseball America, who also named him the top offensive catcher in the minor leagues. 1989—Split the year between West Palm (A) and Jacksonville (AA), earning Baseball America's tag as Montreal's 10th best overall prospect. 1988—Signed as a sixth round choice in the June draft, he reported to Rockford to begin pro career as a catcher.

PERSONAL

Gregory Joseph (Greg) Colbrunn...he and his wife, Erika, have a daughter, Danielle (10/13/98), and make their home in Isle of Palms, SC...the 1998 post-season with Atlanta was a hectic time for the Colbrunn family, as Danielle was born on the "travel day" between games #5 and #6 of the NLCS, as the Braves returned home from San Diego...Greg was able to get to Florida in time for Danielle's arrival and was back in uniform for the continuation of the series...a native of Fontana, CA, he graduated in 1987 from Fontana High School, earning All-State honors in baseball, while also nabbing All-Conference kudos on the gridiron...he turned down a baseball scholarship to Stanford University to sign with the Expos as their sixth pick in the '87 June draft.

Ht: 5-11

Wt: 174

B/T: L/R

Age: 26

Born: January 27, 1975 in Pittsburgh, PA

Residence: Phoenix, AZ

M.L. Service: 77 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 32nd round of the 1996 June Free Agent Draft.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Jason's year got off to a rough start after missing the majority of spring training due to right hamate bone surgery on February 29...he wound up not only earning the team MVP award for his effort in Tucson (AAA), he had a trio of stints with the Diamondbacks for his first career big league action...he was initially recalled on June 29, appearing that night as a pinch hitter and delivering an RBI single off of the Astros' Marc Valdes...his first stint with Arizona featured a memorable visit to Enron Field, collecting a 3-run double in a 10-4 win on July 4...he followed the next night with a triple and scored the winning run in a 2-1 victory...Conti was optioned back to Tucson on July 17, but returned to the big league club just 2 weeks later...he displayed an outstanding throwing arm from rightfield cutting down Atlanta's Brian Jordan at third base in consecutive games on August 2 & 3...he also added the first 3-hit game of his career on August 3...Jason was optioned a third time on August 31, but returned to the D'Backs on September 4 for the remainder of the season...he hit his first major league home run on September 11 in Bank One Ballpark off the Dodgers' Jeff Shaw...despite being limited in the spring due to the hamate bone surgery, Jason hit .345 in April for the Sidewinders...he had a 5-hit game on May 9 against Salt Lake, featuring a triple, homer and 3 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Jason spent the entire season with Tucson, his first-ever AAA experience...he had a 20-game hitting streak from April 14-May 9, hitting .410 (34-for-83) with 19 RBI...the 19th game of the streak featured a 2-homer, 4-RBI affair on May 8 vs. Tacoma in Tucson Electric Park...his 8 triples ranked fifth among all minor league players, while his 100 runs scored finished fifth among the AAA fraternity. 1998—Earned Organizational Player-of-the-Year honors and wasn't even in his own organization, playing on loan with Tulsa, the AA affiliate of the Rangers...he led all minor leaguers with a team record 125 runs, earning a spot on the Texas League post-season All-Star team...Jason also set a Tulsa record in hits, while ranking second in the league in triples...he also topped the league's outfielders with 20 assists...he led the Texas League playoffs with 9 runs, as the Drillers won the league title, the second consecutive championship campaign for Conti, who finished 1997 with the California League champs from High Desert...his 3-run homer in the 16th inning on May 21 not only knocked off San Antonio, but was his 8th consecutive game with an RBI. 1997—Started the year with South Bend (A), and despite leaving with 2 1/2 weeks remaining in the year, he led the club in hits, runs, triples and stolen bases and was named to the Midwest League post-season All-Star squad...he was promoted to High Desert to assist with the stretch run as the Mavericks won the California League title. 1996—Signed pro contract and reported to Lethbridge (Rookie), hitting .367 in 63 games...finished fifth in the Pioneer League in batting, while his 30 stolen bases ranked third...was named the Organizational Player-of-the-Month for August.

PERSONAL

Stanley Jason (Jason) Conti...he made the move from Pennsylvania to Phoenix during the off season...Jason graduated in 1993 from Seneca Valley (PA) High School, then remained in his hometown, attending the University of Pittsburgh...he was a 1998 member of the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League.

Craig Counsell

Infielder

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 175

B/T: L/R

Age: 30 (Turns 31 on August 21)

Born: August 21, 1970 in South Bend, IN Residence: Fort Lauderdale, FL

M.L. Service: 3 years, 37 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, March 20, 2000.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Craig was released by the Dodgers in spring training and signed a minor league contract with the Diamondbacks on March 20, opening the year in Tucson (AAA), hitting .348 with the Sidewinders before his contract was purchased on May 31...he was used sparingly after arriving to the big league club, making periodic starts at second base, third base and shortstop...closed the year as a regular in the lineup, starting 12 of Arizona's last 15 games mainly at short and second...he had a 7-game hitting streak halted in the season finale with an 0-for-3 against the Giants...batted .423 (11-for-26) in his final 8 games of the year, scoring at least once in 7 of those affairs (8 total runs)...also hit .377 (26-for-69) in his last 19 starts...hit .333 (40-for-120) when employed in the starting lineup (33 total starts)...Craig recorded his second career 4-hit game in his second start as a Diamondback, reaching base 5 times on June 4 at Texas featuring a double, home run and a walk...the home run was his first in the majors since July 24, 1998, a span of 210 AB's between blasts...he hit his second (and last) homer of the year just 2 nights after his 4-hit game in Texas, breaking up Kevin Tapani's bid for a shutout with a ninth inning roundtripper in Wrigley Field...he delivered a ninth inning pinch-hit single vs. Texas on July 13, breaking Greg Colbrunn's franchise record with his fourth consecutive pinch hit...Craig was the first Diamondback in franchise history to reach on catchers interference when he made contact with Colorado catcher Ben Petrick to begin the game on September 25 in Coors Field.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Craig opened the year with the Florida Marlins, but hit just .152 in 37 games and was traded to the Dodgers on June 15 in exchange for minor league pitcher Ryan Moskau...the deal made Counsell the 7th member of the '97 World Champion Marlins to become a Dodger (Kevin Brown, Bobby Bonilla, Jim Eisenreich, Gary Sheffield, Devon White and Charles Johnson)...committed just 1 error in 38 games at second base for the Dodgers, including 23 starts. 1998—Started the year in the majors for the first time in his career, but had his season cut short on one pitch at Pro Player Stadium on August 3...he suffered a compound displaced fracture of his jaw bone when he was hit on the right side of his face by a pitch from Houston's C.J. Nitkowski...Craig underwent surgery at Holy Cross Hospital in Fort Lauderdale where he had several lacerations repaired and had his jaw bone internally stabilized by Dr. James Driscoli (oral surgeon) and Dr. Roberto Palma (plastic surgeon)...Counsell had established himself prior to the injury committing only 5 errors in 539 chances at second base and earning a spot on The Sporting News N.L. East All-Star team...hit his second career grand slam on April 16 in Florida off the Phils' Tyler Green...was in the midst of a career-best 9-game hitting streak at the time of his season-ending injury. 1997—Craig capped a storybook season by going from the minor leagues in one organization to eventually scoring the game-winning run in the bottom of the 11th inning in Game #7 of the World Series...he began the year with Colorado Springs his third season with the Rockies' AAA affiliate, then after a one-game stint with the big league club, he was traded to the Marlins for pitcher Mark Hutton on July 27 where his career took an upward turn...Craig batted .299 in 51 games for Florida and continued his outstanding second half in the post-season, batting .293 with a .429 on-base pct...Counsell not only scored the deciding run in the '97 Series against Cleveland, but it was his sacrifice fly in the bottom of the ninth that sent the contest into extra innings...a pair of his major league firsts surround him in the Diamondback clubhouse, as Counsell collected his first big league hit off of then Cincinnati hurler Mike Morgan in his first big league start on July 29...he added his first major league home run on August 24 off of then St. Louis hurler Todd Stottlemyre, which was also a grand slam. 1996—Injuries limited him to just 25 games with Colorado Springs, suffering a right shin contusion that led to a stress fracture on April 30...Craig returned to action in mid-July but appeared in just 3 games before fracturing the same shin on July 17 and missing the rest of the season. 1995—Hit .281 as the regular shortstop for the PCL Champion Colorado Springs Sky Sox, leading the league in total chances (598) and doubles plays (86)...earned his first recall to the majors on September 15, appearing in 3 games. 1994—Injuries once again impeded Craig's progress, starting the year with New Haven (AA) on May 3 after suffering a broken right foot due to a spring training foul ball...played until breaking his nose on July 29, tried to make a comeback a week later picking up a hit in his lone at bat, then returned to the disabled list. 1993—Topped all California League shortstops in total chances (621), while leading his Central Valley club (A) with doubles (26) and ranking second on the club with 132 hits. 1992—An 11th round selection in Colorado's first-ever draft class, Counsell opened the year as Bend's second baseman, the first time he'd ever played that position...his year was cut short when he suffered a broken right instep on a foul ball just 18 games into the season.

PERSONAL

Craig John Counsell...he married high school classmate Michelle McClone just prior to spring training (February 9) and they make their home in Fort Lauderdale, FL...Craig was a 1988 graduate of Whitefish Bay (WI) High School, then graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1992 with a degree in accounting...he was a 4-year baseball letterman for the Fighting Irish, playing for current Arizona State head baseball coach Pat Murphy...Craig's father, John Counsell, was an outfielder in the Minnesota Twins' organization from 1964-68, then worked in the Milwaukee Brewers' organization as Director of Community Relations in the 1980's...the spikes that Craig scored the game-winning run in the 1997 World Series are on permanent display at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, and he had the opportunity to view those shoes last summer when the Diamondbacks played in the annual exhibition game at Doubleday Field.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the first round of the 1997 June Free Agent Draft.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Jack continued his organizational climb with his first test of AA-ball spending the entire season at El Paso... he flourished early earning Minor League Player-of-the-Month honors for April with a .373 mark featuring 7 home runs and 21 RBI.....though his season average tailed off as the year progressed, Cust still reached base safely via a hit or walk in 115 of the 129 games he participated in...included were extended hitting streaks of 22 (April 14-May 11), 19 (June 3-23), 15 (June 25-17) and a season best 25-gamer (July 29-August 25)...his first hitting streak of the year featured a 13-game stretch in which he batted .510 (25-for-49) with 4 homers and 14 RBI...snapped his biggest drought of the year (5-for-36) with 3 hits, including a pair of home runs on July 24 at Wichita...Cust was named a starting outfielder on the Texas League All-Star team...played in both games of the Tex/Mex All-Star series, featuring a pair of hits with 2 runs and an RBI to lead the Texas League to a 12-2 win on June 18 in El Paso...went 0-for-3 as the DH on July 12 in the N.L. vs. A.L. AA-All-Star Game in Bowie, MD...participated in the Futures All-Star Game in Turner Field, the preliminary game to the Major League Baseball All-Star contest, going 0-for-1...was the Texas League Player-of-the-Week for June 26-July 2 going 9-for-17 (.529) with 4 doubles, a triple, homer and 8 RBI in just 5 games...ranked second in the Texas League in on-base pct. (.440), fourth in runs (100) and topped the charts in both walks (117) and strikeouts (150)...hit .286 (4-for-14) with 2 home runs and 4 RBI in the playoffs against Round Rock.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Jack was named the organization's Minor League Player-of-the-Year for his performance in High Desert (A), leading the California League in home runs (32), slugging pct. (.651), on-base pct. (.440) and at bats per HR (14.22)...he also finished second in the loop in batting (.334), walks (96) and extra-base hits (77)...he earned a spot on the league's post-season All-Star team...was named the organization's Player-of-the-Month for August hitting 14 home runs and knocking in 29...ranked the third best prospect in the California League by Baseball America. 1998—Started the year at South Bend (A), but hit .242 in 16 games and was moved to Lethbridge after their season began and kicked it in offensively hitting .345 in 73 games...was Arizona's Minor League Player-of-the-Month for July hitting .404 with 7 homers and 30 RBI...led the Pioneer League in runs (75) and on-base pct. (.528), while finishing second in slugging (.601) and fourth in batting (.345)...was named to the league's post-season All-Star team and Topps Class A Short Season/Rookie League All-Star squad. 1997—Signed as Arizona's first choice in the June draft, Cust led the Rookie League Diamondbacks with a .488 on-base pct., second best in the Arizona League.

PERSONAL

John Joseph (Jack) Cust Jr....he is single and makes his home in Flemington, NJ...Jack was a 1997 graduate of Somerville (NJ) Immaculata High School...his father, Jack Sr., was an outfielder at Seton Hall, and brother, Kevin, was an 11th round selection of the Atlanta Braves last June...the Cust family spends the off-season operating a baseball school for Little League players through the top levels of youth baseball in Flemington...Jack Sr., an accountant by trade, converted a warehouse into an indoor hitting facility and built an artificial turf field with lights on the adjoining five acres, and conducts hitting classes throughout the winter months...Jack Jr. spent a portion of last winter playing for the Azucareros del Este in the Dominican Republic.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

1997 Signed by the Arizona Diamondbacks as their first round selection in the June free agent draft.

David Dellucci

Outfielder

Ht: 5-10

Wt: 198

B/T: L/L

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on October 31)

Born: October 31, 1973 in Baton Rouge, LA

Residence: Baton Rouge, LA

M.L. Service: 2 years, 97 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Baltimore Orioles as the ninth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

David rejoined club in spring training after undergoing surgery to repair a career-threatening left wrist disorder the previous July...he earned a spot on the 2000 Opening Day roster and went 1-for-2 with a walk in a trio of pinch-hit appearances before being optioned to Tucson (AAA) on April 17...the injury bug bit again while with Sidewinders as a dislocated finger on his right hand and tendinitis in his right wrist kept him out of the lineup for extended periods...hit .230 in 122 minor league at bats, but got hot just prior to his August 14 recall, hitting .370 in an 8-game stretch...David started just once in his first 18 appearances after being recalled, working mainly as a pinch hitter and defensive replacement...he made his first major league start of the year on August 19 against the Cubs, going 2-for-4 with a walk and a run scored...despite minimal use, he had a 5-game hitting streak from September 11-17, going 5-for-9 (.556) with 2 of the hits coming as a pinch hitter...he finished the year 7-for-20 (.350) as a pinch hitter including a pair of RBI...his last pinch-hit RBI was a game-winner on September 12, an infield hit that gave the D'Backs a 5-4 win over the Dodgers...raised his career pinch average to .296 (21-for-71) with 2000 performance.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—David was in the midst of a terrific sophomore season in the majors when a nagging pain in his left wrist turned into a season-ending disaster...he was diagnosed with a disorder that required immediate surgery and left him on the disabled list for the remainder of the year...unfortunately for David and the Diamondbacks, he had just upped his season average 43 points at the time he was sidelined, hitting safely in 8 of 9 games at a .500 clip (16-for-32) to rise from .351 to what wound up a season-ending .394 mark...Dellucci closed the year with 8 hits in his last 14 at bats before being diagnosed with the injury...while healthy he flirted with the .400 mark in part-time play, raising his mark as high as .419 on May 23 after going 4-for-5 with a double and 3 runs scored in Colorado. 1998—Began the season with Tucson, his first career AAA action, but that visit lasted only 17 games before getting the call to the major league club, where he remained for the year...recalled on April 27, his Arizona debut was a 2-for-4, 2 RBI game...though not an everyday player in the latter half of season, he wound up leading the N.L. in triples with 12, just the second rookie since 1984 to lead the league in 3-base hits (Ray Lankford with St. Louis in 1991)...his first National League homer was a 2-run shot on May 1 at Montreal off of Javier Vazquez...had first career 4-hit game, including 3 doubles, on June 2 at Colorado, just the 4th expansion player in history to pick up 3 doubles in a game (Rusty Staub, Doug Rader and Charlie Hayes)...he hit .306 during his 17-game stint with Tucson. 1997—Opened the year with Bowie, but made the jump from AA to the majors in June, appearing in 9 games for Baltimore...went 4-for-23 (.174), including his first big league home run, a solo shot in Milwaukee on June 25 off of Cal Eldred...he was also part of the September recalls, appearing in 8 games during the final month, going 2-for-4...played all 3 outfield positions while with Bowie, though the majority of his time was in center, committing only 1 error. 1996—Had the sixth best overall average among Baltimore farmhands, hitting a combined .305 with Frederick (A) and Bowie (AA)... was promoted to Bowie on June 26 and went 4-for-5 with 3 doubles, 2 runs and 2 RBI in debut game. 1995—Enjoyed the home field at Frederick, batting .340 (17-for-50), while hitting only .217 (10-for-46) on the road.

PERSONAL

David Michael Dellucci...he is single and resides in his native Baton Rouge, LA, where he graduated from Catholic High School in 1991...David was team MVP in both baseball and football as a prepster, while earning All-State honors on the diamond...he was also voted "Man of the Year" in high school for his success as a student athlete and being a role model for youth, and last winter was inducted into the Catholic High School Hall of Fame...followed high school with 3 outstanding years of baseball at the University of Mississippi, where he was an All-Southeastern Conference selection in both 1994 and '95...Dellucci also earned All-American status in '95, setting 10 school records while leading the SEC in hitting...was also named Athlete-of-the-Year at Ole Miss in 1995...David was a 10th round pick of the Orioles in the 1995 June draft...an avid fan of the WCW wrestling craze, he is often in the company of fellow Valley resident, and World Champion, Kevin Nash...also a music buff, he made a lasting first impression with Megadeath guitarist Dave Mustaine, also a Valley resident, when he flipped a foul ball to the rock star during a 1998 home game, only to soak the musician with a soft drink that was in the line of flight...he is active in the Valley with Special Olympics and Easter Seals.

Erubiel Durazo

Infielder/Outfielder

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 240

B/T: L/L

Age: 26

Born: January 23, 1975 in Hermosillo, MX

Residence: Hermosillo, MX

M.L. Service: 1 years, 71 days

HOW OBTAINED: Contract purchased by the Arizona Diamondbacks from the Monterrey Sultans of the Mexican League, December 16, 1998.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Erubiel was stymied during spring training with a right wrist injury that haunted him all season and eventually required a pair of operations which ended his year...he was initially disabled on May 30 for a surgical procedure that kept him out of action until June 24...appeared in just 3 games before returning to the D.L. for 15 days on June 29...he hit .225 (9-for-40) after being reactivated and was optioned to AAA on August 1, then recalled 10 days later...Erubiel appeared in just 5 games after his recall before succumbing to another wrist operation on August 24...both surgical procedures were performed by Dr. Donald Sheridan...he opened the year just 2-for-17 (.118) but broke out of the slump with his second career 2-homer game, spoiling San Diego's home opener with a pair of blasts off of Woody Williams, recording his first career 4-RBI game...he wound up hitting .412 (7-for-17) on the team's initial road trip through San Diego and San Francisco...Erubiel had a career-high 10-game hitting streak from April 23-May 7, hitting .412 (14-for-34), with 3 doubles, 4 homers and 14 RBI...he contributed during the 3-game stretch he was available in late-June, hitting a 3-run homer off of Colorado's Pedro Astacio in the first inning of an eventual 8-3 win over the Rockies on June 25...of his 8 home runs with the big league club, 4 came in a 9-game stretch from April 23-May 6 during his career-high 10-game hitting streak...just 3 of his 8 roundtrippers were solo shots...he batted .387 for the Sidewinders with 3 doubles, 2 homers and 8 RBI during brief 10-game stint to open August in an attempt to regain his batting stroke.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—One of the top success stories of the 1999 season was Erubiel's rise through minors and ending the year as a huge asset to the Diamondbacks' run at the division title...after hitting .404 in a combined 94 games of AA and AAA, Erubiel was a major leaguer on July 25...had 3 hits in his first major league start on July 28 in San Diego, collecting his first hit off of Brian Boehringer...Durazo kept himself in the lineup with a .350 beginning, going 21-for-60 through his first 22 games, featuring 5 home runs and 9 RBI...his first big league blast was in Philadelphia on August 7, a 446-foot shot to center off of Curt Schilling...that home run ignited his first official hot streak as a big leaguer, batting .366 (15-for-41) over a 13-game stretch with 5 homers and 10 runs scored...his first 6 extra-base hits in the majors were homers, not recording a double until September 1 in his 28th game...he was 2-for-3 with a homer on August 18 vs. Chicago, upping his season mark to .400 and jump-starting a month-long power display...from that date until Sept. 14, Durazo hit 10 home runs over a 22-game span, encompassing 77 at bats for a ratio of 1 homer in every 7.7 at bats...his first career multi-homer game gave Arizona a 5-4 win in Atlanta on September 4, taking John Smoltz deep twice...Erubiel closed the regular season hitting .400 (22-for-55) in his last 19 games, including his lone pinch-hit homer, a 2-run blast in Milwaukee off of southpaw Rafael Roque on September 9...defensively, Durazo appeared in 44 major league games at first base, handling all 344 chances without an error...his half-season effort earned the respect of the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA, as Erubiel was tabbed the team Rookie-of-the-Year...Erubiel's first taste of pro baseball in the U.S. was with El Paso, Arizona's AA affiliate, hitting .403 in 64 games, with 14 homers and 55 RBI with El Paso...he was promoted to Tucson (AAA) on June 19, hitting .407 (48-for-118) in 30 games with 10 homers and 28 RBI...his combined minor league average of .404 totaled enough plate appearances to qualify him as the first player to hit .400 in the minors since Aaron Pointer (.401) of the Houston (Colt 45's) Astro organization in 1961...he also led all minor league players with a .703 slugging pct...he twice earned Organizational Player-of-the-Month honors, hitting .489 with 10 homers and 33 RBI for El Paso in May, then following that with a combined .387 performance with 9 home runs and 23 RBI with El Paso and Tucson in June. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Erubiel appeared in a pair of games vs. the Mets, starting at first base in games #1 & #3...he homered in his second post-season at bat, a solo blast in the opening game at Bank One Ballpark off of New York's Masato Yoshii.

PERSONAL

Erubiel Durazo Cardenas...he is single and makes his home in his native Hermosillo, Mexico...Durazo's story began as a 15-year old when Derek Bryant, then the director of player personnel for Hermosillo and formerly a manager in Arizona's minor league system, saw Erubiel play as a youth...after attending Tucson's Amphitheater High School and Pima Community College, Durazo returned to his native Mexico undrafted, signing to play for the Monterrey Sultans in the Mexican League, earning both summer and winter Rookie-of-the-

Year honors... since the Diamondbacks had a working agreement with Monterrey, they signed Erubiel at the urging of Bryant...Durazo returned to Hermosillo once again last winter to play in the Mexican Pacific League, hitting .388 with 3 homers and 20 RBI in 21 games for the Orange Growers...his club went to the Caribbean World Series, where his club lost in the finals to the Dominican Republic yet he was named series MVP, hitting .455 (10-for-22) with a double, 3 homers and 6 RBI in 6 games.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Steve was in the midst of a spectacular season before injuries interrupted his second half, yet was still impressive enough to earn his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove, the fourth of his career...he carried the club offensively for better than 3 months, collecting 27 homers and 75 RBI by July 21...the red-hot first half earned him a spot on the All-Star team replacing Ken Griffey Jr....Fins found out that he was named to the squad on July 9 while riding the bus en route to Network Associates Coliseum in Oakland and he responded by hitting his 25th home run to aid Arizona's 4-2 win...he was named the team co-Player-of-the-Year with Luis Gonzalez by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA....he made an eighth inning game-saving catch against the wall in left-center of Houston's Enron Field on July 6, aggravating his lower back, an injury that has haunted him in recent years...he missed only one game after the run-in with the wall, but the aggravated area required a pair of injections as the season progressed...though he still had typical "Steve Finley" hot stretches, he wound up hitting just 8 home runs and driving in 21 in his last 57 games of the year...Steve hit his career-high 35th and final home run of the year on September 9 in Florida, a 2-run shot off of A.J. Burnett in a 4-1 Arizona win...he suffered a costly hit by pitch on his left hand on September 12 when hit by LA's Onan Masaoka...finished year just 4-for-39 (.103) after the plunking...Fins tied a career-high with 4 hits in the season opener at home on April 4 vs. Philly, kicking off a 10-game hitting streak in which he batted .364 (16-for-44) with 5 homers and 9 RBI...the final game in the streak featured a pair of 2-run homers off of San Diego's Sterling Hitchcock on April 13, staking the D'Backs to a 5-4 win in Qualcomm Stadium...he hit 9 homers in April to tie the club record for home runs in a month that he set the previous September, then hit 9 more in May...drove in his 50th run in Arizona's 49th game (vs. Milwaukee on May 27) tying the team record for fastest to 50 (Matt Williams drove in 50 in his first 49 games in 1999)...Fins reached base by hit, walk or hit by pitch in 29 consecutive games from May 5 through June 5...by the end of the streak, he had reached base in 53 of his 56 starts since Opening Day...Steve entered the All-Star Game as a defensive replacement in left, then knocked in N.L.'s final run with RBI single in the ninth...he hit 11 homers off southpaws, 1 more than the 1999 season...he made the most of an 0-for-4 vs. Montreal on August 7, reaching twice on missed third strikes and scoring once in a 5-2 win...he homered in consecutive games on August 18 and 19, reaching the 30-homer mark for the second straight year and third time in his career...Fins started the only triple play in franchise history vs. St. Louis on May 31 when he caught Mark McGwire's fly ball and threw home to catch Placido Polanco attempting to score from third...catcher Damian Miller then fired to third base, where shortstop Tony Womack caught Edgar Renteria trying to advance from second...he made all the highlight reels with his catch in Shea Stadium on August 27, taking a home run away from Robin Ventura in the fifth inning...Steve's ailing back was surgically repaired by Dr. Volker Sonntag at St. Joseph's Hospital, a procedure that consisted of clipping a portion of the ruptured disk that was irritating the nerves and causing the pain in his lower back.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Steve entered the 2001 season ranking first among active players in triples (90), 6 more than Tony Gwynn and 20 better than Barry Larkin and Luis Polonia...he has hit 141 home runs in his last 5 seasons, a 28.2 per season average, after totaling 47 through his first 7 years in the majors (a 6.7 average)...his 4 career Rawlings Gold Gloves match Barry Bonds and Larry Walker as the only N.L. outfielders to receive that many in the last 10 years. 1999—Steve's first year with the D'Backs featured a career best in RBI, while earning his third career Rawlings Gold Glove, first since winning consecutive awards in 1995 & 1996...all of this was accomplished while suffering from a back ailment that twice required pain-killing injections during the season...Steve eclipsed the 100-RBI mark on Sept. 28 vs. Colorado, joining teammates Matt Williams, Jay Bell and Luis Gonzalez in the century club, as Arizona became 1 of 7 N.L. clubs in history with 4 100-RBI men...Fins also scored 100 runs for the fourth time in 5 seasons...was hitting just .231 on May 19 then started a 15-game stretch in which he batted .452 (28-for-62) with 6 homers and 29 RBI, totaling 58 bases for a .935 slugging pct., raising his season average 63 points to .294...included was a 5-game stretch against New York, Montreal and Texas in which he went 16-for-23 (.696) with 4 doubles, a triple, 5 homers and 18 RBI, totaling 37 bases for a slugging pct. of 1.609, earning N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...the stretch began with a 4-for-5 on May 30 in Shea Stadium, featuring a double, 2 homers and 5 RBI, but he trumped that 2 days later with another 4-hit effort, hitting 2 more home runs, while setting a club record with 6 RBI...he would later tie the RBI mark with 6 on September 8 in Milwaukee, the result of a club record 3-homer game, the third of his career...Fins entered 1999 with 7 career multi-homer efforts, but doubled that with 7 more during the '99 season, tying Barry Bonds for second in the league to Mark McGwire, who logged 9...he hit the seventh grand slam of his career on May 10 at home vs. Montreal's Javier Vazquez...with the leather, Fins set a Diamondback record with 109 consecutive errorless games, snapping the streak with a miscue at home on August 30 vs. the Mets... Steve collected the 1,500th hit of his career on June 13 in Anaheim off of Omar Olivares. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Fins hit safely in all 4 games vs. the Mets, finishing the series with a .385 mark (5-for-13), with a double and 5 RBI...the double and 5 RBI all took place in the second game of the series, Arizona's lone win, providing a 2-run single in the third inning and 2-run double in the fifth, then coaxing a bases loaded walk in the seventh...he entered that contest with 18 career post-season games under his belt, totaling 4 RBI. 1998—Final year with the Padres he had a pair of 4-hit games, the first included a club record-tying 3 doubles and 5 RBI vs. the Rangers in Arlington on June 7...he hit his fifth career first inning lead-off homer, taking the Giants' Shawn Estes deep to open the scoring on September 9 in San Diego...it was his second with the Padres, after hitting 3 with Houston...he hit the sixth grand slam of his career on April 10, delivering a 2-out blow to the D'Backs, taking Felix Rodriguez deep to end the game. 1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Steve rode the offensive rollercoaster during the Padres' run into fall ball, finishing October play with a .209 mark, going 9-for-43 in 13 games... he struggled through a 1-for-10 in the Division Series vs. the Astros, but rebounded to hit .333 (7-for-21) in the 6-game NLCS...Finley was not as fortunate in the Fall Classic against the Yankees, going just 1-for-12 appearing in 3 of the 4 games. 1997—Led the Padres in homers, triples and runs...also ranked in the top 3 on the club in RBI, extra-base hits, hits, doubles and stolen bases, earning his first trip to the All-Star Game...added his name to the record book by becoming the sixth National Leaguer and 11th player in big league history to homer 3 times in a game twice in the same season...first 3-bomb game was on May 19 at Cincinnati, hitting a pair of shots off of Pete Schourek, then taking Stan Belinda deep, all solos...he duplicated the effort on June 23 at San Francisco, clubbing bases empty shots off of Mark Gardner and Rich Rodriguez, then hitting a 2-run homer in the ninth off of Joe Roa...he also singled in the game to set a club record with 13 total bases, 1 more base than Nate Colbert's club record 3-homer game on August 1, 1972...the second 3-homer game led to N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors, finishing the week of June 23-29 with a .520 mark (13-for-25) with 6 homers and 9 RBI, adding a 2-homer and 3-RBI affair on June 28 in Los Angeles...he slugged career home run #100 on August 23 at Shea Stadium off of Dave Mlicki. 1996—Had a career year rewriting the San Diego record book, setting then career bests in average, runs, hits, doubles, homers, extra-base hits, total bases (348), RBI, slugging pct. (.531) and at bats, and finished 10th in the N.L. MVP balloting...in the process, he established Padres' records in runs, doubles, extra-base hits and total bases...he also swiped 22 bases, becoming just the fourth Padre ever to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases...had a career-high 21-game hitting streak from June 20-July 14, hitting .419 (39-for-93)...he had a streak of home runs in 3 consecutive at bats on June 29-30 in San Francisco, hitting a 3-run blast off Mark Leiter and a 2-run shot off of Rod Beck on the 29th, then a solo homer off of William VanLandingham the following day...Finley set a career-high with 5 hits on May 23 at Philly...he hit his third career grand slam on June 1 at Philly off of Dave Leiper...notched career hit #1,000 on June 5, a double off St. Louis' Donovan Osborne...had a milestone evening on Sept. 10 vs. the Pirates, joining the 20/20 club with his 20th steal, then setting the club record for doubles in a season, and ending the contest with a 2-out, 0-2, 2-run homer to give the Friars a 6-5 win...defensively, he earned his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove...he wrapped up 1996 by earning MVP honors on an 8-game Major League Baseball All-Star tour through Japan, hitting .400 (8-for-20) in 7 games. 1995—First year in San Diego, he was the only National League player to achieve 100 runs, 10 homers and 35 stolen bases (Minnesota's Chuck Knoblauch was the only A.L. player), while earning his first Rawlings Gold Glove Award...was used in the leadoff spot in 73 games, hitting a major league best .338 (103-for-305) in that slot...stole a career-high 4 bases on August 12 vs. St. Louis...was in the delivery room on Sept. 1 when son Reed was born, then went to the ballpark and played the last 2 innings of San Diego's 6-3 win over Philly. 1994—Steve appeared in 94 games because of an injury and strike-shortened season, missing nearly a month after being hit by a pitch on June 8 in Montreal, breaking the third metacarpal bone in his right hand...he was placed on the D.L. on June 13 and did not return until July 3...he hit his second career grand slam on July 17 at Pittsburgh off of Paul Wagner, then tied a Houston club record on July 23 with 4 runs, also vs. the Pirates...Finley was part of the 11-player trade with San Diego on December 28. 1993—Slowed by an early-season ailment and injury, he did not play full-time until mid-May...was slowed in spring training by Bell's Palsy, a viral infection of a nerve in the upper neck, resulting in numbness that prevented him from closing his left eye...he then played the first 16 games of the year before getting plunked by a John Candelaria pitch on April 24 in Pittsburgh, resulting in a hairline fracture, which forced him on the D.L. from April 27-May 14...upon returning, he did not collect his first triple of the year until the 41st game and still led the N.L. with 13. 1992—Steve and teammates Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell were the only 3 N.L. players to participate in all 162 games...he finished in the league's top 10 in hits, triples, stolen bases and sacrifice bunts. 1991—Finley's first year as an Astro, he was acquired on January 10 with pitchers Pete Harnisch and Curt Schilling in exchange for Glenn Davis. 1990—Led the Orioles with 22 stolen bases, while ranking second with 119 hits. 1989—Made his major league debut with Baltimore on opening day vs. Boston...on first big league fielding chance, Steve made a diving catch while crashing into the wall in right-center, suffering a right shoulder sprain that necessitated D.L. time...was activated on April 22 and picked up first big league hit that night, a single off of Minnesota's Fred Toliver...hit first major league home run on April 25 off California's Willie Fraser...blasted first grand slam on June 5 at Yankee Stadium off of lefthander

Chuck Cary. 1988—Steve was named International League Rookie-of-the-Year, leading the I.L. in batting and hits to help Rochester to the title...it was a quick climb, playing just 8 games at Hagerstown (A), then participating in 10 games at Charlotte (AA), before heading to Rochester. 1987—Signed with Baltimore as a 14th round choice in the June draft and reported to Newark, earning a spot on the New York-Penn League All-Star team.

PERSONAL

Steven Allen (Steve) Finley...he and wife, Amy, and sons, Austin (10/8/93), Reed (9/1/95) and Blake (2/23/97) make their home in Del Mar, CA...Steve graduated from Paducah (KY) Tilghman High School, then went to Southern Illinois at Carbondale, earning a degree in physiology...he was accepted to chiropractic school (Logan College in St. Louis), but opted to play pro ball...he was drafted by Atlanta in the 11th round of the '86 June draft, but chose to remain at S.I.U., where he was a 2-time All-Missouri Valley Conference player, and a third team All-American in 1986...Finley's 1984 and '86 S.I.U. clubs each captured conference titles...he was a member of Team USA in 1986 that won the Bronze medal in international competition in the Netherlands...Steve's father is a retired middle school dean in Paducah, while his mother is still teaching middle school...Steve earned the 1997 Chairman's Award with San Diego, as the Padre who best exemplifies the community spirit of team owner John Moores and his family...both Steve and Amy have been extremely active in the communities that Steve has called home, inspiring the Padres Scholars program in 1995...they also began a program in which they purchased 20 tickets for every game to enable underprivileged children to attend games, and have continued the program in Bank One Ballpark since joining the Diamondbacks...they toured Indonesia in '95 and Hungary in '92, conducting youth baseball clinics and providing equipment to help form leagues...the family also formed the Steve Finley Charitable Youth Fund in 1993, encouraging kids to stay in school, earn a degree and live drug free...Steve is also a contributor to the "Touch 'em All" Foundation formed by country music legend Garth Brooks.

Fins Reaps Rawlings Gold, Again

Steve Finley won his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove for his defensive effort during the 2000 season, the fourth such award of his major league career. The only Rawlings Gold Glove winner in the franchise's brief three-year history, Fins has committed just five errors in a Diamondback uniform, while making highlight film catches such as the home run robbing nab of a Robin Ventura ball last August 27 in Shea Stadium.

Finley's four career Rawlings Gold Gloves raise the total to 17 such honors won by Diamondback uniformed personnel in their respective careers. Finley and Matt Williams lead the pack among active players on the roster, earning four in their respective careers, the most recent for Williams in 1997 with the Indians. Mark Grace joined the D'Backs this year as a two-time winner, while Jay Bell snapped Ozzie Smith's reign at shortstop in 1993 while with the Pirates, his lone Gold Glove. Hitting coach Dwayne Murphy won six consecutive Rawlings Gold Gloves from 1980-85 while patrolling centerfield for the Oakland A's.

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

M.L. Service: 10 years, 32 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with cash considerations from the Detroit Tigers in exchange for outfielder Karim Garcia, December 28, 1998.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Luis enjoyed second straight solid season in a Diamondback uniform, establishing career bests in doubles (47), home runs (31) and RBI (114), breaking the personal marks he set during the '99 season, while also becoming the only D'Back in the franchise's brief history to appear in and start all 162 games...earned co-Player-of-the-Year honors with Steve Finley as voted by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA...Gonzo was also named to his second consecutive Good Guy Award by the BBWAA...he was selected to travel to Japan as part of the MLB All-Star tour in November, hitting .300 over 8 exhibition games against Japanese League All-Star teams...he set a club record with 80 extra-base hits and is the first Diamondback to drive in 100 runs in consecutive seasons...Luis opened the season going 10-for-19 (.526) through the first 5 games, featuring a club record-tying 3-double affair on April 7 vs. the Pirates...had an up-and-down first 5 weeks of the season in which his average dropped to .226 on April 20, returned to .273 in a week's time, then fell again to .229 as late as May 6 before kicking off a stretch in which Gonzo never went more than 2 straight games without a hit the rest of the way...the week between slumps featured career-best power display, hitting 5 home runs in a 6-game stretch including a club record-tying 3 straight games with a roundtripper from April 26-28...he later tied that mark with 3 in a row from June 7-10...Gonzo recorded his 300th career double on June 18 vs. San Diego...he earned his first career N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors by hitting .417 (10-for-24) from June 5-11 with 3 doubles, 4 homers, 8 RBI and a 1.042 slugging pct...he later earned his second league weekly honor for July 24-30, sharing the award with Colorado's Jeffrey Hammonds...the second award was based on .450 week (9-for-20) with 4 homers and 6 RBI, featuring eighth career 2-homer game on July 30 at Florida...Gonzo recorded the first cycle in club history on July 5 in Houston, the 229th in major league history...he was 2-for-4 with a single and a double entering the eighth inning, but tripled in the eighth and homered in the ninth to become the 10th player in baseball history to both hit for the cycle and author a 30-game hitting streak (1999)...also tied a club record by scoring 4 runs in the game, the fourth 4-run game in franchise history...he had his ninth career 2-homer game on August 3 against Atlanta, while driving in 5 to match the team-high for a game during the 2000 season...he had a season-high 14-game hitting streak from August 6-21, hitting .382 (21-for-55) with 12 runs and 10 RBI...he established his single-season career high for home runs by hitting his 27th on August 30 in Montreal off of Felipe Lira...Luis tied a personal single-game best with a trio of 4-hit games giving him 13 in his career...he celebrated his 33rd birthday with 3 hits vs. Florida on September 3...his year ended with an 11-game hitting streak in which he batted .356 (16-for-45) with 10 runs scored, 4 doubles, 4 home runs and 20 RBI...included was a huge day during a split doubleheader in San Francisco on September 23, going a combined 3-for-8 in the twinbill featuring a 3-run homer in each contest, totaling 8 RBI on the day.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—One of the less publicized acquisitions prior to the '99 season was one of the most potent, as Gonzo enjoyed a breakout year...acquired for Karim Garcia during the Christmas break, the veteran outfielder established career bests in hits (206), home runs (26), runs scored (112), RBI (111) and doubles (45), with his hit and double totals easily establishing club records...his 206 hits won the N.L. crown, 2 more than Philly's Doug Glanville...he manufactured 5 different double-digit hitting streaks, including 30, 16, 13, 11 and 10 games...the 30-game streak ran from April 11-May 18, achieving the mark with a first inning homer at San Francisco off of Chris Brock, the first such streak of that length in the N.L. since 1989 (Jerome Walton)...Luis was the 37th player in major league history to hit in at least 30 consecutive games, with Vladimir Guerrero hitting in 31 straight later in the year to become the 38th...consistent throughout, he batted .400 over the 30 games (46-for-115) with 25 runs, 11 doubles, a triple, 7 homers, 25 RBI and 80 total bases for a slugging pct. of .696...probably the most memorable hit during the streak was at home on May 11 against Montreal, snapping a 3-3 tie with his first hit of the night, a game-ending 10th inning homer off of Guillermo Mota...he opened the year by hitting safely in 4 straight, featuring 3 home runs, including his first of 2 multi-homer games, going deep twice on April 7 in Dodger Stadium...

after an 0-for-3 in the middle game of a series in Atlanta, "the streak" began with a home run off of Greg Maddux in the series finale at Turner Field on April 11... once the streak was halted, Luis was hitless for 2 straight games, then hit safely in 13 in a row, giving him a start to the season that featured hits in 48 of his first 51 games at a .398 clip (80-for-201)...he earned his first trip to the All-Star Game, going 1-for-2 with a double in Fenway Park...the lefthanded hitting outfielder did not discriminate offensively, hitting .339 against right-handed pitching (152-for-449) and .327 vs. southpaws (54-for-165). DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Gonzo started all 4 games in the series with the Mets, going 2-for-10 with a team-high 5 walks...both of his post-season hits came in the first game of the series and each went for extra bases...he doubled in his first at bat in the first inning, then hit a 2-run homer in the sixth inning, tying the contest at the time at 4-4. 1998—Luis eclipsed the 20-homer mark for the first time in his career, hammering 23 for the Tigers, his only year in the American League...he tied a career best with 154 games played, even with the addition of triplets to the Gonzalez family, when Christine delivered the threesome of Megan, Jacob and Alyssa on June 26...included was his fourth career 2-homer game, taking Anaheim's Omar Olivares deep twice on August 10, with the second blast the 100th of Luis' career...he also picked up the 1,000th hit of his career with a fifth inning single off of Olivares...the Tampa native celebrated his return home by belting the first-ever home run at Tampa's Tropicana Field in the Devil Rays' inaugural game on March 31, a 2-run blast in the fifth inning off of Dan Carlson...homered off Anaheim southpaw Chuck Finley on May 9, the first home run by a lefthanded hitter vs. Finley since Sept. 23, 1996 (Ken Griffey Jr.)...recorded his 500th career RBI on May 24 at Chicago...had a streak of 129 consecutive errorless games snapped on July 30. 1997—Signed as a free agent with the Astros, returning to the franchise where he began his career after a year and a half with the Cubs...had a 23-game hitting streak, tying Art Howe's club record, also the longest streak in the N.L. in '97...enjoyed a visit to Montreal on July 18-20, collecting 3 hits in 3 consecutive games, going 9-for-11 in the series, with 2 homers, 6 runs and 7 RBI...included was his first career grand slam on July 20 off of Omar Daal. 1996—Fanned only 49 times in 483 AB's, while walking 61 times, the first time he walked more than K'd in his career...started twice at first base, his first major league work there since 1990. 1995—Opened the year with Houston then was traded to the Cubs on June 28, with Scott Servais in exchange for Rick Wilkins...hit his first career game-opening home run on September 27 off St. Louis' Allen Watson. 1994—Ranked 10th in the league with 29 doubles during the strike-shortened season...he hit .331 (50-for-151) in the final 41 games leading up to the stoppage of play. 1993—Singled in his final at bat on October 3 to break the .300 mark...led the N.L. in sacrifice flies (10) and ranked third in getting hit (10)...had second career 5-RBI game on Sept. 6 vs. New York...hit in 14 consecutive games from July 8-23. 1992—Opened the season with Houston, but due to .158 average on May 20, he was optioned to Tucson (AAA)...appeared in 13 games and hit .432 for the Toros and said goodbye to the minor leagues for the final time, returning to the majors on June 3...hit first career pinch-hit home run on June 13, a game-winning, 3-run shot off the Giants' Jeff Brantley in a 4-1 Houston win...was on the D.L. from July 21-August 5 with a partial dislocation of his left shoulder after making a diving catch vs. Pittsburgh on July 20. 1991—His first full year in the majors, he led the Astros with 50 extra-base hits, a club record for rookies, breaking Joe Morgan's team record of 48 set in 1965, earning a spot on the Topps All-Rookie team...Gonzo suffered a partial dislocation of his left shoulder attempting to make a diving catch on August 28 at Philly, and was disabled from August 29-Sept. 13...had the first 5-RBI game of his career on July 3 at San Francisco...recorded first career 4-hit game on July 17 at Pittsburgh...hit first 2 major league home runs on May 1 at Wrigley Field off of Greg Maddux, knocking in 4 runs. 1990—Earned a spot on the Southern League All-Star team, while playing for Columbus (AA), tying for the league lead in home runs and sacrifice flies...was promoted to Houston after AA season, making debut on Sept. 4 in L.A. as a pinch hitter...made first start on Sept. 8 in San Francisco, picking up a double off of Steve Bedrosian for first major league hit. 1989—Was limited to 86 games for Osceola (A) due to an injured right shoulder...was on the disabled list from May 26-July 5, but still tied for the team lead in triples. 1988—Signed as Houston's fourth choice in the June draft and split his first pro season between Auburn and Asheville, totaling 70 games.

First Baseman

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 200

B/T: L/L

Age: 36 (Turns 37 on June 28)

Born: June 28, 1964 in Winston-Salem, NC

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

M.L. Service: 12 years, 154 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 8, 2000.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Mark's final season as a Cub, his .280 average was the first sub .300 campaign in 6 years and just the fourth in his 13-year big league career...tied for eighth in the N.L. with 41 doubles, his third best single-season output...he walked a career-high 95 times, tying for ninth best in the league, while once again proving the toughest to strikeout in the majors with only 28 K's in 621 plate appearances, a 1 in every 22.2 ratio...reached a pair of milestones during the year, scoring the 1,000th run of his career on May 2 against the Astros, the eighth player in Cub history to achieve that mark, while recording his 1,000th career RBI on September 23 against St. Louis, the seventh player in franchise history to attain that total...Mark had his first career 5-hit game on August 6 in San Diego, featuring 2 doubles and a home run...also had a pair of 4-hit affairs (July 26 at Philadelphia and September 11 in Cincinnati), giving him 19 career games of at least 4 knocks...the 4-hit effort in Philly drove in a career-high 6 runs, including his second career grand slam (off of Paul Byrd)...Mark was the opening day first baseman for the 12th consecutive year, homering in the March 29 lid lifter against the Mets in Tokyo...he was primarily employed in the third and fourth slots in the batting order, but was used in the second and fifth spots one time each...when he batted second on May 7 vs. the Pirates it was just the second time Grace batted there since the 1994 season...he continued his mastery with the leather leading all N.L. first basemen with a .997 fielding percentage, committing only 4 errors in 1,205 total chances, including just 1 miscue after the All-Star break...Mark was one of four captains on the 2000 roster (Sammy Sosa, Kevin Tapani and Rick Aguilera), the first Cub captains since Ron Santo in 1973...he was disabled for just the fourth time in his 13-year career from May 11-30 with a left hamstring strain.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

A three-time All-Star and four-time Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner, Mark was voted to the Cubs' all-century team in 1999...he is a two-time winner of the N.L. Player-of-the-Week and once a Player-of-the-Month honoree...he entered the new year ranking fifth among active players in doubles (456), and ranks 60th on the all-time list...he is also sixth among active players in hits (2,201) and 10th in walks (946)...Grace led the majors during the decade of the 90's with 1,754 hits and 364 doubles, while his 1,238 singles ranked second to Tony Gwynn (see chart below)...by leading the 90's in hits, Grace joined such greats as Honus Wagner, Ty Cobb, Rogers Hornsby, Paul Waner, Lou Boudreau, Richie Ashburn, Roberto Clemente, Pete Rose and Robin Yount as decade hit leaders in the 20th century...Mark has walked more than he has fanned in every professional season and entered 2001 with 946 career walks and just 561 K's...during the 1990's, Grace became just the second player in Cubs history to start every season opener of a decade at the same position, joining Cap Anson (the 1880's at first base)...he has finished in the N.L. Top 10 in batting on 8 occasions...defensively his .995 career fielding pct. is the highest in Cub history at first base, while his 1,890 games at that position rank second in franchise history to Anson (2,058)...over the last 10 seasons, Grace and J.T. Snow have each won 4 Rawlings Gold Gloves in the N.L.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, November 12, 1999.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

The baseball player-turned carpenter-turned baseball player experienced a whirlwind year that actually began during the preceding winter when Geraldito was placed on the 40-man roster by virtue of an impressive showing with the China Trust Whales in Taiwan, his first attempt at professional baseball since being released by the Montreal Expos in 1992...he appeared in 8.2 innings of Cactus League play with the big league club then was assigned to El Paso (AA) for his first formal professional work on U.S. soil...he went 1-2 with 3 saves in early going at El Paso before joining the Diablos' rotation on May 5, then posted a 2-1 record and 3.09 ERA in 6 starts for El Paso and earned a promotion to Tucson (AAA)...he was even more impressive for the Sidewinders, going 4-1 with a 1.42 mark in 6 starts and was recalled to the majors on July 6...Geraldito made his major league debut on the night of his recall in hitter-friendly Enron Field, defeating the Astros by a 2-1 count, scattering 4 hits while fanning 3 and walking 1 in an 8-inning stint...his appearance made him the 16th different starter in franchise history, later joined by Curt Schilling and Byung-Hyun Kim...he was optioned back to El Paso immediately after the win in Houston as the major league All-Star break was forthcoming and he would not work again for at least 10 days...following a no decision with the Diablos, he was recalled again on July 17 and pitched 8.0 innings of a 7-0 victory over Seattle that night becoming the first pitcher in franchise history to win his first 2 starts...things didn't go as smoothly his next time out lasting only 2.2 innings vs. Cincinnati on July 22, suffering a 7-3 loss, his first big league setback...Geraldito benefitted from team's biggest offensive outburst of year on July 27 at St. Louis, running his record to 3-1 with a 5.2-inning effort in 17-5 win over Cardinals...he went 0-3 in 5 outings (4 starts) from August 5-29, allowing 20 earned runs in 19.0 innings...included was a loss in relief to the Expos facing his original club for the first time and allowing a game-tying home run to Vladimir Guerrero in the eighth inning...the home run was followed by an infield hit which carried the eventual winning run for Montreal...was optioned to AAA on August 30, then recalled on September 4 after AAA season ended...he made a pair of relief appearances after returning to the big league club, then finished the season with consecutive wins as a starter against San Francisco...the first was in Pacific Bell Park on September 23 in game #1 of a split doubleheader, allowing 3 runs in 5.2 innings of a 7-5 triumph...he followed that with a 5-1 win on September 30 in Bank One Ballpark, blanking the Giants until Damon Minor homered in the eighth inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Geraldo's circuitous route to the majors began when he signed his first professional contract on Sept. 27, 1989, joining the Gulf Coast Expos for the 1990 season...he went 2-1 with a 2.99 ERA in 8 games (7 starts) in the '90 season, followed by a 5-5 mark in '91, making 15 starts, featuring 3 complete games, including a shutout...he was released after the 1991 season and worked as a carpenter from 1992-98, participating in amateur games in the Dominican...he was spotted by Junior Noboa, Arizona's Coordinator of Latin American Scouting and was invited to work at the Diamondbacks Academy in the Dominican Republic...Geraldo was sent to Taiwan to pitch last year, making 9 appearances for the China Trust Whales of the Chinese Professional League, posting no record, but recording a save...Guzman signed a 2000 contract with El Paso on November 12, then just 6 days later was added to the Diamondbacks 40-man roster.

PERSONAL: Geraldo Guzman...he and his wife, Sandra, have a son, Gerald (7/6/97) and make their home in Tenares, DR.

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 205

B/T: R/R

Age: 30

Born: January 27, 1971 in San Leandro, CA

Residence: Chandler, AZ

M.L. Service: 29 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent on January 22, 1999.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Spent his second straight season at Tucson (AAA) working mainly behind the plate with fellow receiver Rod Barajas, but Ken's versatility was displayed by also playing 5 games at third base and filling in at times at first base, leftfield and rightfield...offensively, he had a pair of hitting streaks during his sporadic work, hitting safely in 8 straight from May 17-29 at a .379 clip (11-for-29), then recording a 15-game streak from June 8-30 in which he batted .426 (23-for-54) to up his season average from .261 to .324...consistent with his 2 seasons in Tucson, Huckaby hit .317 at Tucson Electric Park, but just .231 on the road...defensively, he gunned down 31 of 66 potential base thieves, a 47% success rate which was second best in the Pacific Coast League.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Collected 8 hits in his final 20 at bats of the season to raise his average to .301, his first .300-plus season since 1995... set career highs in hits (107), runs (44), runs batted in (42) and doubles (20)...hit .324 at Tucson Electric Park as opposed to .275 on the road. 1998—Signed minor league contract with Seattle and was invited to Mariners' major league camp...opened season at AAA Tacoma, hitting .318 at home...claimed on waivers by New York Yankees in June and was assigned to Columbus (AAA). 1996—Had streak of 42 errorless games, April 13-June 4...hit .305 vs. lefthanded pitching...recalled to Los Angeles on September 1, but did not appear in a game. 1995—Made jump to AAA and responded with career-high .324 average...led PCL catchers in chances (592), assists (61) and fewest errors (16)...named top defensive catcher in the league and in the Dodger system by Baseball America...hit .271 with Caracas in Venezuelan Winter League. 1994—Ranked second in California League by throwing out 41% of opposing base stealers. 1993—Earned spot on Florida State League All-Star team and again was named by Baseball America as best defensive catcher in FSL...led league's catchers in assists (99) and double plays (14). 1992—Named best defensive catcher in FSL by Baseball America. 1991—Scored 39 runs in 57 games and earned a spot on the Pioneer League All-Star team...was signed by Los Angeles as the Dodgers' second round pick in the June draft.

PERSONAL

Kenneth Paul (Ken) Huckaby...he and wife, Leslie, and son, Kyle (6/16/96) make their home in Chandler, AZ...Ken graduated from Manteca, CA, High School in 1989 and attended San Joaquin Delta Junior College in Stockton, CA...he spent a small portion of the winter playing in the Dominican Republic, then returned to the Valley where he worked out at Bank One Ballpark in preparation for the 2001 season...he displayed some media savvy during the 2000 season in Tucson, hosting a pre-game radio show entitled "Behind the Backstop" featuring interviews with teammates, coaches and opposing players.

Jason Jacome

Lefthanded Pitcher

Wt: 155

B/T: L/L

Age: 30 (Turns 31 on November 24)

Born: November 24, 1970 in Tulsa, OK

Residence: Tucson, AZ

M.L. Service: 3 years, 21 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent on December 7, 2000.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Jason's second consecutive year of work for the Yakult Swallows in the Central League in Japan, he had a solid season in gear before it was interrupted on August 15 when he left a game against the Chunichi Dragons with a broken left thumb...the injury occurred in the Nagoya Dome when he attempted a sacrifice bunt in the second inning...he was 6-5 with the league's 10th best ERA of 3.69 at the time of the injury...he returned to go 2-1 in 4 more games and lowered his season ERA to 3.35.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—His first of 2 seasons in Japan, Jason led the Swallows with 12 victories, his second highest win total as a professional...he had requested his release from the Cleveland organization the previous November to clear the way for his move to the Orient. 1998—Jason spent virtually the entire season with Buffalo (AAA), going 14-2 with a 3.26 ERA in 24 starts, giving him an overall 17-3 mark in parts of 2 seasons with the Bisons...he had his contract purchased by Cleveland on September 19 but wasn't nearly as successful in his lone appearance with the Tribe, allowing 8 earned runs in 5.0 innings of an 8-4 loss in Yankee Stadium on September 23. 1997—Began the season in the Kansas City bullpen, making 7 relief appearances before being designated for assignment on April 29...he was claimed off outright waivers by Cleveland on May 8 and optioned to Buffalo (AAA)...was 3-1 in 7 starts at AAA and recalled to the Indians on June 20...made his Tribe debut on June 21 with a relief appearance against the Yankees...went 3.0 innings in his first start on June 29 at New York, then made his second start on July 11 at Minnesota, picking up Brian Anderson who was scratched from his scheduled start 12 minutes before game time with a sore left shoulder...Jacome posted the win over the Twins with 5.0 innings of 1-run ball, snapping a personal 8-game losing streak that began in September, 1995, with the Royals...he was optioned back to Buffalo on August 1, but returned just 3 days later when Orel Hershisier went down with a lower back strain...he was eligible and accompanied the club throughout the post-season, but was not activated in any of the 3 series for the A.L. Champs. 1996—His only full season in the majors, Jason worked mainly out of the pen appearing in 49 games (2 starts)...earned his lone big league save on September 1 at Detroit...was tagged for 13 earned runs in 4.0 innings over his 2 starts, while posting a 2.47 ERA as a reliever. 1995—Opened the year in the Mets' starting rotation, but an 0-4, 10.29 ERA through 5 starts forced an option to Norfolk (AAA) on May 22...he made 8 starts at Norfolk then was traded with pitcher Allen McDill to Kansas City on July 21 in exchange for pitchers Derek Wallace and Geno Morones, who was returned due to an injury and replaced in the deal by John Carter...Jacome's first win as a Royal featured 7.0 shutout innings against the Angels on August 10, a 5-0 victory...he matched a career-best with 6 K's on August 20 in Toronto...tossed the second complete game of his career on August 29, a 7-hit, 7-1 victory over the Brewers...all told, he won 4 in a row earning the club's Pitcher-of-the-Month award for August...made first big league relief appearance with an inning at Cleveland on September 30. 1994—Began the year with Norfolk and ranked sixth in the International League in strikeouts at the time of his recall on June 29...made his major league debut on July 2 at San Diego, fanning 6...Jason was the first Met pitcher in 20 years to toss a shutout in his second big league start, firing a 6-hitter in a 6-0 victory at Los Angeles on July 7...the shutout was part of a career-high 19.0 consecutive scoreless inning streak from July 2-16...he picked up his first major league hit on August 1 off of Atlanta's Greg Maddux...Jacome was optioned back to Norfolk just prior to the major league work stoppage, finishing the year in AAA and posting the third best ERA in the I.L. at 2.84. 1993—Split the year between Port St. Lucie (A) and Binghamton (AA), making 14 starts at each stop...went a combined 14-7 with a 3.14 ERA featuring a pair of shutouts. 1992—Worked at Columbus (A) and Port St. Lucie, finishing the year with 6 complete games, the third best total among Met minor leaguers. 1991—His first year as a professional, he was third among all Mets short-season pitchers with a 1.63 ERA for Kingsport.

PERSONAL

Jason James Jacome...he and his wife, Lisa, have a pair of dogs in their family, a St. Bernard named "Sabie" and cocker spaniel "Bizkit"...they make their home in Tucson, AZ, where Jason was a 1989 graduate of Rincon High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and track...he then attended Pima Community College, earning first team Junior College All-America honors in 1991, posting a 2.30 ERA with 110 K's in 103.0 innings.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Randy led the majors in strikeouts for the third consecutive season with 347, while topping the National League in winning percentage (.731) and tying for the top spot in complete games (8), shutouts (3) and starts (35)...he went from "Sayonara to Cy Young," returning home from an 8-game tour of Japan with the MLB All-Star team and 2 days later learned he won his second consecutive, third career, Cy Young Award...he became the third N.L. pitcher to win the honor consecutively, and first lefthander to do so since Sandy Koufax in 1965-66...he also earned his second straight D'Back Pitcher-of-the-Year honor by the area BBWAA...R.J. appeared headed for his second straight ERA title but his hopes were derailed on final day of the season allowing 8 earned runs in just 3.1 innings against the division champion Giants, raising his season mark from 2.38 to 2.64, finishing second to Kevin Brown...he became the 12th pitcher in major league history to reach the 3,000 career strikeout mark when he fanned Florida's Mike Lowell in the fourth inning on September 10 in Pro Player Stadium...Johnson struck out Luis Castillo in the first inning for his 300th of the year joining Nolan Ryan as the only 2 pitchers in history to fan 300 batters in 3 consecutive seasons...R.J. and Ryan are also the only 2 hurlers to achieve at least 1,000 K's in a 3-year stretch, with Johnson fanning 1,038 in his last 3 seasons (Ryan fanned 1,079 from 1972-74)...Johnson started the season by winning co-N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors (with Montreal's Vladimir Guerrero) allowing 2 earned runs in first 17.2 innings, both solo homers in the season opening win over Philadelphia...he followed with a 1-0 win over the Pirates, the first of 2 shutouts in April...all told, he went 6-0 in April with a 0.91 ERA, allowing just 5 earned runs in 49.1 innings while recording 64 K's, earning N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for the month after becoming just the third pitcher in history to win 6 games before May 1, joining Vida Blue (1971) and Dave Stewart (1988)...he struck out 36 batters without issuing a walk over 102 at bats over his first 4 starts...his impressive start carried into May, matching Brian Anderson's team mark by winning his seventh consecutive start on May 5...he went 3-1 in May, allowing 10 earned runs in 46.1 innings, a 1.94 ERA, with 7 of the 10 runs he allowed coming via solo homers...he moved into 12th on the all-time career strikeout list when he passed Jim Bunning with strikeout No. 2,856 vs. Colorado on June 25...started the year 16th on the list, also passing Frank Tanana, Cy Young and Mickey Lolich during the course of the 2000 season...Randy ranks second all-time among lefthanders, trailing only Steve Carlton (4,136)...he had an 11-1 record and 1.40 ERA through first 14 starts and was 15-2 with a 2.01 mark at the All-Star break, earning the starting nod for the N.L., his seventh Midsummer Classic selection, third start...he worked a scoreless first inning recording a strikeout and allowing a double to eventual MVP Derek Jeter...amazingly, he struck out 13 in a 7-inning stint at Oakland just 2 days before the All-Star Game, posting a 4-2 win over the A's...R.J. tied his and Ryan's major league record for double-digit strikeout games with 23, the second consecutive year for Johnson...included was a season-high 14 K's in the milestone game on September 10 in Florida...he finished year with 148 career games with 10 or more K's, second to Ryan's 215...Randy went 5 straight starts without a win (2 losses, 3 no decisions) from July 25-August 14, then snapped the drought on August 20 with a 6-hitter over the Cubs...as if he wasn't good enough on natural surfaces, R.J. went 2-1 record on artificial turf with a 1.21 ERA allowing 4 earned runs in 29.2 innings of work...offensively, he set a club record for pitchers with 8 RBI, breaking the mark he set the previous season (7)...had a 5-game hitting streak from April 14-May 5, going 6-for-17 (.353) with a double and 4 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Randy is one of 6 pitchers to post at least 15 wins in each of the last 3 seasons, joining Pedro Martinez, Greg Maddux, David Wells, Aaron Sele and Dave Burba...his career total of 3,040 K's entering the 2001 season ranks 12th all-time, 77 behind Bob Gibson for 11th and 152 in back of Ferguson Jenkins to crack the Top 10...R.J. and Nolan Ryan are the only pitchers in history to record at least 1,000 strikeouts over a 3-year stretch, with Ryan fanning 1,079 from 1972-74, and the Unit K'ing 1,040 in his last 3 seasons...Johnson has recorded 148 career double-digit strikeout games, the most by a lefthanded hurler, and second only to Ryan's remarkable 215 games with 10 or more...Randy has won 66% of the time that he has fanned at least 10, going 98-27 with 23 no decisions...Johnson has kept lefthanded hitters to a .189 overall average in his career (173-for-913), and while allowing 222 regular season home runs during his career, only 10 have been hit by lefties (Von Hayes and Jim Eisenreich-1989; Wally Joyner and Mike Greenwell-1991; Mo Vaughn-1992; Darren Bragg-1996; Darin Erstad, Mo Vaughn & Jim Edmonds (2)-1997)...he had a personal 16-game winning streak that ran from August, 1995 through May 2, 1997, falling a win shy of the American League record for consecutive games won in a career.

1999—Randy's first year as a Diamondback translated into his second career Cy Young Award, joining Gaylord Perry and Pedro Martinez as the only pitchers in history to win the coveted honor in each league...the top strikeout performer in the majors during the decade of the 90's, R.J. added to those numbers with a career-high 364, the fourth best single-season total in major league history, just 3 shy of Nolan Ryan's 1974 mark for third highest...Randy also set personal bests in complete games (12) and innings pitched (271.2), leading the majors in each category...he won the division clincher in San Francisco on Sept. 24, allowing 3 unearned runs in the first inning, then limiting the Giants to just 2 hits the rest of the way in an 11-3 win...fanned 15 on April 10 in a win at Atlanta, the first of 23 double-digit strikeout games, tying Nolan Ryan's major league record for most in a season, 2 more than the previous N.L. mark set in 1965 by Sandy Koufax...the Big Unit also set a big league record by achieving the 300-strikeout mark faster than any hurler in history, fanning the Marlins' Kevin Millar for the milestone 'K' on August 26 in his 29th start, 2 starts quicker than any other pitcher...he earned N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors after posting consecutive wins on May 25 & 30 at home over San Diego and in New York, respectively, allowing 1 run over 17.0

innings...the 4-0 win over the Friars was a 6-hitter and the first of 2 shutouts in '99...his other shutout was a focal point to Arizona's winning of the West, as the Unit returned to Seattle on July 20 tossing an 8-hitter to record the first-ever blanking in Safeco Field, a 6-0 victory...entering play that night, Arizona was 2 1/2 games behind in the West, but his win ignited a 10-1 run that reversed the standings to a 2 1/2-game lead, and a season-ending stretch in which the club finished 51-17...Randy's pair of shutouts weren't the only blankings involving him that made news in '99, as one of the more publicized losing streaks occurred at mid-season as he tied an improbable major league record by coming up on the short end of 4 consecutive shutouts from June 25-July 10...the oddity of the streak was that the D'Backs were no-hit by the Cards' Jose Jimenez in the first loss, then followed by a 1-hitter, 2-hitter and 3-hitter in succession...it marked the 10th time in major league history that a starter was blanked in 4 consecutive games, joining Willie Hernandez (1980 Cubs), Jim McAndrew (1968 Mets), Ray Sadecki (1968 Giants), Chuck Estrada (1962 Orioles), George O'Donnell (1954 Pirates), Paul Derringer (1933 Reds), Hub Pruett (1932 Boston Braves), Jesse Petty (1927 Brooklyn Dodgers) and Irv Young (1907 Boston Braves)...during the inexplicable drought, R.J. posted a 1.41 ERA, allowing 5 earned runs in 32.0 innings while going 0-4...included was his 2,500th career strikeout in the no-hit loss to the Cards, getting Eric Davis in the ninth inning...that was followed by a 2-0 loss in Cincy on June 30, breaking his own club record with 17 K's, starting a streak of 3 games in which he totaled 43 strikeouts, tying Doc Gooden's 3-game N.L. record set in 1984...he was also impressive enough to earn a spot on his sixth career All-Star team, first as a National Leaguer, working a perfect inning in Fenway Park...Randy recovered nicely from the run of opposing shutouts, finishing the year by going 8-2 in his last 15 starts, posting a 1.89 ERA, with 25 earnies in 119.0 innings while recording 153 K's...the second half featured league Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for July, despite a 2-3 record, he had a 1.13 ERA (6 ER in 48.0 IP) while recording 64 strikeouts...he also garnered another N.L. Player-of-the-Week award for August 16-22. 1999 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Randy appeared once in the post-season, absorbing an 8-4 loss in the series opener in Bank One Ballpark...he was charged with 7 earned runs on 8 hits over 8.1 innings, walking 3 and striking out 11...he left the game with the bases loaded and the score tied at 4-4 in the ninth, but an Edgardo Alfonzo grand slam staked New York to the decision...he allowed a pair of home runs, including a blast by John Olerud, the first home run that Randy surrendered to a lefthanded hitter since the 1997 regular season. 1998—A record setting 10-year career with the Seattle Mariners came to an end at the trade deadline, joining a pennant race in Houston...R.J. was 9-10 with a 4.33 ERA in 23 starts for the Mariners, then enjoyed a reversal of fortune after joining the Astros, going 10-1 with a 1.28 ERA in 11 starts...he totaled a then career-high 329 strikeouts, accruing 213 in Seattle and 116 with the Astros...Johnson was acquired on July 31 with Houston clinging to a 3 1/2-game lead in the Central...after the deal, the Astros enjoyed the best overall month in franchise history, going 22-7 in August, upping the division lead to 11 games...he closed the regular season with wins in his final 7 starts, posting a 1.16 ERA (7 earned runs in 54.1 innings)...included in the streak was a 2-0 win over the Pirates, a 7-hitter in which he did not allow a walk and fanned 16, the most ever by a Houston lefthander, and the most since a 16-K performance by Nolan Ryan on Sept. 9, 1987 vs. S.F....he earned N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for August, going 5-1 with a 1.17 ERA in 6 starts, leading the league in shutouts (3) and strikeouts (61)...after a win in Atlanta over Greg Maddux on Sept. 2, Randy fired his fourth straight shutout in the Dome, 1-0 over Cincinnati on Sept. 7...he posted his eighth win in an Astro uniform on Sept. 12 vs. St. Louis, a 3-2 triumph that ended his consecutive scoreless inning streak in the Astrodome at 36.0, allowing both runs in the first inning...all told, in 5 starts in the Dome during the regular season, Johnson held the opposition scoreless in 42 of the 43 innings he pitched, allowing 2 earned runs (0.42 ERA)...he wrapped up September the same way he ended August, winning the N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award, going 5-0 with a 1.41 ERA (6 ER in 38.1 IP). 1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: All Randy had to show for a pair of starts in the Division Series against San Diego were great numbers and a pair of tough losses...he went up against Kevin Brown in the opener in Houston, losing 2-1, allowing 2 runs over 8.0 innings, while fanning 9...he then worked what ended up as the series finale, losing 6-1 to Sterling Hitchcock, allowing 1 earned run on 3 hits over a 6-inning stint, with 8 K's. 1997—Randy rebounded from an injury shortened 1996, to set a personal and Seattle franchise record with 20 wins, leading the A.L. in opponents' batting average (.193), winning pct. (.833) and K's per 9-innings (12.3), finishing second to Roger Clemens in the Cy Young balloting...he had a streak within a streak from May 13-June 19, a stretch that witnessed a 7-game win streak (8 starts), but included was a 5-game period in which he allowed only 1 earned run over 40.0 innings (0.23 ERA)...he had a streak of 31.0 straight scoreless innings halted by an Eric Young homer on June 13 in the Kingdom...included in the scoreless streak was a complete game win over Toronto, a 2-hitter, his first route-going effort since Oct. 2, 1995, vs. California...the 7-game winning streak was halted by Oakland on June 24, a 4-1 decision featuring 19 K's by Johnson in a complete game effort that included a 538-foot home run by his former college teammate Mark McGwire...Randy's effort matched the major league record and set an A.L. mark for K's in a game by a lefthanded pitcher, while also tying the big league mark for K's in a loss...Johnson earned A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for June (4-1 and 0.92 ERA)...he was tabbed the starter in the All-Star Game at Cleveland, working 2.0 shutout innings, his second Midsummer Classic start...he fired a shutout on August 8 vs. Chicago, a 5-hitter, fanning 19, tying his own A.L. record for K's in a game by a southpaw...it was only the eighth 19-strikeout (9-inning) game in history, the first time it was done by the same hurler twice in a season...he worked 2.0 innings of relief on Sept. 27 vs. Oakland to pick up 20th victory, his first career relief win, fanning 3, featuring his 2,000th career strikeout (Ben Grieve). 1996—The good news was that he went 5-0, the bad news was that he worked only 14 times (8 starts) due to a lower back injury that eventually required season-ending surgery...he was Seattle's opening night starter for an unprecedented fifth time, giving up 3 hits over 7.0 innings with 14 K's in a no decision...he entered an April 26 start in Milwaukee with a 4-0 mark, but just 3.2 innings into the affair, Randy departed with lower back pain...the pain lingered as he was capable of only 2.0 frames in his next start vs. Texas on May 1...he waited 11 days for what turned out to be his final start of the year, going 5.0 innings in a win over K.C. to up his mark to 5-0...he was placed on the D.L. on May 13 with an irritated nerve in his lower back...he was on the 60-day disabled list, making 1 rehab appearance for Everett (A), then was activated from the D.L. on August 6, and worked 2.0 scoreless frames of relief that day vs. Cleveland...he fanned 8 in 4.0 innings on August 13 vs. KC, earning his second career save...he gave up 6 earned runs over his final 2 outings, including a grand slam to Darren Bragg on August 24 at Boston, the first homer surrendered to a lefthanded hitter since 1992...Johnson was placed on the D.L. on August 27 and underwent surgery (a micro endoscopic discectomy) to correct an extruded disc herniation in his lower back on Sept. 12, a procedure performed by Dr. Robert Watkins in Los Angeles. 1995—Randy went 18-2 with a 2.48 ERA to win his first Cy Young Award, and only one in Seattle history, garnering 26 of 28 first place votes...he was also named to The Associated Press and The Sporting News All-Star Teams, and was named the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Year by The Sporting News...he also finished sixth in the league MVP balloting...the first Mariner to ever win the ERA title, he also led the A.L. in winning pct. (.900), strikeouts and batting average against (.201), while ranking second in wins...he won his fourth consecutive league strikeout crown, while establishing an A.L. record for best winning pct. in a season (minimum 20 decisions), breaking Ron Guidry's .893 mark (25-3) for the '78 Yankees...Randy also set a then-major league mark for K's per 9-innings with a ratio of 12.35, breaking Nolan Ryan's 11.48 mark in 1987 with Houston...Seattle was 27-3 in his 30 starts...he equaled a career-high with a 160-pitch complete game at Cleveland on July 7, the first time he did not walk a man in a complete game...R.J. was selected to his fourth All-Star team and named the starter, working 2.0 hitless innings in Arlington...suffered his second (and final) loss of the year on August 1 at California...missed 3 starts over a 4-week stretch due to inflammation in his left shoulder...finished strong, earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for Sept. 18-24, going 2-0 with a 0.59 ERA, fanning 25 in 15.1 innings...was 7-0 with a 1.45 ERA for his final 10 starts, including a 3-hit, complete game in the 1-game playoff starts, including a 3-hit, complete game in the 1-game playoff on October 2 vs. California for the A.L. West crown.

1995 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: He was the winner in game #3 of the Division Series vs. the Yankees, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...came back on a day's rest to work in relief in game #5, fanning 6 in 3.0 innings as Mariners advanced to the LCS...he had a no decision in game #3 of the LCS vs. Cleveland, allowing a run over 8.0 innings, a game that Seattle won, 5-2 in 11 innings...he was the losing pitcher in game #6, giving up 3 runs in 7.1 frames...R.J. had off-season surgery on his right knee performed by Dr. Larry Pedegana.

1994—Finished third in the Cy Young balloting, leading the majors in K's, while topping the junior circuit in K's per 9-innings (10.7), complete games and shutouts...Randy was Seattle's opening day starter in Cleveland on April 4, and with President Bill Clinton in attendance, he no-hit the Tribe until Sandy Alomar Jr. singled in the 8th, winding up with a no decision, an eventual 4-3 Seattle loss in 11...became the Mariners' all-time strikeout leader by fanning Mike Huff for #1,079, passing Mark Langston...missed a turn in early May due to a medial meniscus cartilage tear in his right knee...returned to work on May 15 and started a 7-game winning streak...included were 3 consecutive shutouts from May 25-June 4, winning at Oakland (1-0, 4-hitter on May 25), at Minnesota (12-0, 2-hitter on May 30) and vs. Toronto (2-0, 6-hitter on June 4), earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors...he ran the scoreless streak to 29.0 innings before unusual circumstances brought it to an end...in the third inning of a June 10 start at the Kingdome, a power outage forced a 20-minute delay, then after play resumed, the A's scored a run on back-to-back doubles...a July 7 win in Boston was his 75th in a Seattle uniform, breaking Langston's team mark...he was named to his third All-Star team, working an inning and allowing a run in Pittsburgh...Randy had his 2nd 15-K game of the year in the season finale on August 11, fanning Ernie Young on what wound up being the final pitch of the strike-shortened season.

1993—Led the majors for the second straight year with a club record 308 K's, 36 more than the old mark held by Mark Langston...Randy was the first pitcher to top the 300-K plateau since Nolan Ryan in 1989 (301) and the first lefthander since Steve Carlton in 1972 (310)...Johnson won the A.L. strikeout crown by 112 K's, then the fifth largest margin in history...ended year with an 8-game winning streak, spanning last 11 games, with a 2.11 ERA and a save...had second career 1-hitter on May 16 at Oakland, a 7-0 win, fanning 14 and taking a perfect game through 7.1 frames, then had the no-no broken up by Lance Blankenship's bloop to right with 1 out in the ninth...earned a spot on the All-Star team with 10-5 mark thru 19 starts prior to break...had 2.0 perfect innings in Midsummer Classic at Camden Yards, including a memorable strikeout of Philly's John Kruk...Johnson volunteered to work in relief following Norm Charlton's season-ending injury and earned first big league save vs. Baltimore on August 16, fanning 4 of 6 men in 1.1 innings, his second career relief appearance, snapping a streak of 146 straight starts...Mariners scored 13 runs in his 8 losses, including 1 run or less in 4 of the setbacks...he recorded 1000th career K fanning Chuck Knoblauch on July 28 (the same night that Ken Griffey Jr. homered for eighth straight game)...R.J. finished second to Chicago's Jack McDowell in Cy Young balloting, receiving 6 first place votes...he also appeared in a game as an outfielder, though he did not have any chances.

1992—Led the league in strikeouts, batting avg. against (.206) and hit batsmen (18)...he was hit by a line drive off the bat of Mike Greenwell on May 31, bruising his left elbow...after 10 days of rest, he attempted a return to action on June 10 at Texas, but pain persisted and he was placed on the D.L. until June 27...tied Ron Guidry's then-A.L. record for K's by a lefthanded pitcher with 18 strikeouts on Sept. 27 at Texas...despite record-tying performance, he left after 8.0 innings and 160 pitches with score tied 2-2...over a 3-game stretch from Sept. 16-27, he went 0-1 with a 1.80 ERA and 45 K's, the second highest 3-game strikeout total in major league history.

1991—Despite early-season back problems that led to a 3-6 start, Randy finished second in the A.L. in K's...best outing of the year was August 14 vs. Oakland, a 4-0 win featuring 12 K's, taking no-hitter into the 9th before Mike Gallego singled for the A's only hit...he had arthroscopic surgery after the season to repair a lateral release and a patellar shaving to remove a rough area on the back of his kneecap.

1990—He fired the first no-hitter in Mariner history, a 2-0 victory on June 2 vs. Detroit, walking 6 and fanning 8, an accomplishment that earned A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...he followed that on June 7 with a 2-1 complete game victory in Chicago, fanning 10 and retiring the last 20 in order...he wound up 5-0 with a 2.40 ERA in June, winning the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award...earned a spot on the All-Star Game roster, but did not pitch...he dropped 4 straight starts following the break, as the Mariners were outscored 19-2, including 3 straight shutouts.

1989—He began the year with Montreal going 0-4 with a 6.67 ERA in 7 games (6 starts), with the Expos scoring 7 runs in the 4 losses...was optioned to Indy (AAA) on May 9, then was included in trade with Seattle on May 25, joining the Mariners with pitchers Brian Holman and Gene Harris in exchange for pitcher Mark Langston and a player to be named (Mike Campbell)...made his Mariner debut on May 30 at Yankee Stadium, a 3-2 win.

1988—Spent the majority of the year with Indy...he was out of action from June 14-July 31 with a hairline fracture of the 5th metacarpal on his right hand...was named the #3 major league prospect in the American Association by Baseball America...was recalled by the Expos after the playoffs, and won big league debut on Sept. 15 vs. Pirates...he fanned 11 in first career complete game vs. Cubs on Sept. 20.

1987—Spent the season with Jacksonville, leading the Southern League in strikeouts...he was 6-0 with 65 K's and only 17 hits allowed in his first 8 starts, totaling 46.0 innings...he was the S.L. Player-of-the-Month in May and closed the year ranked by Baseball America as the #2 prospect in the league.

1986—At West Palm Beach, Randy caught the eye of Baseball America for the first of 3 straight years, earning #3 prospect status.

1985—Signed with the Expos as their second choice in the June draft and reported to Jamestown.

PERSONAL

Randall David (Randy) Johnson...he and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Tanner (4/5/96) and daughters, Samantha (12/28/94), Willow (4/23/98), and Alexandria (12/4/99)...Randy was a 1982 graduate of Livermore (CA) High School, where he tossed a perfect game in his final prep start...he then attended the University of Southern California on a baseball/basketball scholarship, but concentrated solely on baseball after his sophomore season...he had a college teammate who has also nabbed his share of headlines, teaming with Mark McGwire while with the Trojans...Johnson was originally drafted out of high school by the Atlanta Braves in the third round of the '82 June draft, but chose to attend USC...once an avid photographer, Randy had his work featured at Art Expo '90 in Los Angeles...following the 1990 season he made his first of two trips to Japan with fellow major leaguers, and combined with Angel southpaw Chuck Finley on a no-hitter on Nov. 11 in Tokyo...Randy has had his taste of Hollywood, making a cameo appearance in the baseball movie "Little Big League"...he is the only winner of the Warren Spahn Award, as the most outstanding lefthanded pitcher in the majors, attending the ceremony in Guthrie, OK, in each of the last 2 off seasons to receive a bronze statue of Spahn from the Hall of Fame lefthander...Randy's 2000 campaign also earned him the first-ever Leroy "Satchel" Paige Legacy Award, which will awarded annually to the major league "Pitcher-of-the-Year"...Randy was voted the Seattle Post-Intelligencer's Sports Star-of-the-Year for 1993...community minded when not on the hill, Randy's success has been felt in the Valley, donating over $70,000 to Diamondbacks Charities since joining Arizona in an effort to "Strikeout Homelessness"...R.J. has recorded a Public Service Announcement that is playing in area Harkins Theaters to raise public awareness to the homeless issue...he was the 1999 recipient of the Bronze Sierra from the Arizona Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation for his continued work with C.F., including his years in Seattle...Randy is also involved in the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Salvation Army...he and his family were invited to ring the bell to open the 2000 session of the Arizona House of Representatives in January...known to hit the links in the off-season, Randy teamed with Nick Price in the Phoenix Open Silver Pro-Am this past January...R.J. and Jesper Parnevik won the event in 2000...Randy also joined teammate Matt Williams in the Celebrity Skins Game and the putting contest, each of which benefitted area charities.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

The 2000 campaign was a tale of 2 seasons for the Korean-born hurler, his first full major league year of service...he produced "All-Star" caliber numbers over better than 3 months to open the year going 2-3 with 14 saves in 16 opportunities and a 1.82 ERA spanning 33 appearances...B.K. wasn't nearly as successful in his final 28 outings (1 start), going 4-3 with no saves in 4 opportunities with a 7.84 ERA...he finished the year with 111 strikeouts in 70.2 innings, a 14.1 strikeout per 9-inning ratio...overall, he held opposing batters to a very respectable .200 average...he tied a franchise record for most strikeouts in a game by a relief pitcher, fanning 5 in San Diego in 3.0 innings on April 11... Kim tied it again on June 11, getting 5 of the 6 hitters he faced in 2.0 frames against Anaheim...he set a club record by fanning 8 consecutive batters over 4 games from May 4-9, and 11 of 12 batters over a 5-game stretch...he later tied his own club mark with another 8 in a row from June 21-26, spanning 3 outings, recording saves in each of the last 2 games in that streak...Kim earned his first victory of the season on May 10 vs. the Dodgers, striking out the side in the ninth inning in relief of Randy Johnson...he earned saves in 6 consecutive opportunities from April 19-May 31 before allowing a pair of runs and absorbing a 7-6 loss in Texas on June 4...Kim was optioned to Tucson on July 30 after giving up 9 earned runs in 7.1 innings in late-July...he made 2 starts for Sidewinders in an attempt to regain his pre-All Star break form, pitching 8.1 innings and giving up just one hit while fanning 13...he was recalled by Diamondbacks on August 10...he allowed just 1 hit in his first 5 appearances (7.2 innings) after returning from Tucson, striking out 10...B.K. made first major league start on September 26 in Colorado allowing 4 earned runs in 2.1 innings of a no decision, surrendering a pair of 2-run homers, throwing 67 pitches in initial starting effort after 84 big league relief appearances...he iced a spot on the Opening Day roster in spring training by fanning 27 batters in only 12.2 innings pitched, with his strikeout total ranking third among National League spring leaders (behind starting pitchers Jose Lima-30 and Kevin Brown-28).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Byung-Hyun signed with Arizona in spring training, opening the year with El Paso...he made it look easy, going 2-0 with 32 K's in 21.1 innings, then went to Tucson (AAA), posting a 2-0 mark with 21 K's in 17.1 frames and was summoned to the majors...20 years old at the time of his recall, he was the youngest player in the majors, 6 months younger than Odalis Perez (6/7/78), and 10 months younger than Adrian Beltre (4/7/78)...B.K. made his big league debut in Shea Stadium on May 29, retiring the Mets in order in the ninth, ending the game with a strikeout of Mike Piazza to save the 8-7 Arizona win... Kim earned his first major league win on October 2 over San Diego, working 0.1 of an inning...he was disabled from August 2-September 7 with a neck strain. 1998—A member of the Korean National team he got his first taste of competition on U.S. soil performing against the U.S. Olympic team in Tucson in the summer of 1998, fanning 15 in 6.2 innings...he then accompanied the Korean National team to Italy for the World Championships, where they competed in the finals, once again facing the U.S. squad, earning a save with 3.0 innings of hitless relief to preserve a 3-1 Korean win...he was a member of the Gold Medal winning club in the Asian Games, a tournament that also included teams from Chinese Taipei and Japan... B.K. fanned 12 against China in the Asian Games, featuring a stretch of 8 consecutive K's...his work in the Asian Games earned him the opportunity to sign a baseball contract, receiving a deferment from any military commitment for the Korean government. 1997—He was the winning pitcher over the Cuban National Team in the Four Nations Invitational Games played in Osaka, Japan.

PERSONAL: Byung-Hyun Kim...he is single and makes his home in Gwangju, Korea...he graduated from Kwang-ju First High School in 1997, and at the time he signed he was a sophomore at Sungkyunkwan University in Seoul...he was named both the Most Valuable Player and Most Valuable Pitcher for the National High School Championships in Korea...he was selected a delegate to the Korea Junior National Team in 1996, then named to the National Team in both 1997 and 1998.

Danny Klassen

Infielder

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 190

B/T: R/R

Age: 25 (Turns 26 on September 22)

Born: September 22, 1975 in Leamington, ONT

Residence: Stuart, FL

M.L. Service: 1 years, 100 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Milwaukee Brewers as the fifth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

A middle infielder throughout his professional career, Danny made the big league club out of spring training after Matt Williams went down with a broken foot during the final week of exhibition games...Klassen made 20 starts at third base, including 10 prior to Williams' first return from the disabled list in late-May, committing only 2 errors when stationed at the hot corner...Danny began the year 5-for-10 in his first 3 starts, knocking in a pair of runs...included was a 2-hit effort in his first start on April 8 vs. the Pirates, then recorded another 2-hit game at home against Colorado 10 days later...he hit his lone big league homer of the year on May 5 in Bank One Ballpark off of San Diego's Sterling Hitchcock...he tacked on 2 more hits in his next start 4 days later against the Dodgers, including a double...he was optioned to Tucson (AAA) on May 23 when Williams returned to active duty, but was recalled 12 days later...he was with the big league club for only 3 days and was optioned back to AAA on June 8 when Travis Lee was activated from the disabled list...Danny returned to the Diamondbacks on June 25 when Williams was placed on the D.L. with a quadriceps strain...Klassen took over the starting third base chores on June 26, getting the nod in 10 of Arizona's next 12 games, but a baserunning injury on July 7 essentially ended his year...Danny suffered a strained flexor tendon in his right big toe while rounding second base in the seventh inning against the A's in Oakland and was sidelined for better than 2 months...once deemed ready to return to action the schedule had wound down and he appeared in just 4 games in September, starting twice at shortstop...prior to injuring his foot on July 7, he delivered Arizona's lone successful suicide squeeze bunt of the year driving in Danny Bautista in the 4th inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Danny had an injury-shortened campaign, spending better than 2 months of the season on the shelf with arthroscopic right knee surgery...his big league work was limited to one at bat, providing a pinch-hit single on September 9 in Milwaukee against the club that made him available in the expansion draft...he appeared in only 64 games for Tucson (AAA), with his best work coming early in the year, hitting .343 in April (24-for-70)...

he immediately went into a tailspin in May, batting just .202 (22-for-109), then was on the road to offensive recovery in June, hitting .385 (15-for-39) before being sidelined with the knee injury just 10 games into the month... Danny went on the disabled list on June 11 and didn't return to active duty until August 26. 1998—Danny had never played above AA until joining the D'Backs as an expansion pick...he spent the majority of '98 in Tucson (AAA), but did have a small dose of big league action, appearing in 29 games...he was recalled on July 4 and made his big league debut that night, going 0-for-1 with 3 walks and a run scored as the starting second baseman in a 7-4 win in the Astrodome...the 22-year old had an impressive Bank One Ballpark initiation, going 3-for-4 on July 10 vs. Cincinnati...included was his first major league hit, a single in the second off of Brett Tomko, then his first big league homer, a ninth inning, 2-run shot off of Danny Graves...Klassen reached base safely in 13 of his first 14 big league games, including a 7-game hitting streak from August 12-19... unfortunately, he couldn't keep up the pace, falling into an offensive rut, going 4-for-44 (.091) over a 12-game stretch before being optioned back to Tucson on August 9...as for his minor league work, he was successful at the plate, but his year ended abruptly with a left shoulder fracture just 2 games after returning from a month-long stint in the majors...his first taste of AAA action witnessed a .327 average through the month of May. 1997—The everyday shortstop at El Paso, his first exposure to AA, finishing with a .331 average, tops among all shortstops in AA or AAA in '97, and a 56-point increase over any previous minor league season...for his effort, he was named the Texas League "Star of Stars" by Howe Sportsdata...hit .511 through his first 13 games (23-for-45), including a pair of 4-hit games...did not go more than 2 consecutive games without a hit...scored at least once in 11 consecutive games from May 14-25, totaling 13 runs...finished the year with 47 multi-hit games, including 22 of 3 or more hits. 1996—Spent the entire season at Stockton (A), hitting .269 in 118 games...set a then-pro best with 22 doubles (surpassed with 30 in '97). 1995—His second straight year at Beloit, hitting .275 in 59 games. 1994—First full year with Beloit (A), established pro best with 28 stolen bases. 1993—Signed as an 18-year old and reported to Chandler (Rookie)...finished the season with Helena, but scuffled offensively, hitting .200.

PERSONAL

Daniel Victor (Danny) Klassen...he is single and resides in Stuart, FL, though like many of his teammates returned to the Valley in January to work out at Bank One Ballpark...Danny graduated from John Carroll High School in 1993, lettering for 4 seasons in baseball...he was named third team All-State for his junior year, then second team All-American and first team All-State as a senior...he was also selected to play on the USA Junior National South team...Klassen signed a letter of intent to play at Florida State University, but chose to sign as Milwaukee's second round pick...a native of Canada, Danny was born in Leamington, Ontario...he played in the Arizona Fall League with Scottsdale after the '98 regular season, but another shoulder injury brought his fall ball to an end...the AFL injury was not related to the shoulder fracture that ended his regular season...Klassen participated in both the 1999 and 2000 Diamondbacks Winter Tours.

Matt Mantei

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 200

B/T: R/R

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on July 7)

Born: July 7, 1973 in Tampa, FL

Residence: Pembroke Pines, FL

M.L. Service: 5 years, 131 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Florida Marlins in exchange for pitchers Vladimir Núñez and Brad Penny, and a player-to-be-named, July 9, 1999.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Matt's 2000 campaign was a tale of 2 seasons, opening the year slowly due to an early stint on the D.L., then finishing strong by earning saves in 15 of his last 16 chances...his year began on the 15-day disabled list with tendinitis in his right biceps and a return to the D.L. from May 5-20 with shoulder weakness...his injury troubles began in spring training with an ankle problem that hampered him throughout camp and eventually led to the biceps and shoulder ailments...he made 4 appearances between early-season D.L. stints, getting charged with a blown save on April 29 in Chicago, allowing a game-tying homer in the ninth inning, but winding up with the 7-4 victory when the D'Backs scored 3 times in the 10th...the "Iceman" finally recorded his first save of the year on May 25 vs. Pittsburgh...he was 1-1 with 2 saves in 4 chances after 19 outings, allowing 18 earned runs in just 16.2 innings for a 9.72 ERA, before turning his season around as the calendar went from June to July...beginning with a scoreless inning of relief at home against Cincinnati on July 2, Matt finished the year allowing just 5 earned runs in his last 28.2 innings for a 1.57 ERA in that span...he earned rescues in 15 of his last 16 opportunities, including 12 straight conversions from July 6-September 12...he tied Byung-Hyun Kim's record for consecutive strikeouts by fanning 8 straight batters over 3 appearances from July 27 to August 3...Mantei recorded saves on back-to-back days for the first time on August 13 at Pittsburgh and August 14 at Philadelphia...he finished the year by recording saves in 6 of his last 7 appearances, including 3 consecutive rescues to end the season...Matt retired the first batter he faced in 16 of his last 19 appearances after nabbing the initial hitter in just 16 of his first 29 outings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—A key acquisition two days prior to the All-Star break, Mantei was 22-for-25 in save situations after joining the D'Backs, fanning 49 in 29.0 innings for a 15.2 strikeout per 9-inning ratio...the trade was consummated with the Marlins on July 9, the same night that 15,000 pins were being distributed in Pro Player Stadium in honor of Mantei, but while fans were receiving his likeness on a pin, the Diamondbacks got the real thing...dubbed the Iceman during his stay in south Florida, Mantei recorded a save in his first appearance as a D'Back on July 11, working a scoreless ninth at home vs. Oakland...had a stretch of 12.0 consecutive scoreless innings from August 14-September 14, allowing 7 hits with 25 strikeouts...his 21 saves after the All-Star break tied John Rocker for the third most in the majors, trailing Mariano Rivera and Ugueth Urbina, who each had 22...Mantei recorded at least 1 strikeout in 28 of his 30 appearances with Arizona, including a streak of 19 consecutive outings from August 8-Sept. 28, totaling 34 K's in 17.1 innings...all 3 of his blown saves as a Diamondback came when attempting to closeout Randy Johnson starts...all told, he was 32-for-37 in save situations during the '99 season, rescuing 10 of 12 while a member of the Marlins...during his stint with the D'Backs, Matt held opposing lefthanded hitters to a .140 average, surrendering just 7 hits in 50 at bats...overall, opposing hitters finished with a composite .189 average against the Iceman, collecting 44 hits in 233 at bats. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Matt was called upon once in the post-season, working 2.0 innings in the fourth game of the series at Shea...he was saddled with the 4-3 setback, surrendering a 1-out homer to Todd Pratt in the 10th inning...it was the only hit that Mantei allowed, though he walked 3 (1 intentionally). 1998—Started the year with Charlotte (AAA), making 16 appearances before May 20 recall to the Marlins, appearing that night with an inning against the Diamondbacks...gave up only 1 earned run in first 11 outings after recall, spanning 14.0 innings (0.64 ERA)...led the Marlins with 9 saves, earning club Rolands Relief Man Award...earned first win on June 12 vs. the Mets...was disabled from August 19-September 4 with a right ankle sprain. 1997—Opened the year on the D.L. following off-season rotator cuff surgery...was transferred to the 60-day list on May 16...appeared in 9 minor league games as part of rehab work. 1996—Made the Marlins opening day roster and fanned 24 in his first 16.0 innings of year...earned first big league win on May 19 at Chicago, tossing a scoreless 10th inning...was optioned to AAA just 8 days later, then was recalled on June 21, but placed on the D.L. with a sore right shoulder. 1995—Was on the D.L. at the outset due to off-season back strain...activated on June 18 and made major league debut that day in Philly, working an inning with a walk...suffered first big league loss on July 6 at St. Louis. 1994—Spent entire season with Appleton in the Mariners chain, leading the club with 26 saves and 2.06 ERA...left unprotected by Seattle, he was acquired by Florida in the Rule 5 draft on December 5. 1993—Led the Northwest League with 12 saves for Bellingham...earned the save on August 16 by striking out the side in the ninth inning of a 1-0 win over Spokane in Bellingham's annual game in the Kingdom...was named the righthanded relief pitcher on the league's All-Star team and earned Rolands Relief Man-of-the-Year honors for the league...also named the ninth major league prospect by Baseball America.

PERSONAL: Matthew Bruce (Matt) Mantei...he and his wife, Erica, make their home in Pembroke Pines, FL...he graduated in 1991 from River Valley (Michigan) High School, earning All-State honors in baseball...he signed as Seattle's 25th round choice in the '91 June draft.

Damian Miller

26

Catcher

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 218

B/T: R/R

Age: 31 (Turns 32 on October 13)

Born: October 13, 1969 in La Cross, WI

Residence: La Cross, WI

M.L. Service: 3 years, 23 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Minnesota Twins as the tenth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Damian's busiest year as a major leaguer, establishing single-season career bests in games played (100), at bats (324), runs (43), hits (89) and doubles (24)...made 91 starts behind the plate before season came to a sudden halt when he sprained his right foot on September 21 in San Francisco with 11 games left on the campaign...it was the second straight year that a September 21 injury ended his season, as Damian suffered a hairline fracture near his right thumb on that date in 1999 at Colorado thus missing the final days of the regular season and Arizona's lone post-season experience...he made the first Opening Day start of his career vs. Philadelphia on April 4 and delivered Arizona's first runs of the season with a 3-run homer in a 6-4 victory...Damian was hitting .294 through his first 11 games of the year before being sidelined for 9 days with a left hamstring strain...caught fire after returning to action, hitting safely in 5 straight at a .400 clip (8-for-20) with 3 doubles, 3 homers and 8 RBI...included in the streak was a 2-homer, 5-RBI affair on May 9 vs. the Dodgers featuring a game-ending grand slam off of Orel Hersher to stake the Diamondbacks to an 11-7 win in 12 innings...the slam was the third of Miller's career, second as a Diamondback, while the 5 RBI established a career-best...he was the middle man in the franchise's first triple play on May 31, tagging out St. Louis' Placido Polanco trying to score from third base after Mark McGwire flied out to Steve Finley...Miller then relayed the ball to shortstop Tony Womack, who tagged out Edgar Renteria at third as he tried to advance from second...his best overall stretch was from July 3-August 26, hitting .312 (44-for-141) over 39 games, beginning with home runs in consecutive games at Houston on July 4-5, going a combined 5-for-9 with 2 doubles, the pair of homers and 4 RBI...also included in the 39-game stretch was his first career 4-hit game on August 16 in Philadelphia, featuring 3 singles, a double and 2 RBI, then drove in 4 runs vs. Chicago just 3 nights later at home, including a 3-run homer, his 10th and final blast of the season...his offensive numbers tailed off over final 16 games prior to season-ending injury, going just 6-for-40 (.150) to finish with overall .275 average...Damian threw out 31% of the potential base thieves (21-for-68)...included was a stretch from May 19-July 22 in which he nabbed 12 of 28 (43%).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Damian's first full season with a big league club he split the regular season catching chores with Kelly Stinnett...Miller's season came to an abrupt halt on Sept. 21 in Colorado when he blocked a pitch and suffered a hairline fracture near the thumb on his right hand, spoiling the night of his first career multi-homer game, taking Brian Bohanon deep twice in Arizona's 7-6 win...while healthy, Miller and Stinnett combined for 25 home runs and 88 RBI...Damian closed the campaign hitting .322 (28-for-87) over his last 25 games...included in the late-season run was his second career grand slam, putting the exclamation point on an 8-run ninth at Florida on August 26 off of southpaw Brent Billingsley...he etched his name in the record book for a rather obscure mark, tying a big league record on May 25 by throwing out 3 Padres on the back end of double plays, as they attempted running while Randy Johnson was on one of his strikeout binges...it was the first time in 68 years that a catcher had finished up a trio of "strike 'em out, throw 'em out" double plays, tying Shanty Hogan's mark set in 1931 with the New York Giants. 1998—Opened the year with Tucson (AAA), hitting safely in 15 of 18 games (.349), then was recalled to the D'Backs on May 6, remaining with the major league club for the duration...sharing the catching duties during the second half, Damian started 43 games behind the plate, while also displaying his versatility with brief appearances at first base and rightfield...he went 2-for-3 in his Arizona debut, kicking off a 3-game stretch in which he went 7-for-11...he had a successful return to his home state, as the LaCrosse, WI, native was 4-for-7 in a pair of games at County Stadium in Milwaukee, including a 3-for-3 tilt on August 2, including a walk and home run. 1997—Spent most of the year with Salt Lake, his third straight campaign at AAA, but earned a recall to the Twins in mid-August, appearing in 25 games...he hit his first major league homer on August 19 at Detroit off of Willie Blair...hit his first career grand slam on Sept. 22 off of Milwaukee's Jeff D'Amico. 1996—Led PCL catchers in chances (695) and assists (70), while nabbing 42% of potential base thieves (41-for-97). 1995—First year of AAA action, finished strong by hitting .349 in last 23 games...led PCL catchers in fielding with a .998 pct. 1994—First full year at Nashville, he began a trend of strong finishes, hitting .359 (28-for-78) in August...was third in the league in nailing base thieves at a 42% clip (49-for-116). 1993—Struggled offensively at Ft. Myers (A), but was promoted to Nashville for the final week. 1992—Earned a spot on the Midwest League All-Star team, hitting .292 for Kenosha (A)...finished eighth in the league in batting, while his .385 on-base pct. was 10th. 1991—Opened the year in extended spring, earning Twins' Minor League Player-of-the-Week honors for April 30-May 4, hitting .846 (11-for-13)...was sent to Kenosha on May 10, playing in 80 games. 1990—Signed as a 10th rounder in the June draft and homered with 3 RBI in pro debut on June 22 with Elizabethton...suffered a thumb injury in home plate collision on August 6, missing remainder of season.

PERSONAL

Damian Donald Miller...he and wife, Jeanne, and daughters, Josephine, (6/2/98) and Jesse (3/6/00) make their home in La Crosse, WI...Damian lettered in baseball, basketball and football at West Salem (WI) High School, graduating in 1987...he then attended Viterbo College in La Crosse, majoring in business, earning NAIA District 14 Player-of-the-Year honors while falling one game short of the NAIA World Series...while in college, he played for the La Crosse Angels summer team...spends a good portion of his off-season doing what most Wisconsin natives do, watching the Packers.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

The rubber-armed veteran shattered his career-best for appearances working 60 times for the Diamondbacks, 4 of which came as an emergency starter...Mike's previous career-high for appearances was 40 in 1989 with the Dodgers, working 19 times as a starter...he made his D'Back debut on April 5, working 4.0 shutout innings in relief of Todd Stottlenyire to pick up his first save since 1991, a span of 230 appearances between rescues...that appearance made him the 25th major leaguer (9th pitcher) to appear in 4 decades...at the same time, he set a record for any major sport by appearing with his 12th team...the "Mo-Man" earned saves in each of his first 3 appearances as a Diamondback, totaling 9.0 innings from April 5-13...he went 5-for-5 in save situations before getting his first start of the year on June 5 in Chicago working 4.2 innings of a contest that Arizona eventually dropped 4-3 in 10 innings...his 5 saves were 3 more than he had totaled in 71 relief appearances since first working out of the pen in 1982...he joined 4 other pitchers to record more saves after his 40th birthday than before (Woodie Fryman, Jim Kaat, Dave Stieb and Steve Carlton)...Mike recorded wins in consecutive appearances on June 21 & 25 vs. the Padres and Rockies, respectively...he tossed 3.0 shutout innings in 11-8 triumph over San Diego, then gave up a run over a 4.0-inning stint just 4 days later to post an 8-3 victory over Colorado...Morgan earned his fifth win of the season (all in relief) on August 13 at Pittsburgh working 2.2 innings and retiring 8 of the 10 batters he faced, striking out 3 as Arizona rallied for a 7-6 victory.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Though used predominately in relief last year, Mike still ranks seventh among active pitchers in career starts (410) and eighth in innings pitched (2700.1)...he is also the active leader in losses (185)...he didn't get his first taste of post-season action until the 1998 season, 20 years after he inked his first pro contract, working twice in relief in the Division Series for the Cubs...he is the only active player who appeared in a major league game in the 1978 season...Rickey Henderson, Jesse Orosco and Tim Lincecum all made their debuts in 1979...Morgan has defeated 28 of the 30 teams in the majors, the exceptions Tampa Bay, whom he has faced 3 times, and the Diamondbacks, whom he has never faced...has had the misfortune of 15 different visits to the D.L....a tribute to Mike's longevity, since his debut in June, 1978, 14 major league stadiums have closed and 18 (including the 1993 and 1998 expansion teams) have been opened.

1999—Mike registered the third highest win total of his career, going 13-10 for the Texas Rangers, the second highest total on the staff and the most he's recorded since winning 16 for the Cubs in 1992...when he appeared on Opening Day, Morgan became the first player from a major sports league to perform for 11 different teams, 1 more club than Bob Miller, Ken Brett and Tommy Davis appeared for during their respective careers in baseball, while the NBA and NFL marks are 10 and the NHL record is 9...he also set a major league record by collecting wins with 10 different clubs, winning with every team he pitched for except Toronto...he began in the pen, working 3 times then became the fifth starter on April 13 posting wins in first 3 starts...he was on the D.L. from May 24-June 8 with inflammation in his right leg...he went 6-2 through first 11 outings after returning from the injury, raising his season win total to 12, but he was able to record only 1 more win over the last 2 months...he fired the 46th complete game of his career on June 28 in Anaheim, losing a bid for a shutout on a Todd Greene homer with 2 out in the ninth...it was Mike's first route-going effort since Sept. 26, 1997, at Montreal...he became the 99th pitcher to start 400 games when he took the hill on July 29 in Baltimore...his win at Detroit on April 7 was first in relief since July 27, 1989, while pitching for the Dodgers...his April 13 victory at Seattle was his first win over the Mariners since August 4, 1979, snapping a drought of 19 years, 8 months and 9 days between victories vs. the M's, the longest dry spell in major league history for a pitcher between wins against one club...the previous mark was set by Cal McLish, who defeated Pittsburgh on May 31, 1944, with Brooklyn, then didn't beat them again until July 29, 1962, with the Phils, a span of 18 years, 1 month and 29 days between wins over the Pirates. 1998—Mike had a tough time recording decisions, making 23 appearances (22 starts) during stops with the Twins and Cubs, posting just a 4-3 overall record...opened the year with Minnesota, going 4-2 in 18 games (17 starts)...had a pair of stints on the D.L., suffering a rib cage injury that allowed only 7 days on the active roster between June 26-August 16...made his final start for the Twins on August 19, then was dealt to the Cubs on August 25, his second stint on the north side of Chicago...his lone decision after the trade was a 3-2 loss in St. Louis on Sept. 7, allowing 2 runs, including Mark McGwire's major league record tying 61st home run in the first inning. 1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: The only post-season work in Mike's career occurred in the Division Series with Chicago, his 21st season as a professional...he faced the Braves twice in relief, totaling 1.1 shutout innings. 1997—Led the Reds in starts and innings pitched...walked 2 or less in 23 starts, featuring a span of 26.2 straight innings without a walk from May 10-31...disabled from June 8-23 with strained rib cage muscle...lone complete game on September 26 at Montreal. 1996—Started on the St. Louis disabled list after off-season shoulder surgery, working in minor league rehab from April 20-May 15 before activation...went 4-8 through 18 starts before release on August 28...was signed by Cincinnati on Sept. 3, going 2-3 in 5 starts. 1995—Opened the year on the Cubs' D.L. with right shoulder inflammation and a rehab stint with Orlando...was activated on May 25, making 4 starts before being traded to St. Louis in Todd Zeile swap on June 16...worked 8.1 no-hit innings on July 3 vs. Montreal, finally surrendering an infield hit to Wil Cordero...was disabled from July 4-24 with a left hamstring strain...achieved milestones including 2000th inning (August 20 vs. Atlanta), 100th victory (August 25 at Colorado) and 1,000th strikeout (Sept. 9 vs. San Diego). 1994—Mo-Man was Chicago's Opening Day starter on April 4 vs. the Mets, but year began winless in 7 decisions through June 1...was disabled 3 times, May 9-27 (inflammation in right elbow), June 2-22 (migraine headaches) and July 28 through remainder of the season (back spasms). 1993—Led the Cubs in starts and innings, while ranking second on the club in strikeouts...he made his first career Opening Day start on April 5 vs. the Braves...was on the D.L. from June 14-29 with a capsular strain in his right knee...hurled last complete game shutout on July 15 vs. Colorado...doubled for his first career extra-base hit on August 25 at Montreal, snapping 311 plate appearance drought...Cubs averaged 1.7 runs in his 15 losses. 1992—Tied for third in N.L. with 16 wins, while his starts, innings and .667 winning pct. ranked fourth...earned N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for May, going 5-0 with a 2.32 ERA...had a career best 7-game winning streak from May 2-June 26. 1991—His last year with the Dodgers, Mike ranked third in the N.L. with 236.1 innings, while his 2.78 ERA was seventh best...he opened the year without allowing an earned run through first 19.0 innings (April 14-24)...earned N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors for June 17-23...recorded last big league save on July 7 vs. Atlanta...pitched a scoreless inning in his lone All-Star Game appearance at Toronto...Morgan was a complete game 2-0 loser in Dennis Martinez' perfect game on July 28 vs. Montreal. 1990—Tied for the league lead with 4 shutouts...opened the year 4-1 with a 1.40 ERA. 1989—Set then personal bests in games and relief appearances (21) with the Dodgers, while posting a career low ERA...went 6-11 with a solid 2.74 ERA in 19 starts, with L.A. averaging just 1.45 runs in his 11 losses...recorded 2 of his 3 career 9-K games. 1988—Mike was 0-6 in 10 starts for the Orioles, while winning his lone decision in relief...was disabled with right calf strain (June 9-July 19), then missed remainder of year after suffering bone chips in his right big toe on August 12...surgery was performed on August 18 to repair abnormal bone growth in right foot. 1987—His third season with the Mariners, averaged just 2.3 walks per 9-innings. 1986—Finished second on the Mariners' staff with 9 complete games, but his 17 losses tied for the A.L. lead...earned his first big league save on April 15 at California. 1985—Opened year in Seattle's rotation, but suffered severely pulled right groin in second start on April 16 at Oakland, missing remainder of the year. 1984—Spent year at Syracuse (AAA), leading the International League in innings and tying for the top spot in shutouts. 1983—Went 0-2 in 4 starts and 0-1 in 12 relief appearances for Toronto...was disabled (July 2-August 23) with right shoulder tendinitis. 1982—Lone year with the Yankees, made his first big league relief appearance on May 14 in Oakland, the site of his major league debut 4 years earlier. 1978—Made big league debut a week after graduating from high school, losing a 3-0 decision to Baltimore on June 11 in Oakland...lost his next 2 starts and was optioned to Vancouver on June 23 for the remainder of the year.

Wt: 183

B/T: R/R

Age: 23

Born: January 30, 1978 in Orange, TX

Residence: Orange, TX

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent on November 7, 1996...originally selected by Montreal Expos in first round (fifth overall) of June, 1996, draft, but was declared a free agent.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

John missed the majority of the season with elbow surgery...he opened the year on the disabled list due to a right elbow strain, not making his debut until April 25 with 5.0 innings of relief in a no decision vs. Tacoma...he followed with a pair of losses as a starter, then was shelved on May 6 for the remainder of the year...he was operated on by Dr. James Andrews on May 25 in Birmingham, AL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—John opened the year with El Paso (AA), making 18 starts for the Diablos before his season was interrupted with the excitement of pitching for the U.S. in the Pan American Games...he was an integral part of Team USA that qualified for the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia, by earning a silver medal...he made a pair of starts in Winnipeg, including the opener against the host country, working 5.0 innings allowing 2 runs on 4 hits with no walks and 5 K's...he was not involved in the decision, an eventual 7-6 Canada win in 11 innings...he followed that with a most impressive win over Panama in the quarterfinals, working 5.2 innings of no-hit ball, finishing with an 8-inning stint, allowing 2 hits and 2 unearned runs, with no walks and 7 strikeouts...all told, Patterson posted a 1.38 ERA finishing with 13.0 innings allowing 6 hits and 4 runs (2 earned), with no walks and 12 K's...upon returning from international action, he finished the year with Tucson, his first taste of AAA...with El Paso he opened up going 0-3 in 5 starts before posting a win on May 7 that began an 8-3 stretch prior to his Pan Am departure...he was the Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Week for June 7-13, then was tabbed organizational Pitcher-of-the-Month for June...he finished at AA with 117 K's in 100.0 innings, leading T.L. starters with a 10.53 strikeouts per 9-inning ratio...after a 3-week stint with the Pan Am team, John returned to the organization and made his debut in AAA on August 5...he was 0-4 through 5 starts for the Sidewinders before knocking off Colorado Springs in his next-to-last start on August 31. 1998—His second year as a professional, John led the California League in ERA and ranked fourth in strikeouts...he also had the lowest opponents' batting average (.217) of any starting pitcher in the league...had 80 K's and 15 walks after June 2...his efforts were rewarded by a Baseball America poll of managers, naming Patterson the second best prospect in the California League. 1997—Spent his first pro season at South Bend (Class A Midwest League) where he was much better than his 1-9 record indicated...produced a solid 3.23 ERA and fanned 95 batters in 78.0 innings (10.96 per nine innings).

PERSONAL

John Hollis Patterson...he is single and resides in Houston, TX...as a senior at West Orange-Stark High School in Orange, TX, he was named to USA Today's prep All-America squad with a 7-2 record and a 0.77 ERA in 72.1 innings, fanning 142...John had a full year in 1999, not only making 2 minor league stops and a stint with the Pan Am team, but he also made 8 starts for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League.

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 185

B/T: R/R

Age: 23 (Turns 24 on June 15)

Born: June 15, 1977 in Chicago Heights, IL

Residence: Peoria, AZ

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as Arizona's 18th round selection in the 1998 June Free Agent Draft.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

At the urging of the minor league coaching staff, Bret made an adjustment to his delivery in spring training that turned him into one of the most dominant closers in the minors...he changed from a conventional delivery to sidearm, where he continued to throw hard and with amazing control...Prinz opened the season at South Bend (A), but after 6 appearances in which he didn't allow an earned run, then was promoted to El Paso on April 25 and reeled off 5 saves in as many appearances from April 30-May 9...he allowed just 1 earned run in his first 9 outings for the Diablos, spanning 11.2 innings for a 0.77 ERA...Bret wound up finishing second in the Texas League with 26 saves, while walking just 16 men and fanning 69 in 60.2 innings, while earning the Texas League Rolands Relief Man Award with 94 points (9-1 record with 26 saves)...combined with his brief stint with South Bend, his 99 overall points were fourth among all minor leaguers...he was a member of the Texas League All-Star team in the Tex/Mex All-Star series...his arrival jumpstarted El Paso's run that led to a playoff berth, as the Diablos were just 7-12 prior to his arrival, but went 67-54 after Prinz came on board, as he figured in 35 of the wins...he appeared 3 times in the playoff series against Round Rock, going 0-1 with a save...while at South Bend, Bret combined with 3 other hurlers on a no-hitter at Peoria on April 21.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Was employed mainly as a starter in his first full season pro stop, going 6-10 for South Bend (A) in 30 games (23 starts)...tied for fifth in the Midwest League with 16 home runs allowed. 1998—Signed with the Diamondbacks as their 18th round choice in the June draft, making 4 relief appearances for the Rookie League club in Tucson, then going to Lethbridge for the remainder of the year...worked 11 times for Lethbridge, featuring 10 starts.

PERSONAL

Bret Randolph Prinz...he is single and makes his home in Peoria, AZ...Bret was a 1996 graduate of Centennial High School in Peoria, then attended Phoenix College for two years before being drafted by the D'Backs...he was a member of the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League after the 2000 regular season, going 2-1 with a 5.28 ERA in 15 games, tying for second in the league with 4 saves.

Interleague 2001 Sports a Twist

Arizona's work against the American League will take on a different look during the 2001 season, as the club will take on Central Division clubs Kansas City and Detroit. The change was made to accommodate major league baseball's effort to allow natural rivalries to continue to do battle, and since it was determined the Diamondbacks have not established a common opponent in the American League, the Texas Rangers were dropped from Arizona's schedule.

The D'Backs will host the Tigers in a three-game series at Bank One Ballpark on the weekend of June 15-17, while traveling to Kauffman Stadium in Kansas City the week before for a three-game set on June 8-10.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Armando posted his second consecutive double-digit victory season as a Diamondback, going 11-12 in 31 games (30 starts)...his 170.2 innings marked the second highest workload for the veteran hurler, trailing only the 189.0 innings he recorded in 1993 with Colorado, his first full season in the majors...he held the opposition to 3 earned runs or less in 21 of his 30 starts, but was roughed up for 5 earned runs or more in his other 9 starts...in the 21 games in which the opponent was limited to 3 or fewer earned runs, Armando was 11-5 with a 2.50 ERA (39 earned runs in 140.1 innings), while in the other 9 starts the opposition put 59 earned runs on the board in just 29.1 innings, an 18.10 ERA, while he went 0-7...Armando's season started with a pair of losses then he snapped the drought with a 7-1 win over the Rockies on April 18 at home, allowing a run on 3 hits in 8.0 innings...his most consistent work took place from August 1-16, a 4-start stretch in which he went 3-0 allowing 7 earned runs in 28.1 innings, a 2.22 ERA...the stretch began with a no decision at home against Atlanta, followed by consecutive wins against the Mets in B.O.B. and at Pittsburgh and at Philly...the wins in Pennsylvania were mirror-images allowing a run on 4 hits over 7.0 innings in a 6-1 victory over the Pirates on August 11, followed by a 5-1 win at The Vet on August 16, giving up a run on 6 hits in a 7.1-inning stint, while fanning a season-high 7...he finished the year on a high note snapping a career-high 5-game losing streak with a complete game victory in Denver on September 28, just hours after learning about the birth of his third child, Jesus...Armando arrived at Coors Field three hours before game time and learned that his wife Yolanda had entered a Phoenix hospital in labor...though tempted to return to the Valley for the child's birth, Jesus arrived a couple of hours before the scheduled first pitch and Armando chose to stay and make his final start of the year...he went the distance for the second time in 2000, allowing 3 runs on 7 hits in a 12-3 victory...his other complete game was a 6-1 win at home over the Rangers on July 14, a 6-hitter in which he walked none and fanned 5, his first complete game since June 5, 1997...Armando posted a better record in Bank One Ballpark, going 7-4, compared to a 4-8 road ledger...his other statistics were identical, tossing 85.1 innings with 50 earned runs and a 5.27 ERA both at home and on the road.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—His first year with Arizona, he won 10 games for the division champs...Armando suffered an 11-0 loss in Houston on April 27, but it was his last defeat for nearly 3 1/2 months, posting a club record 7-game winning streak that spanned 17 starts...the streak was highlighted by 8.0 scoreless innings in San Diego on July 26, allowing 5 hits in a 2-0 victory...the winning streak was halted with a 4-2 loss at home vs. Milwaukee on August 14, before posting 2 more wins, giving him a 9-1 mark from May 2-August 28. 1998—A member of the Mets, his season opened on the D.L. as he continued to recover from a pair of arthroscopic procedures that were performed on August 18, 1997...the first was to remove bone chips from his right elbow, while the other was to debride the rotator cuff and labrum, both of which were partially torn...the surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL, the same surgeon who worked on Reynoso's elbow in 1994...after 7 minor league rehab starts, he finally took a big league mound on July 24 at Wrigley Field, his first start in the majors in a year and 8 days, and answered any questions regarding his health, winning a 5-0 decision with 8.0 innings of 5-hit ball...that win ignited a 5-game winning streak in which he posted a 1.54 ERA (6 earned runs in 35.0 innings)...he wound up going 7-1 through his first 8 starts. 1997—Armando made 16 starts for the Mets, his first year with the New Yorkers after a 4-year stint with Colorado...he was 6-3 before tendinitis struck his right shoulder during a July 16 start at Shea vs. the Cubs, his final appearance of the season...he underwent a pair of arthroscopic procedures by Dr. Andrews (August 28)...while healthy, Reynoso tossed the first shutout of his career, a 6-0 decision over the Marlins on June 5 at Shea, a 5-hitter, his first complete game since May 3, 1994...he no-hit his former mates from Colorado for 6.2 innings on May 19 in New York, before a Jeff Reed homer spoiled the no-no bid...Reynoso hit his third (and most recent) career homer, a solo shot off of Houston's Mike Hampton on May 13. 1996—His final year with the Rockies, as he was dealt to the Mets on November 27 in exchange for reliever Jerry Dipoto...Armando tied a career best with 30 starts, while helping his cause with 8 pickoffs, featuring a trio of games with 2 picks. 1995—Didn't get to work in the majors until June 18 relief appearance vs. the Braves, missing the first 2 1/2 months while recuperating from elbow surgery the previous May...made first start on June 22, winning a 3-2 decision at San Diego, working 5.0 innings, his first win in the majors in 57 weeks (May 15, 1994)...still picked off 7 runners during abbreviated campaign. 1994—Was Colorado's Opening Day starter, working 6.0 innings in a no decision at home vs. the Phillies...he made just 9 starts until undergoing surgery on May 26, when Dr. James Andrews transplanted a ligament from Armando's left wrist into his right elbow, strengthening the injured area...Reynoso also had his right knee arthroscopically repaired at that time by Dr. Andrews... despite the shortened year, Armando recorded 5 pickoffs. 1993—Though he did not make the 25-man club out of spring training, he ended up Colorado's Pitcher-of-the-Year, falling one victory short of the then-expansion record of 13, finishing 12-11...was recalled from Colorado Springs (AAA) on April 30, making Rockies' debut that night in Florida, going the distance in a 6-2 win over the Marlins...he twice fanned a career-best 8 men, each coming in complete games (May 10 and June 26 vs. the Giants)...11 of his 12 wins came after Colorado losses...he was 7-3 in 11 starts at Mile High Stadium...his 8 pickoffs were the most by an N.L. righthander...first major league hit was a home run in Mile High off of SF's Trevor Wilson (May 10)...his second home run was a 3-run shot at Shea off the Mets' Bobby J. Jones on August 28, leading to a 7-5 win. 1992—Spent the majority of the year with Richmond (AAA), finishing second in the International League in ERA, while tying for second in complete games...was promoted to Atlanta in September, earning his lone career big league save on October 3 vs. San Diego...was unprotected in the off-season and selected in the third round of the expansion draft by Colorado. 1991—Tied for the I.L. lead in shutouts, while earning a spot in the AAA All-Star Game...had his contract purchased by Atlanta on August 8 and won major league debut on August 11 with 6.0 shutout innings vs. Houston, allowing 2 hits...followed with a win in his second start, August 16 at San Diego, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...had 6 pickoffs over a 4-start stretch (August 16-31), 5 of which came in the first inning. 1990—Went 20-3 with a 2.60 ERA in 27 starts for Saltillo in the Mexican League, featuring 12 complete games and 5 shutouts... included was a 7-inning no hitter vs. Monterrey...Reynoso signed with Atlanta on August 15 and made 4 appearances for Richmond.

PERSONAL

Martin Armando Reynoso (Gutierrez)...he and his wife, Yolanda, and daughter, Alejandra (11/3/89), and sons, J. Armando (3/16/93) and Jesus (9/28/00) make their home in Chandler, AZ...Armando graduated in 1984 from Escuela Secundaria Mista del Estado in his native Jalisco, Mexico...after participating in semi-pro ball in Mexico, he signed as a free agent with Saltillo in 1988, where he was 44-23 with 29 complete games until signing with the Braves in 1990.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 26th round selection in the 1996 June free agent draft.2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Rob spent the first 3 months of the year with Tucson before his contract was purchased by the big league club on July 7...he joined the D'Backs in Oakland and started consecutive games, going a combined 2-for-6...he was the starting designated hitter on the night of his arrival, collecting a hit, then on July 8 he opened the sixth inning with a triple off of Oakland's Kevin Appier, the first Arizona baserunner after Appier had retired 15 straight to begin the game...he was optioned to AAA on July 13, then recalled by the Diamondbacks exactly 2 weeks later on July 27...he served strictly in a pinch-hit role during his second stint, going 2-for-7 with a double and RBI...he was optioned again on August 9 playing the final 3 weeks of the Tucson season before rejoining the Diamondbacks for the last month of the season...was employed mainly as a pinch hitter over the final month, finishing the year a respectable 6-for-19 (.316) in that role...included was a ninth inning game-winning pinch single to center off of Los Angeles' Terry Adams on September 13, staking Arizona to a 3-2 walk-off victory...combined his 3 different stints in AAA to hit .307, leading the club with 45 walks in just 92 games...opened the year hitting safely in 16 of 18 games at a .360 clip...included was a stretch of scoring at least once in 9 consecutive games (April 18-28)...had a 6-RBI game on May 18 in the second game of a doubleheader at Calgary...just 3 days before his second recall to the majors, Rob went 5-for-5 in Memphis.

Born: November 14, 1979 in Cotui, DR

Residence: Cotui, DR

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a non-drafted free agent, October 16, 1996.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Duaner made a solid impression in his first year at South Bend, leading all Diamondback minor leaguers in starts (28), complete games (4) and innings pitched (165.1)...his start total also topped the Midwest League charts, while he finished fourth in the loop in innings...he held the opposition to 2 earned runs or less in 18 of his 28 starts, including 13 of his first 19 outings...tossed a 4-hit, 7-inning complete game on June 6 vs. Michigan...that outing was the fourth of a 5-start stretch in which he allowed just 5 earned runs over 34.1 innings for a 1.31 ERA from May 21-June 11...the streak climaxed with a complete game 12-1 victory at home over Dayton, facing just 2 batters over the minimum for his second straight route-going effort...the June 6 victory over Michigan also started another streak in which Duaner was involved in 8 consecutive decisions, going 6-2 with a combined 3.40 ERA...his fourth complete game of the year fell during that stretch, a 4-hit, 4-1 win at home over Lansing, his second straight outing without issuing a walk...he gave up just 6 home runs in 165.1 innings, a 1 in every 27.2-inning ratio...in 353.0 minor league innings, Sanchez has surrendered just 14 home runs, a 1 in 25.1-inning ratio.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Opened the year with High Desert, his first professional experience on U.S. soil after spending 2 seasons with Boca Chica in the Dominican Summer League...after making 3 starts without a decision for the Mavericks he was moved to Missoula (Rookie-Short Season)...he finished fourth in the Pioneer League with a 3.13 ERA, while limiting opposing hitters to a collective .210 average, the fifth best mark in the loop...he was the league Pitcher-of-the-Week for June 21-27. 1997—Duaner signed with the Diamondbacks in the fall of '96 and as a 17-year old made his pro debut with Boca Chica, his first of 2 seasons with Arizona's Dominican Summer League entry...he worked mainly in relief, appearing in 21 games (6 starts), going 4-4 with a save. 1998—He made only 14 appearances for Boca Chica, 8 of which were starts, going 2-3 with a sparkling 1.79 ERA...he did not allow a home run in 50.1 innings of work.

PERSONAL

Duaner Sanchez...he is single and makes his home in Cotui, Dominican Republic, where he graduated from Francisco H. Carvajal High School in 1996...he was signed as a 16-year old by the Diamondbacks' Junior Noboa, who directs the organization's Latin American effort and currently heads up the Dominican baseball academy.

Reggie Sanders

Outfielder

16

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 205

B/T: R/R

Age: 33 (Turns 34 on December 1)

Born: December 1, 1967 in Florence, SC

Residence: Atlanta, GA

M.L. Service: 9 years, 46 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, January 11, 2001.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Reggie's lone season with Atlanta was a frustrating injury-riddled campaign with the Eastern Division champs...acquired the winter before from San Diego in 6-player swap, he hit a career-low .232, twice going on the shelf due to injury...when healthy he endured a 5-month slump that witnessed a .190 average until snapping out of the drought to provide Atlanta with a .345 average (30-for-87) during the all-important September run, featuring 11 doubles, 5 homers, 18 RBI, 8 stolen bases and a .412 on-base pct...the injury bug first bit on April 29 when Reggie suffered a left ankle sprain against his former club in San Diego...he was on the disabled list until May 23, then incurred a strained left hamstring in late-July that sidelined him until August 15...he seemed to locate the missing stroke after returning from the latter injury, hitting .310 (35-for-113) for the remainder of the year...his strong September included what will hopefully be a prelude to his new home, hitting a pair of home runs against the Diamondbacks on September 18 in B.O.B., the 10th multi-homer game of his career...Reggie tied a career-high with 6 RBI on September 23 at Montreal, his third career game driving in a half dozen...he swiped his 20th base of the year on September 29, his seventh career 20-steal season, and that theft gave the Braves 4 players with at least 20 thefts, the first time they accomplished that since the 1982 club... Sanders was coming off a 26-homer year in 1999, but didn't hit his first of 11 in 2000 until June 4 against the Yankees.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Reggie led the Padres in home runs (28), extra-base hits (57), stolen bases (36) and at bats (478), while his .578 slugging pct. tied Phil Nevin for the top spot...from May 3-August 31, Sanders batted .313 with 18 home runs, 51 RBI and 24 stolen bases in an 87-game stretch...he had a career-high 4 stolen bases on April 25 vs. the Diamondbacks...recorded the 150th home run of his career on September 20 off of Cincy's Denny Neagle... Reggie was named the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for June 28-July 4, hitting .447 with 3 doubles, 2 triples, 4 home runs and 3 thefts in just 8 games...had a pair of multi-homer games to raise his career total to 9, going deep twice against the D'Backs (April 24) and Dodgers (June 30)...scored at least once in 11 consecutive games (17 total runs) from June 28-July 7...like a lot of N.L. hitters, he enjoyed a 4-game visit to Colorado on July 2-4, going 11-for-20 (.550) with 3 doubles, a triple, 2 homers, 4 RBI and 8 runs scored. 1998—Reggie climaxed an 11-year stay in the Cincinnati organization, the last 7+ with the big league club...he was employed in the leadoff spot 86 times, all coming after May 24, hitting .284 from the top of the order...had the first 3 game-opening home runs of his career: June 1 at San Francisco (Mark Gardner), June 13 vs. Houston (Shane Reynolds) and July 10 at Arizona (Andy Benes)...twice missed work due to collisions with outfield walls, hyperextending his lower back and missing 5 games from April 28-May 3 for hitting wall in Cincy, then missing 3 games in mid-September after crashing into the bricks of Wrigley...tied a personal best with 4 runs scored on August 16 vs. the Expos, the second 4-run effort of his career. 1997—Finished second on the Reds in home runs (19), RBI (56) and slugging pct. (.510) despite missing 66 games with a pair of stints on the D.L...prior to going on the shelf, he tied a personal best with 6 RBI on April 4 at Florida...Reggie was out from April 19-May 15 with a bulging disc in his back, then missed from May 24-July 21 with a severe medial sprain of his right ankle and bruise of the tibia below his right knee...was activated on July 22 and contributed a pair of home runs that night against Florida, the second homer accounting for the 100th of his career (Felix Heredia)...he homered in 3 straight games for the first time in his career on August 1-3, then trumped that by going deep in 4 in a row from August 24-27. 1996—Reggie had his season cut in half due to 3 stints on the D.L., playing in just 81 games...he suffered an injured disc in his lower back on April 12 when he dove for a line drive hit by Derek Bell...he was placed on the D.L. on April 19 and did not return until May 22...had a 4-game rehab in AAA, then returned to the shelf on May 31 with a strained rib cage muscle...he tied a career-best with 4 hits on June 20 at New York, then 2 days later became the first Red to execute a straight steal of home in 2 years...injured his right thumb on a dive into second base on August 25 at Florida, and was diagnosed with a second-degree ligament sprain essentially ending his season. 1995—His best season as a major leaguer, earning a trip to the All-Star Game in Arlington and finishing sixth in the N.L. MVP balloting...set career bests in hitting (.306), home runs (28), RBI (99) and stolen bases (36)...he was named the mid-season N.L. MVP by Baseball America after hitting .311 with 15 homers and 56 RBI prior to the break...overall he finished tied for third in the league in extra-base hits (70), fourth in slugging (.579) and doubles (36), tied for fourth in stolen bases and ranked seventh in on-base pct. (.397)...he hit the Reds' first inside-the-park home run since 1987 on April 29 at San Diego, just the 10th ever hit in Mission Valley...Reggie batted .429 (21-for-49) during a 13-game hitting streak from May 23-June 6...included during that streak was an N.L. Player-of-the-Week honor for May 29-June 4, hitting .435 with 11 RBI...he delivered his second career "red seat" homer in the upper reaches of Riverfront Stadium on June 18 off of Montreal's Carlos Perez...established a career-best with 6 RBI on August 25 at Pittsburgh featuring a double and 2 home runs...he hit 3 homers in a game for the first time on August 15 vs. Colorado. 1995 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Had a tough first experience of post-season play, hitting just .154 (2-for-13) with a home run and 2 RBI in Cincy's Division Series sweep of the Dodgers, but struggled to a .125 mark (2-for-16) vs. the Braves in the NLCS. 1994—Recorded a career-high 8 triples, while ranking second in the N.L. with 12 outfield assists in the strike-shortened campaign...season started quick offensively going 6-for-10 in the first 3 games featuring a pair of homers...was suspended for 5 games after charging Pedro Martinez on April 13 in Montreal...had a 2-homer tilt on May 31 vs. the Expos...became the sixth Red to homer into the upper deck (red seats) at Riverfront Stadium with a July 15 blast off the Cubs' Willie Banks, the 16th overall ball to land upstairs. 1993—Had his first career 20-20 season, hitting 20 home runs and pilfering 27 bags in a career-best 138 games...Reggie led the Reds in batting (.274), runs (90), RBI (83) and thefts...he batted .310 against lefties, but hit 14 of his 20 blasts against righties. 1992—His first full major league season, Reggie led all rookies in slugging (.462) and on-base pct. (.356), earning a spot on the Topps All-Rookie team...he was Cincy's Opening Day center-fielder and batted .315 in April...recorded his first career 4-hit game on May 4 at Pittsburgh...was hitting .330 when he landed on the D.L. with a sore left hamstring on May 13...he was activated on May 30, but returned to the shelf on July 17 after sustaining a bruised right rib cage the day before when he collided with Cardinals' catcher Tom Pagnozzi when trying to turn a triple into an inside-the-park homer...upon returning he hit 6 home runs in a 13-game stretch from August 6-19, including 4 home runs in 5 games (August 15-19)...homered twice off of San Diego's Craig Lefferts on August 15 for first career multi-homer game. 1991—Began the season at Chattanooga (AA) and finished the year with his first major league stint...earned the #2 prospect label in the Southern League from Baseball America, hitting batted .315 in 86 games at Chattanooga...selected to the post-season All-Star team and the AA All-Star team by Baseball America...was promoted to Cincinnati on August 22, debuting that night in centerfield at Riverfront Stadium...collected his first big league hit the following night off the Mets' Frank Viola...he suffered a separated shoulder in that same game and was disabled from August 24-September 19...recorded his first major league home run on September 26 in Atlanta off of current Arizona teammate Armando Reynoso. 1990—Made the move from shortstop to centerfield and earned Midwest League MVP honors while playing at Cedar Rapids (A)...he was named the league's top prospect, most exciting player and best defensive outfielder by the league managers in Baseball America's Tools of the Trade voting...he was also selected to the league's post-season All-Star team and to the Baseball America and Topps Single-A All-Star team. 1989—Despite playing only half the season for Greensboro (A), Reggie was named to the South Atlantic League's post-season All-Star team...he suffered a season-ending fracture and dislocation of his right ankle in mid-July, leading the club in hits, doubles, triples, runs, steals and slugging at the time of the injury...he was named the MVP of the SAL All-Star Game collecting 4 hits, featuring a double and 2 triples. 1988—Reggie's first year as a pro, he was limited to 17 games at Billings due to a shoulder injury.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Philadelphia Phillies in exchange for pitchers Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla, and infielder/outfielder Travis Lee on July 26, 2000.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Curt's season began on Philadelphia's disabled list as he recovered from off-season arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder, then ended up in his old hometown of Phoenix, acquired by the Diamondbacks in a July 26 swap that sent Travis Lee, Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla to the Phils...after a rehab stint in the Phils' minor league system, Curt made his 2000 big league debut on April 30, losing a 4-3 decision at The Vet to the Cardinals...he evened his record with a complete game 6-0 win in Atlanta on May 6, scattering 11 hits and a walk with 9 K's, his first of 2 route-going shutouts over the Braves in 2000...the win was also the 100th of his major league career...unfortunately, the shutout was his only win in his first 5 decisions, posting a 6.34 ERA through 8 starts...as the repaired shoulder strengthened his numbers improved, as he went 5-2 with a 2.00 ERA in his last 8 starts for the Phillies...he completed his work as a Phil with a 4-1 complete game win in Pittsburgh on July 23, tossing a 3-hitter...it was his second complete game in 3 starts and occurred in a stretch in which he went the distance in 6 of 9 starts, 4 of them taking place as a Diamondback...the trade took place while the club was in St. Louis and Schilling in Philly, thus he met his new teammates just hours before taking the mound in Florida for his first start with Arizona...his D'Back debut on July 28 in Pro Player Stadium was a success scattering 6 hits over 8.0 innings in a 4-1 victory over the Marlins...Schill escaped a bases loaded situation in the fifth inning with a strikeout of Preston Wilson then retired 10 of the last 11 batters he faced...he joined Geraldo Guzman as the only pitchers to win their first 2 Diamondback starts when he won a 2-0 complete game decision over the Braves and Greg Maddux...Schilling tossed a 6-hitter while fanning 4, his second complete game shutout over Atlanta of the year...he followed the win over Atlanta with a complete game 5-2 victory at home over Montreal...Curt had a season-high 4-game winning streak snapped with a 9-6 loss in Pittsburgh on August 12, but rebounded 6 nights later with his seventh route-going effort of the year and sixth in his last 9 starts by defeating the Cubs, 11-2...Schilling set a personal high as a Diamondback with 10 K's against the Cubs, with 81 of his 102 pitches on the night going for strikes...the win over Chicago climaxed an 11-start stretch in which Schilling went 8-3 with a 1.90 ERA, giving up just 19 earned runs over 90.0 innings...it was also his last victory until his next-to-last start of the year on September 22 in San Francisco, going 0-5 in a 6-start stretch...the drought was halted with a complete game 7-1 win over the Giants in Pacific Bell Park, matching his D'Back high with 10 K's...he was involved in the decision in 17 of his last 19 starts, including 15 consecutive decisions from June 27-September 7, going 8-7.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Curt missed virtually the last 2 months of the season, yet still managed to finish second in the N.L. in complete games (8), fifth in winning pct. (.714) and opponents batting average (.237), seventh in ERA (3.54), eighth in fewest walks per 9-innings (2.2) and 10th in strikeouts per 9-innings (7.6)...he led the Phillies in complete games, strikeouts (152), tied for first in wins (15) and ranked second in innings (180.1)...all of this despite making just 5 starts after the All-Star break...he was the Opening Day starter for the fifth time as a Phillie and his third straight assignment, the most by a Philly righthander since Robin Roberts started 12 in a row (1950-61)...Curt won 13 games prior to the All-Star break, the most by a Philly hurler since Steve Carlton won 14 in that span in 1980...Schilling's first half was culminated by earning the starting role for the All-Star Game in Fenway Park, his third consecutive All-Star selection and the fifth Phillie to start the Midsummer Classic (Terry Mulholland, Steve Carlton, Curt Simmons and Robin Roberts)...his first half of work featured a career-best 5 consecutive complete games (May 7-29), joining Tommy Greene (Philly-1993) and Pat Hentgen (Toronto-1996) as the only pitchers in the 90's to accomplish the feat...he was rewarded with N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for May...he recorded the 1,500th strikeout of his career on June 3 getting the Giants' Rich Aurilia...the second half started with a complete game win over Tampa Bay, then things went south...Curt missed a start on July 28 vs. Florida with tendinitis in his right biceps, his first missed start since May 14, 1996, a streak of 117 consecutive starts...he returned to work on August 7, suffering an 8-2 loss to the D'Backs, then went on the D.L. with inflammation in his right shoulder...he was activated on September 3, winning that day over Cincinnati, 10-2, but then made what wound up his final start of the year, losing a 10-2 decision to Houston on September 8, fanning just 1 in the game, his lowest strikeout total since April 24, 1994...he was shut down for the remainder of the season and eventually had an anterior thermal capsular reduction and posterior capsule release on his right shoulder by Dr. Craig Morgan on December 13. 1998—Curt led the majors in complete games (15) and innings pitched (268.2), while topping the N.L. charts in strikeouts (300) and tying for the top spot in starts (35)...at the time he was just the fifth pitcher in major league history to fan 300 in back-to-back seasons joining J.R. Richard, Nolan Ryan, Sandy Koufax and Rube Waddell (Randy Johnson has since fanned 300 in 3 straight seasons, tying Ryan)...Schilling's complete game total marked the most by a Phillie since Steve Carlton went the route in 19 games in 1982, and they were the most by a righthander since Jim Lonborg's 16 in 1974...Curt fanned a season-high 15 on April 15 at Atlanta...he allowed just 1 earned run in his first 26.0 innings of the year (3 starts) while fanning 34...he was selected to his second consecutive All-Star team, but did not pitch...his 300th and final strikeout was Kevin Orie on September 26 in the first of a pair at Florida...Schilling was also a member of the MLB All-Star team that traveled to Japan in November. 1997—Finished fourth in the Cy Young balloting, leading the majors with 319 strikeouts, an N.L. record for K's by a righthander...Curt surpassed J.R. Richard's previous mark of 313 when he fanned Devon White on September 26 at Florida...he broke Carlton's club record of 310 K's when he fanned Sammy Sosa on September 21 at Chicago...recorded 17 double-digit strikeout games, and established a single-game best with 16 K's on September 1 vs. the Yankees...he was the Opening Day starter for the third time and earned his first win, combining with Ricky Bottalico on a 3-0 victory at Los Angeles, the Phillies first season-opening shutout since 1984...Curt was the Phils' lone All-Star Game representative, fanning 3 in 2.0 shutout innings at Cleveland...he stole the first base of his career on August 22 vs. the Dodgers. 1996—Season began on the disabled list as he recovered from previous season's surgery on his right shoulder...made 4 minor league rehab starts then made his '96 debut on May 14 vs. the Giants, posting a 7-0 win, his first career victory over San Francisco...despite missing 6 weeks, he led the league with 8 complete games...tossed a shutout on August 5 vs. Pittsburgh, his first blanking since Game #5 of the 1993 World Series...he struck out 7 consecutive batters on August 26 at San Francisco, the first pitcher to do so since Roger Clemens (1992)...finished the year strong tossing 4 consecutive complete games from September 5-21...he drove in a career-high 3 runs on July 4 vs. Florida. 1995—Season started very promising, but wound up being cut short by shoulder trouble...he was 4-0 through his first 9 starts, incurring first setback on June 13...tossed his only complete game on June 7 at San Diego, a 2-hitter...recorded his first career multi-hit game on July 13 at Montreal (single and double)...he was among the N.L. leaders in innings, strikeouts and opposing average when he was forced to miss a start on July 23 due to tendinitis and inflammation in his right shoulder...he received a cortisone injection on August 4 by Dr. Craig Morgan, but still experienced discomfort...underwent season-ending arthroscopic surgery by Dr. Morgan on August 23, repairing a superior labral tear anterior posterior (SLAP lesion), while also cleaning up some fraying of the rotator cuff and removing a bone spur from the right shoulder. 1994—Made his first career Opening Day start, began the year 0-7 in 9 starts, his longest career losing streak...was disabled for the first time in his career from May 16-July 25 with a tender right elbow, and had a bone spur removed on May 20...injury trouble continued when he underwent surgery on his left knee on June 10 after a freak incident when the knee popped after getting up from a seated position...finally won his first game of the year on July 25 at Florida...tossed his only complete game of the year on August 9 vs. the Mets...excluding his first start when the Phils scored 4 runs, his teammates scored just 23 runs in his 12 starts while Curt was still in the game. 1993—Earned Philly's Player-of-the-Month award for April (4-1, 2.54 ERA) and September (4-1, 3.47 ERA)...finished tied for second in the N.L. in complete games (7) and fourth in strikeouts (186)...had a career-best 7-game winning streak from July 18-September 20. 1993 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Curt was the starter in Game #1 of the NLCS against the Braves and set a record by fanning the first 5 batters he faced, a game that ended up a no decision for Schilling and eventual 4-3 Phillies' win in 10 innings...he was also not involved in the decision in Game #5, yet wound up the series MVP without earning a win, totaling 16.0 innings, a 1.69 ERA and 19 K's...he started 2 games of the World Series against the Blue Jays, losing his first start by an 8-5 count, but throwing a 5-hit shutout in Game #5. 1992—Went to spring training with Houston, but was traded on April 2 and led the major leagues in lowest opponents avg. (.201), while ranking second in the N.L. in complete games (10), tied for third in shutouts (4) and fourth in ERA (2.35), the lowest ERA by a Phillies' righthander since Jim Bunning's 2.29 mark in 1967...opened the year with 16 relief appearances, making his first start on May 19 against Houston, winning his first N.L. game as a starter, 4-3, which was also Curt's first start since September 6, 1989 with Baltimore against Cleveland...tossed his first career shutout on June 8, a 3-hitter over Pittsburgh...tossed back-to-back shutouts on July 22 vs. San Diego and July 27 vs. the Mets...had an overall shutout inning streak of 29.0 from July 22-August 1...he fired a 1-hitter on September 9 vs. the Mets, the first by a Phillie since David Palmer on August 2, 1988 in St. Louis. 1991—Traded by Baltimore on January 10 in a 4-player deal that also put Steve Finley and Pete Harnisch in Houston uniforms in exchange for Glenn Davis...Curt worked exclusively in relief for the Astros, working in 56 games on the big league level and 13 other contests at Tucson (AAA)...set a career-best with 8 saves, opening the year as the club's closer, converting 5 of his first 6 chances...struggled in May and June and was optioned to Tucson on June 26...recalled on August 2 when Jim Clancy was traded to Atlanta. 1990—Opened the year at Rochester (AAA) and was recalled on June 29 after 15 appearances...earned his first major league save on June 29 vs. Minnesota...he did not allow a run in 20 of his first 23 outings, and had a stretch of 20.0 consecutive scoreless innings...recorded his first major league win on July 11 vs. Kansas City. 1989—Spent the majority of the season with Rochester (AAA), leading the International League in innings (185.1), while tying for the top spot in wins (13), starts (27), complete games (9) and shutouts (3)...earned a September recall and went 0-1 in 5 outings.

wins (13), starts (27), complete games (9) and shutouts (3)...earned a September recall and went 0-1 in 5 outings. 1988—Began the season with New Britain (AA) and was 8-5 with a 2.97 ERA in 21 games when traded to the Orioles on July 30...he went 5-2 with a 3.18 mark with Charlotte (AA) and was promoted to the big leagues...made his debut with a no decision vs. Boston on September 7, but wasn't as fortunate in next 3 starts incurring losses each time out. 1987—Led the South Atlantic League in strikeouts (189) and ranked fourth in complete games (7), going 8-15 with Greensboro. 1986—Curt was selected by the Red Sox in the second round of the January draft and spent his first pro season at Elmira, leading the club with a 2.59 ERA in 16 games (15 starts).

PERSONAL

Curt Schilling...he and his wife, Shonda, and sons, Gehrig (5/27/95) and Grant (10/13/99), and daughter, Gabriella (5/22/97), make their home outside Philadelphia, PA...his trade to the Diamondbacks was a homecoming of sorts, as Curt graduated from Shadow Mountain High School (Phoenix) in 1985...the school honored him by retiring his uniform number in a ceremony on August 11, 1998...he then attended Yavapai Junior College in Prescott, AZ, where his 1985 club advanced to the JUCO World Series...one of the more community aware players in the majors, Schill initiated "Curt's Pitch for ALS" in 1993, making annual donations and combined with money raised from his charity golf tournament, more than $1.5 million has been raised for ALS awareness...he was honored as the Phi Delta Theta's Lou Gehrig Award winner in 1996, presented annually to the major league player who best exemplifies the giving character of the Hall of Famer and fraternity member Lou Gehrig...Curt has continued his philanthropic ways since landing in the Valley, signing his new four-year deal over the winter and in the process donating $1 million that was divided up between the United Way ($500,000) and the ALS Chapters of Philadelphia and Phoenix ($250,000 each)...despite leaving Philadelphia at mid-season last year, Schilling was still named the 2000 winner of the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association Humanitarian Award for his work with ALS...other winners have included Ozzie Smith, Tommy Lasorda, Julius Erving, Eric Lindros and John LeClair...Curt is also a supporter of the Garth Brooks "Touch 'em All" Foundation, and this past January donated $105,000 for a guitar used by the country superstar during his concert at the Foundation's dinner in Las Vegas...the Schilling's have sponsored a family from the People's Emergency Center since 1997, and he was named by USA Today Weekend as Baseball's Most Caring Athlete in 1996...he received the March of Dimes Phillie-of-the-Year honor for '96, and was Philadelphia's True Value Roberto Clemente Award winner in both 1997 and 1998...a history buff, particularly the World War II era, Curt is the President of Multi-Man Publishing, a company that produces board games and war games for Hasbro Games, Inc.

Junior Spivey

Infielder

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 185

B/T: R/R

Age: 26

Born: January 28, 1975 in Oklahoma City, OK

Residence: Oklahoma City, OK

M.L. Service: 77 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 36th round selection in the 1996 June free agent draft.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

As if the 1999 season wasn't brief enough with just 44 games played, Junior had another bout with the disabled list that kept his game tally down to just 28 for the Sidewinders and 6 games at El Paso...he opened the year strong at the plate, collecting 8 hits in his first 16 at bats, concluding the stretch with a 4-hit, 3-RBI effort on April 10 at Calgary...Junior recorded the first multi-homer game of his pro career on April 27 at Salt Lake, knocking in 5 runs in a 16-7 Tucson victory...his first bout with a left hamstring injury that would haunt him all year took place on May 7 in a game against Salt Lake, sending him to the disabled list until June 14...when deemed healthy he was sent to El Paso (AA) where he went 8-for-19 with 5 doubles and a home run in just 5 games before tearing the left hamstring on June 22 at San Antonio...he appeared as a pinch hitter 2 nights later but did not get an at bat and his season subsequently ended.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—The injury bug that haunted Junior in 2000 began biting in the '99 season, as he participated in just 44 games for El Paso (AA)...his season didn't begin until May 15, missing the first 6 weeks due to a ligament tear in his left thumb that occurred in spring training and required surgery...once healthy, he managed to bat .293 before requiring surgery to repair the hamate bone in his left hand, ending his season. 1998—Junior accumulated stops in High Desert (A) and Tulsa (AA) to accumulate an organizational leading 42 stolen bases and 92 walks...he was Arizona's Minor League Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .337 with 7 RBI and 12 stolen bases while with the Mavericks, earning a spot in the California League All-Star Game, but a finger sprain prevented his participation...after hitting .281 in 79 games for High Desert, Spivey made the move to AA, playing on loan with Tulsa of the Texas organization...he hit .311 for Tulsa, but was most impressive in the post-season, hitting .342 in 10 playoff games as they won the Texas League title. 1997—Spent the entire season at High Desert, hitting .273 for the California League champs...his best stretch was a 16-game hitting streak from July 29-August 15...after a hitless game ended the 16-gamer, he immediately began a 10-game skein. 1996—First year as a pro, his career started in the Valley with the Phoenix (Rookie) club, ranking second in the league with a .333 mark, while leading the circuit with 11 stolen bases...he earned Organizational Player-of-the-Month for June, then was promoted to Lethbridge, hitting .336 in 31 games.

PERSONAL

Ernest Lee (Junior) Spivey, Jr...he is single and makes his home in Oklahoma City, where he spends his off-season working with other athletes to increase participation in sports in the inner city...Junior graduated in 1993 from Douglass High School, then attended Cowley County (KS) Junior College...upon conclusion of the '98 season in Tulsa, he played for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League.

Russ became the first player to leave the Diamondbacks and then return when he signed a free-agent contract on November 23, 1999...he was an original Diamondback in the expansion season of 1998 before being traded to the Atlanta Braves for Alan Embree on June 23...Springer picked up decisions in Arizona's first 2 extra-inning games of the season, earning the 3-2 win in 11 innings at home vs. the Phils on April 6, then suffering the loss when he surrendered a 13th inning homer to Ed Sprague at San Diego on April 11...he worked 3.1 hitless innings vs. New York on August 4, with his only baserunner reaching when he hit Benny Agbayani with a pitch...Russ recorded 13 K's in a 9.2-inning stretch from August 4-22, spanning 7 appearances...included were season-high 4-strikeout outings on August 4 (3.1 innings vs. New York Mets) and August 8 (1.2 innings vs. Montreal)...the 3.1-inning stint against the Mets marked his longest relief appearance since June 25, 1996, when he worked 3.1 innings as a Phillie against Cincinnati...he struck out 34 men in his final 30.2 innings for a 9.98 strikeout per 9-inning ratio after posting 25 K's in his first 31.1 frames (7.18 ratio)...he was 0-for-2 in save situations, charged with blown saves on April 8 vs. the Pirates and August 14 at Philadelphia...Russ singled off Philadelphia's Steve Schrenk in the eighth inning on April 25 for his first base hit since July 20, 1996, when he was a member of the Phillies.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Russ served the National League champion Braves as their righthanded set-up man, supplying a most impressive second half, allowing 6 earned runs over 29.0 innings (29 appearances), a 1.86 ERA, not allowing an earned run in 24 of his final 26 outings...overall, he limited the opposition to a .185 average, surrendering just 31 hits in 168 at bats...he was particularly effective against lefthanded batters, allowing only 10 hits in 65 AB's, a .154 mark, while righties batted .204 (21-for-103)...he recorded a save against Cincinnati on August 23, his first in nearly 2 seasons dating back to September 9, 1997, while hurling for the Astros...his big league season started late due to January back surgery (herniated lumbar disc), working 11 times for Richmond (AAA) on a rehab stint before joining Atlanta on May 17. 1999 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Russ fired 5.1 shutout innings in 5 appearances, for the Braves with 3 hits, 2 walks and 3 strikeouts...he worked once against the Astros in the Division Series, allowing 2 hits over an inning of work...Springer's lone post-season decision was a win in Game #6 of the LCS, working the top of the 11th inning, then benefitting from the bases loaded walk to Andruw Jones that sent the Braves to the World Series...Russ had also pitched a scoreless 12th inning in Game #5 at Shea, a contest the Mets won, 4-3 in 15...he appeared twice in the World Series, tossing 2.0 shutout frames in the second game in Turner Field, then recording an out in the finale at Yankee Stadium. 1998—Selected with the third choice in the third round of the expansion draft, Russ was a member of the original Diamondbacks, making 26 relief appearances before a June 23 trade to Atlanta in exchange for lefthander Alan Embree...he had an impressive 1.46 ERA in May (2 earned runs in 12.1 innings), but scuffled with an 8.31 mark in 7 games in June, then was dealt to the Braves...he allowed only 1 earned run over his first 8.0 innings with Atlanta, but was touched up for 8 earnings in his next 5.1 frames before going on the D.L. with bone spurs in his right elbow...Russ had surgery to clean up the injury in October. 1997—Made the transition to full-time reliever, appearing 54 times for the Astros, each time out of the pen...fanned 6 in a 2-inning stint on April 13 at St. Louis...had a career-high 3 saves in 7 chances...finished with 74 K's in 55.1 innings, a 12.3 per 9-inning ratio, second on the Houston staff to Billy Wagner's 14.4...was disabled from June 17-July 10 with a lower back strain. 1997 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: He appeared twice against the Braves in the Division Series, allowing a run in 1.2 innings, the tally scoring in the seventh inning of the third game of the series. 1996—Was used primarily out of the pen for Philly, appearing in 51 games, 44 in relief...fanned 73 men in 62.2 innings out of the bullpen...he tied a career-high with 7 K's in a 3.1-inning stint at Cincinnati on June 25...made first start on July 2, a 3-2 win over New York, going 5.0 innings, his first start in the majors since July 24, 1995, while with the Angels...worked 7.0 innings in a win over St. Louis on August 1, his longest outing since an 8-inning stint on July 17, 1993, at Cleveland. 1995—Russ opened the year with the Halos, but he was optioned to Vancouver on May 16 after 7 games, going 1-0 with an 11.70 ERA...was recalled on June 9, working 12 times (6 starts), then was optioned again on July 28, remaining there until an August 15 trade to Philadelphia as the player-to-be-named in the Dave Gallagher deal...made N.L. debut with a

PERSONAL

Russell Paul (Russ) Springer...he and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Karlee (12/8/95) and a son, Jake (12/8/98), and make their home in Pollock, LA...the Louisiana native graduated in 1986 from Grant High School in Dry Prong, LA, earning All-District honors, while he was named MVP in the Louisiana State All-Star Game...he then attended LSU, where he was named a 1989 pre-season All-American by Baseball America...pitched 3 seasons for the Tigers, going to the College World Series in Omaha twice...he recorded a win over Miami in the '89 Series, fanning 9 over 8.1 innings...he still holds several LSU pitching records, including most innings pitched in a game, working 10.2 frames in 1988 vs. Kentucky.

D'Backs Still the Best Among Third-Year Expansion Clubs

Despite the third place finish in the N.L. West last year, the Diamondbacks have maintained the top spot among expansion clubs after 3 years of action. The 100-win campaign of 1999 enabled Arizona to jump over the Los Angeles Angels and Colorado Rockies, who had recorded better inaugural season marks, but were not as successful in subsequent years. The D'Backs are the only expansion club to compile an aggregate record over .500 among third year expansion clubs.

Following are the combined 3-year records for all previous expansion clubs:

YEARS	CLUB	3-YEAR TOTAL

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Todd's second year as a Diamondback and also the second straight season interrupted by an arm injury...he missed a large portion of the 1999 season with a rotator cuff tear that he chose to rehab and return to work instead of undergoing surgery...Stott opened the 2000 season by going 8-3 through 11 starts before departing a May 29 start at home against the Cardinals with a right elbow injury and he was immediately placed on the 15-day disabled list to rest a case of tendinitis...he returned to work on June 15, but made just 3 starts before being shelved again with the elbow injury, missing all of July and August...he returned for 4 starts in September until undergoing season-ending elbow surgery on September 26 to readjust the nerve in his elbow that was the source of all of the pain...he was also diagnosed early in the year with a hernia injury that he pitched with, but had it surgically repaired at the time of his elbow surgery...Todd opened the year 7-1 through 8 starts, including victories in his first 3 assignments...he fanned only 12 batters in his first 5 starts, spanning 24.2 innings, but recorded 28 K's in his next 24.2 innings over the course of 4 starts...included were back-to-back 8-strikeout performances at San Diego (May 13) and at New York (May 19), splitting decisions...the 6-2 win on May 13 over the Padres was the 136th of Todd's career, giving him and his father, Mel, a combined career total of 300 victories, by far the most ever by a major league father-son tandem...Mel Stottlemire won 164 games during his career with the Yankees...Dizzy and Steve Trout rank second all-time with 259 wins...Todd hit his first major league homer in his 216th career at bat as his parents, Mel and Jean, looked on at Philadelphia on April 26, a shot over the left field fence came off former Arizona teammate Amaury Telemaco in a 10-4 win over the Phils...Stott went 0-2 after returning from first stint on the D.L., losing a 4-0 decision in Los Angeles on June 15, and tough 3-1 setback at home to the Padres on June 20...he fanned a season-high 10 in loss to San Diego, his 17th career double-digit strikeout game, first since July 9, 1998...the consecutive losses gave him a decision in each of his first 13 starts (8-5 record)...his first no decision came when he left his June 25 start at home against Colorado in the first inning when elbow pain flared up again, prompting 2 month stint on the shelf...he finished the year going 1-1 in his 4 starts in September before undergoing surgery.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Stott opened and closed the year in the starting rotation, ending with Arizona's only win in post-season play, but missed the middle three months of the season with a partial tear of his right rotator cuff...the injury occurred on May 17 in San Francisco when Todd attempted to warm-up for the fifth inning of a game in which he held a 6-1 lead...instead of having the shoulder surgically repaired with hopes of coming back in 6 months to a year, he chose to rehab around the injury, add body strength and attempt to come back during the season...an intensive program was designed by Arizona's medical team and supervised by trainers Paul Lessard and Dave Edwards, as Stott went through a rigorous rehab to strengthen the muscles around the injury, as well as increase his leg strength, while adding 15 pounds of muscle to his frame...he was not allowed to touch a ball for 6 weeks, limited strictly to lifting and range of motion exercises...just prior to the All-Star break, Todd was finally allowed to test the arm with a throwing program that if all went well, would have him pitching competitively in August...all went well, and Stott returned to action in a Rookie League game at Tucson on August 4, and after 3 starts allowing a run over 17.0 innings, he was deemed ready to return to the majors...the return took place in Pittsburgh on August 20, though Brian Giles spoiled the evening with a pair of homers in a 5-4 Pirate win...Todd posted his first post-injury victory just 5 nights later in Florida, a 7-2 win with 7.0 innings of 2-run, 5-hit work.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Todd's regular season perseverance was rewarded in the second game of the series with the Mets, working 6.2 strong innings of a 7-1 win, the only victory Arizona enjoyed...he scattered a run on 4 hits, with 5 walks and 6 strikeouts, allowing the lone tally in the third inning...the start was his 15th career post-season appearance, ninth start, upping his overall record to 3-5.

1998—Todd joined current mound-mate Randy Johnson as a pair of the marquee hurlers who changed uniforms at the trade deadline...while Johnson was dealt from Seattle to Houston, Stottlemire left St. Louis and ended up in a pennant race, working the final 2 months with Texas...he and shortstop Royce Clayton were swapped for pitcher Darren Oliver, infielder Fernando Tatis and a player to be named (Mark Little)...Todd combined his stops for a 14-13 ledger and 3.74 ERA, going 9-9 with the Cardinals and 5-4 for the playoff bound Rangers...he was the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for June 22-28, going 2-0 with a 1.06 ERA, allowing 2 earned runs in 17.0 innings, with 15 K's...he averaged 8.5 K's per 9-innings while with Texas, fanning 57 in 60.1 innings...the son of former big league pitcher and current Yankees' coach Mel Stottlemire, Todd was a 16-5 winner in Yankee Stadium on August 15, the first time that he worked a major league game with his father in either dugout...he fanned 10 or more on 3 occasions, with a season-high of 13 K's on May 11 vs. Milwaukee. 1998 POST-SEASON: Todd was Texas' game #1 starter in the Division Series against New York, and lost a 2-0 decision in Yankee Stadium, going the distance (8.0 innings), allowing 2 runs on 6 hits, with 4 walks and 8 K's...the Yanks scored both of their runs in the second, which was all David Wells needed, combining with Mariano Rivera on the 5-hit shutout. 1997—Todd tied Matt Morris for the Redbird lead with 12 wins, despite missing the final month of the season with shoulder fatigue...he was 4-5 through June 15, then won 7 of his next 9 decisions from June 21-August 2...he posted 100th career victory on May 25 at San Francisco, joining Mel as the first father-son tandem to reach the century mark...best single-game performance was July 28 vs. Houston, working 8.0 shutout innings, while doubling in the deciding run in the 8th of a 2-1 victory...at the plate, he had 4 doubles and a triple, and fashioned a 5-game hitting streak from June 21-July 13. 1996—Had a successful first test as a National Leaguer, joining the Cardinals in January as part of a 4-player trade with Oakland, working a career-high 223.1 innings, while posting 14 wins for the second straight year...had a season-high 13 K's in a 6-0 complete game win on May 15 at Florida...he recorded career-K #1,000 on August 2 at Shea...a 12-3 win over Houston on Sept. 3 vaulted Todd and Mel ahead of the Trout twosome (Dizzy & Steve) for most wins by a father/son duo (259)...offensively, he swiped a base on June 20 at Montreal, the first stolen base by a Redbird pitcher since Bob Forsch (1988)...Todd had 3 hits on June 30 vs. Pittsburgh, the first 3-hit game by a Cardinal hurler since Scott Terry (1988). 1996 POST-SEASON: Stott was the Cards' only multiple-game winner in the post-season, going 2-1 in 4 outings (3 starts)...he won for the first time in 10 post-season tries by winning the Division Series opener against San Diego on October 1, working 6.2 frames of a 3-1 win...he followed that with a victory on October 10 in the second game of the LCS at Atlanta, fanning 8 over 6.0 innings, an 8-3 triumph. 1995—Signing as a free agent on April 11, his only year with Oakland, Todd's 205 strikeouts ranked second in the A.L. (behind Randy Johnson), third in baseball...his season strikeout total and 7 double-digit "K" games were second only to Vida Blue's 301-K and 8 double digit strikeout games in Athletics' history...he set personal bests with a 10-inning, 15-K game, featuring 7 strikeouts in last 3.1 innings, in no decision vs. Kansas City on June 16. 1994—Opened the year in Toronto's bullpen going 2-0 with a save and 2.19 ERA in 7 appearances...earned only professional save on April 5 vs. the White Sox...returned to starting on April 26 with win over Kansas City...fired fourth career shutout with a 4-hitter vs. California on May 29...departed Toronto ranking in their top 5 in wins (59), starts (175), shutouts (4) and strikeouts (662). 1993—Ranked fourth in the A.L. in fewest homers allowed with 11 in 176.2 innings...was on the disabled list from May 23-June 13 with pulled lat muscle. 1993 POST-SEASON: Made the start in the fourth game of the LCS vs. Chicago, but took 7-4 loss...started fourth game of World Series vs. Philly, but was injured running the bases in second inning. 1992—Had a career-high 6 complete games, tying for top spot on Toronto staff...tossed first professional shutout on April 29 vs. California...went on the D.L. on June 20 with right knee injury and did not make another start until July 20...tossed second shutout with a career-low 1-hitter on August 26 at Chicago, a 9-0 win, carrying a no-no into the ninth before Dan Pasqua doubled with 1 out...was suspended by A.L. for Sept. 23-27, missing final start. 1992 POST-SEASON: He worked 3.2 innings in fourth game of LCS vs. Oakland, then made 4 relief appearances against the Braves in the World Series, fanning 4 in 3.2 shutout innings. 1991—Set a professional best with 15 wins, his first winning season in the majors...did not miss a start, making a career-high 34...went 5-0 through 7 starts to open the year, and 8-2 through first 14 starts. 1991 POST-SEASON: He started and lost the fourth game of the LCS vs. Minnesota, a 9-3 setback. 1990—First full major league season, worked exclusively as a starter, making 33 appearances, topping the Jays' staff with 4 complete games...was the youngest opening day starter in franchise history, taking the ball at 24 years old, losing a 4-2 decision vs. Texas. 1989—Opened the year in Toronto's pen, making 7 relief appearances, including a team-high 6-inning stint on April 18...was outrighted to Syracuse on May 15...returned to Jays on June 30 and joined the starting rotation for the remainder of the year, winning 7 of 8 decisions from July 6-Sept. 6, including 5 in a row. 1989 POST-SEASON: He made first post-season appearance in second game of ALCs vs. Oakland, losing a 6-3 decision. 1988—Made big league club out of spring training for first time, debuting with 1.2 shutout innings of relief on April 6 at Kansas City...first start was a 4-2 loss at Minnesota on April 10...earned first major league win on May 3 at Seattle, retiring the first 19 men he faced...lost 6 straight decisions at mid-season and was outrighted to Syracuse on July 27. 1987—Earned team MVP honors at Syracuse (AAA), just his second pro season, leading the league in starts (34), while ranking second in strikeouts and innings. 1986—Honored as the California League's top prospect by Baseball America, going 9-4 with a 2.43 ERA in 17 starts for Ventura (A), his first pro test...was selected Toppis Player-of-the-Month for May and the Toronto organization's Pitcher-of-the-Month for June...was promoted on June 21 to Knoxville (AA), finishing third on the staff with 8 wins in just half a season.

PERSONAL

Todd Vernon Stottlemire...he has a daughter, Rachel (10/12/95), and makes his home in Phoenix...Todd graduated in 1982 from Davis High School in Yakima, WA, going 10-0 with a 0.72 ERA as a senior...he then attended the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, going 10-4 in his freshman year...Todd sat out his sophomore season with a tender right elbow, enrolling in Yakima Valley Community College...he withdrew from UNLV during his junior year to be eligible for the January, 1985, draft, and was selected by St. Louis but chose not to sign...he was then drafted in the secondary phase of the '85 June draft by Toronto and inked his first pro contract...he is was then drafted in the secondary phase of the '85 June draft by Toronto and inked his first pro contract...he is the son of former Yankee great and current pitching coach Mel Stottlemyre...the Stottlemyres are the only father-son combination in major league history to each record 100 or more wins, and their combined total of 302 (Mel-164, Todd-138) are the most ever by a father and son...the Stottlemyres, Trout and Bagbys (Jim & Jim Jr.) are the only 3 father/son combinations to take part in post-season play...Todd has been a huge contributor to the Leukemia Society and is donating $1 million over the term of his contract earmarked for Diamondbacks Charities and the Valley of the Sun United Way...he was twice honored for his off-field community service in 2000, earning the prestigious Branch Rickey Award from the Rotary Club of Denver, determined by a vote of the national media, formally receiving the award at a banquet in Denver last November...he was also named by The Sporting News as one of the 99 "Good Guys in Sports"...both honors came by virtue of his dedicated work and donations toward helping to find a cure for leukemia and other forms of cancer and his devotion to helping ailing children.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 12, 1998.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Greg tied a club record with a staff leading 64 appearances, matching Gregg Olson's total from the inaugural season of 1998...Swindell also tied his own franchise record for most strikeouts in a game by a reliever when he fanned 5 in a 3-inning stint at Philly on April 26 (the mark was tied twice by Byung-Hyun Kim)...Greg earned a win in his second appearance of the year on April 8 at home vs. the Pirates, working a scoreless inning of a 6-5 victory...he was 1-for-1 in save opportunities, recording his lone rescue on April 15, just his third appearance of 2000, tossing 3.0 innings for a 7-4 triumph over the Giants at Pacific Bell Park...he was tough early giving up 2 earned runs over 16.0 innings (11 games) for a season-opening 1.13 ERA...he wasn't quite as fortunate in his next 5 outings, allowing 6 earned runs over 3.2 frames, but Greg followed that with his best overall streak of the year from May 29-July 4, working 19.0 consecutive scoreless innings (15 games) allowing 10 hits and 2 walks while fanning 13...included was a streak of 55 batters faced without allowing a walk...he made 11 appearances in the month of June, spanning 14.0 innings without surrendering an earned run...Greg inherited 26 runners on the year with only 4 scoring, including just 1 of the last 12...he was unbeaten as a Diamondback in 1999, but suffered 6 losses during the 2000 season with the last 2 setbacks the direct result of late-inning home runs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Greg's work in the second half was consistent with the overall numbers the D'Backs put up to run away with the division crown...after posting a 5.52 ERA through his first 15 appearances (9 earned runs in 14.2 innings), he gave up only 9 earned runs for the remainder of the season, spanning 48 outings and 50.0 innings, a 1.62 ERA...he missed the last 2 weeks of June with a rib cage injury, then was scored upon in just 4 of 35 appearances after coming off the D.L....Greg had a shutout streak from August 4-September 4, stretching 13.1 scoreless innings...included was a 3.1-inning relief stint in Chicago on August 10, where he also set a team bullpen mark with 5 K's, earning a 3-1 victory...he closed the year with 5 consecutive scoreless outings, giving up just 1 hit over 3.1 innings, ending it by recording the final out in the record setting 100th win on October 3...his lone save occurred on April 19 in B.O.B., retiring the only Phillie he faced to preserve a 3-2 win, his first-ever National League save...he was a winner in San Diego on April 25, retiring the only man he faced in the 10th, before the D'Backs won the affair on a Jay Bell 2-run homer in the 11th, Swindell's first National League win since 1995 when he was with Houston. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Greg appeared in the last 3 games of the series with Mets, totaling 3.1 innings allowing a hit and 3 walks (1 intentional), with a strikeout...he finished up Arizona's lone win, working the final 2.0 frames, allowing a hit, while fanning a man, retiring 6 of the 7 he faced...he tossed an inning in game #3 at Shea, then recorded an out in game #4. 1998—Greg's year began with Minnesota, his second straight with the Twins, but when the July 31 trade deadline arrived, he joined a playoff race with Boston...a starter for the first 10 years of his career, he worked exclusively in relief for the first time, appearing in a career-high 81 games, third most in the A.L.... Swindell left stranded 90% of the runners he inherited, with only 5 of the 48 crossing the plate (27 of 30 with Minnesota and 16 of 18 with Boston)...he was most impressive during a 17-game stretch from May 8-June 10, allowing 2 earned runs in 23.2 innings, a 0.76 ERA. 1997 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: After more than 12 years and 4 different franchises, Greg got his first shot at pitching in the post-season, working 1.1 shutout inning in the second game of the Division Series against Cleveland, the club he originally signed with in 1986. 1997—Made 65 appearances, with his lone starting assignment on May 10 vs. Toronto, still his last start...posted first career save on Sept. 20 against Milwaukee. 1996—Started his fourth consecutive year with the Astros, but was slowed by a groin injury that disabled him from April 20-May 22...Greg was released on June 3 and signed as a free agent with Cleveland on June 15...he was a winner on June 18 vs. the Red Sox, his first triumph in a Cleveland uniform since Sept. 21, 1991, vs. Baltimore...was outrighted on Sept. 6, then inked a contract with Minnesota. 1995—Appeared in 33 games, starting 26 of them...tossed the 12th shutout of his career on June 26 vs. St. Louis...posted 100th career victory on August 29 at Atlanta, working a pair of hitless innings of relief. 1994—Opened the year by winning 5 of his first 6 decisions, including a stretch of 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings from April 8-19. 1993—Tied for sixth in the league in fewest walks per 9-innings at 1.89...opened year going 4-1 in April with a 3.08 ERA...was disabled with a left shoulder strain from July 6-25...recorded 1,000th career strikeout, fanning Jim Deshaies on Sept. 20...finished year with 11th career shutout on October 1 in Cincinnati. 1992—Was part of an in-state trade, joining the Reds from Cleveland in exchange for pitchers Jack Armstrong, Scott Scudder and Joe Turek...made N.L. debut on April 9 in Houston, but didn't post first N.L. victory until April 25 at San Diego...finished ninth in the N.L. with a 2.70 ERA...had stint on disabled list (August 23-Sept. 7) with stress fracture in left rib cage...ranked third in the league in fewest walks per 9-innings (1.73). 1991—The last of 6 straight seasons with the Indians, led the staff in innings pitched, strikeouts and complete games...his 7 CG's were second to career-high 12 he recorded in 1988...fanned a season-high 12 on April 24 vs. K.C....he tied a career-high with a 10-inning performance on June 11 vs. Toronto...walked only 31 men in 238.0 innings, a 1.17 walks per-9 inning ratio...had a deceptive 9-16 ledger as the Tribe averaged only 3.6 runs in his 33 starts. 1990—Established a career best in starts, leading the Cleveland staff in that department as well as innings and strikeouts...snapped an 11-start drought with 8.1 innings in a win over California on July 1, a victory that kicked off a 4-game winning streak...he parlayed that into an 8-2 stretch from July 22-August 22. 1989—Made his first Opening Day start on April 3 vs. Milwaukee...tied a career-high with a 6-game winning streak from May 28-June 24, and through July 20 was victorious in 9 of 10 decisions...tied a career-low with a 2-hitter on June 7 vs. California, his third career...was named to the A.L. All-Star team and worked 1.2 innings allowing 2 hits and fanning 3 in Anaheim Stadium...disabled from July 26-August 30 with a left elbow ligament strain...gave up 3 earned runs or less in 20 of his 28 starts. 1988—Had a career-year, winning 18, including 12 complete games, leading the Cleveland staff in virtually every category...won 10 of his first 11 decisions from April 6-May 2, including a season-opening 6-game winning streak...tossed back-to-back complete games on April 6 at Texas and April 11 vs. Baltimore, earning A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors by posting a 0.95 ERA...established a career-high with a 10-inning stint on April 16 at Baltimore, blanking the Orioles...carried a no-hitter into the seventh on May 19 vs. Chicago, and wound up with 2-hit shutout...the Tribe scored only 28 runs in his 14 losses...was second in the A.L. in walks per 9-innings (1.67). 1987—Tossed his first career shutout, 3-0 on April 19 at Baltimore, a 6-hitter...made first professional relief appearance on April 15 at New York, retiring only man he faced...fanned a career-high 15 in 4-2 win vs. Kansas City on May 10...he suffered a broken middle finger on his right hand when hit by a Wade Boggs line drive on May 26 at Boston, but did not miss a start...had season cut short with a sore left elbow, sidelining him after July 2. 1986—Signed with Cleveland as the second overall pick in the June draft, and began pro career with Waterloo, going 2-1 with a 1.00 ERA in 3 starts, fanning 25 in 18.0 innings...was promoted to the majors on August 21, making big league debut vs. Boston...had a season-high 9 K's on Sept. 1 at Toronto...started a 4-game winning streak with first major league win on Sept. 6 at Milwaukee...final win in streak was Sept. 23 at California, his first career complete game.

CAREER PERSONAL

Forest Gregory (Greg) Swindell...he and his wife, Sarah, have three daughters, Hayley (8/22/89), Brenna (10/27/94) and Sophia (4/8/96), and welcomed their first son into the world in the early morning hours of February 4, when Dawson Harold arrived...the Swindell's make their home in Paradise Valley...Greg was a 1983 graduate of Sharpstown (TX) High School, earning All-State honors in baseball for both his junior and senior seasons...he then attended the University of Texas, where he was a combined 43-8 with a 1.92 ERA, posting 501 K's in 440.0 collegiate innings...he set Longhorn records with 19 wins (18 in a row), 204 strikeouts and 172 innings in 1985...he was selected Freshman of the Year in 1984 and was the youngest member of the 1984 U.S. Olympic team...Swindell earned Pitcher-of-the-Year honors in 1985, and All-American recognition in each of his 3 seasons at Texas...other honors included the All-Time College All-Star Team by Baseball America, and he was the first 3-time finalist for the U.S.B.F. Golden Spikes Award, honoring the nation's best amateur player...he was also selected by The Sporting News as the top southpaw collegiate pitcher in 1985 and 1986.

B/T: R/R

Age: 35 (Turns 36 on November 28)

Born: November 28, 1965 in Bishop, CA

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

M.L. Service: 12 years, 113 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for Travis Fryman and Tom Martin, December 2, 1997.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Matt suffered a devastating injury on March 28 in the final Tucson exhibition game of the spring, fouling a ball off of his right foot vs. Seattle, breaking the second metatarsal...Williams had surgery performed 4 days later by Dr. Pete Mitchell, who inserted a metal plate into the affected area...it was the second time in Matt's career that he broke the second metatarsal in his right foot, missing 11 weeks of the 1995 season with San Francisco...he was on the disabled list from March 29-May 23, ending with a 5-game rehab stint with El Paso that also proved troublesome...while playing for the Diablos, he suffered a right quadriceps strain that eventually led to another stint on the 15-day D.L., missing time from June 25-July 13...due to the injuries, Matt never really got on track offensively until the midway point of September...he finished the campaign strong by hitting safely in 14 of the final 15 games at a .421 clip (24-for-57) with 9 runs scored, 2 doubles, 5 homers and 18 RBI...the 5 home runs came in a 10-game stretch to end the year, beginning with a most impressive visit to Pacific Bell Park on September 21-24, his first action there after missing the initial series in April due to injury...he went 10-for-20 (.500) with 2 home runs and 9 RBI in a 5-game series...included was a grand slam off of Livan Hernandez in the series finale on the 24th, the 10th slam of his major league career, fifth in a Diamondback uniform...the slam also led to his second 5-RBI game of the year and 14th career game in which he drove in at least 5 runs...Matt had a 5-game hitting streak from August 12-16 on a tour through Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, going 9-for-23 (.391) with 2 doubles, 2 homers and 9 RBI...included was a 5-RBI effort on August 15 against the Phillies.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Matt was one of 11 players who hit 300 home runs over the 1990's, joining Mark McGwire (405), Ken Griffey Jr. (382), Barry Bonds (361), Albert Belle (351), Juan Gonzalez (339), Sammy Sosa (332), Rafael Palmeiro (328), Jose Canseco (303), Frank Thomas (301) and Fred McGriff (300)...prior to the 90's there were only 12 players in history to hit at least 300 homers in a decade...he owns 4 Rawlings Gold Gloves and 4 Silver Slugger Awards...he entered the 2001 season fifth on San Francisco's all-time home run list with 247 while wearing a Giants' uniform.

1999—Had a monster year at the plate, finishing third in the National League MVP balloting, including a pair of first place votes...he was voted by the fans to start at third base in the All-Star Game in Boston, his fifth appearance at the Midsummer Classic, fourth time he'd been selected by the fans...he was an easy choice for the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA, earning Diamondback Player-of-the-Year honors...he destroyed his previous single-season RBI best with 142, 20 more than his league leading total from 1990 with the Giants...he also set personal bests in average (.303), hits (190) and doubles (37)...his 35 homers came at opportune times, with 16 staking Arizona to a lead while 6 others tied contests...he had 8 games of at least 4 RBI, while adding 2 more multi-homer games, upping his career total to 30...he was hot from the outset, winning league Player-of-the-Month honors for April, batting .357 with 8 homers and 25 RBI, virtually locking up the award through the first 18 games, batting .385 (30-for-78) with 15 runs scored, 8 doubles, 7 homers and 21 RBI...included was his first of 2 Player-of-the-Week honors, winning for April 19-25 by batting .550 (11-for-20) with 4 homers and 11 RBI (also June 7-13)...his first homer on April 6 in Dodger Stadium was the 300th of his career...hit a 3-run homer off Tom Glavine in a 7-5 win at Atlanta on Sept. 5, then followed the next night in Milwaukee with his second grand slam of the year, ninth career, staking the D'Backs to a win...he was the first of 4 D'Backs to crack the century mark in RBI, and when teammates Jay Bell, Luis Gonzalez and Steve Finley achieved the mark, Arizona was the seventh club in N.L. history with a quartet of 100 RBI...the next-to-last weekend of the regular season was memorable for Matty, who returned to "The Stick" for a final time, getting 2 hits in the first game of the series, the night Arizona clinched its Western Division crown, then after a well deserved day off, he was honored in pre-game ceremonies as a member of the all-time San Francisco Giant starting lineup...his last game ever at Candlestick witnessed a double and run scored in his final plate appearance, as the D'Backs swept the 3-game set...Williams recorded his 1,500th career hit on July 15 at Texas, and just 12 days later posted his 1,000th career RBI with a double in San Diego...defensively, Matt tied a full-season career low with 10 errors, matching his miscue total from 1995 with the Giants. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Matt hit .375 in the 4 games against the Mets, going hitless in the series opener, then finishing on a 6-for-12 run...he had 3 hits, including a double and 3 runs scored in

Arizona's lone win in the second game of the series, then added a pair of hits in game #3 at Shea. 1998—Matt persevered through a pair of injuries to land his ninth consecutive 20-homer campaign...homered in 3 straight games on April 14-16 in St. Louis, beginning the streak with his sixth career grand slam (off of Kent Mercker)...he had a pair of home runs on April 25 at Florida, the 28th multi-homer game of his career...he was hitting .309 on May 2, before suffering an injury to his left hand that hampered him throughout the season...after returning to action, he hammered his second slam of the year and seventh career, a fifth inning shot on May 20 at Florida off of Andy Larkin...the injury bug bit again in early July, fouling a ball off his left foot on July 3 in Houston, and though he continued to play on the tender foot for 2 weeks, he was eventually diagnosed with a stress fracture and placed on the 15-day D.L...he returned to action on August 3 in Chicago, and as luck would have it, he was hit on the right hand by a pitch in his first game back, forcing him to miss 4 more games...he finished '98 with 11 errors, though he did not commit a miscue in his final 35 games. 1997—Only year as an American Leaguer, Matt was part of a 6-player deal on November 13, 1996, and wound up participating in his second World Series...earned his fourth Silver Slugger Award and was also rewarded for his steady defensive play with his fourth Rawlings Gold Glove, first since 1994 with the Giants...led the Tribe with 105 RBI...hit 3 homers in a game for first time in major league career on April 25 at Milwaukee...followed the next night with 2 more home runs vs. the Brewers, tying the big league record with 5 in 2 games, the 20th time ever, third by an Indian (Joe Carter-1989 and Albert Belle-1995)...a 2-homer game on June 28 at New York also tied career bests with 4 hits and 6 RBI...had another 6-RBI game on August 27 at Anaheim, collecting all 6 RBI in the fourth inning to equal a major league record (a 3-run homer and 3-run double off of Allen Watson), Williams' fourth career 6-RBI game...second half of season included a career-high 24-game hitting streak (August 13-Sept. 8), the eighth longest streak in Tribe history...established a personal single-season best with 12 thefts, featuring his first career multi-steal game on June 8 at Boston, pilfering 3 bags...committed 12 errors in 402 total chances (.971 fielding pct.), second among A.L. third basemen...hit just 7 of his 32 home runs in Jacobs Field, while his 25 road homers were 1 shy of Albert Belle's club record of 26 in 1996. 1997 POST-SEASON: Hit safely in 14 of the 18 games he played in during the post-season, including a 7-game hitting streak that began in the second game of the Division Series and ran through the third game of the LCS...also hit safely in the first 6 games of the World Series...had a hit in each of the last 4 games of the New York series, including a home run in the second game off of losing pitcher Andy Pettitte...he had an outstanding Fall Classic, going 10-for-26 (.385) in the 7 games against the Marlins, with a homer and 3 RBI...hit safely in first 6 games of the series, going 10-for-24 (.417)...he homered in game #4, driving in a pair in the 10-3 win...also walked 7 times during the series, including 3 in game #7. 1996—Injury shortened campaign for second straight year, playing in just 105 games due to right shoulder that eventually required surgery...became the first San Francisco Giant to start 8 straight opening days...collected his 1,000th major league hit on April 26 off of Florida's Kevin Brown...originally damaged shoulder on July 16 in Colorado attempting to break up a double play in a collision with Walt Weiss...moved across to first base the following inning, then started 12 of the next 15 games at first before going on the D.L. on August 5...had the shoulder scoped on August 17 by Dr. Warren King in San Francisco, with the procedure revealing slight fraying of the labrum, bursa scarring and rotator cuff inflammation...was voted the National League's starting third baseman in the All-Star Game, but was unable to play due to a severely bruised left elbow after being hit by a pitch in San Diego on July 6. 1995—Hit .336 with 23 homers and 65 RBI, but was limited to just 76 games after fracturing the second metatarsal bone in his right foot on a foul tip off a Paul Quantrill pitch on June 3 vs. Philly...Williams singled later in the game, but was removed after running to second base on a subsequent single, and placed on the D.L...injury required surgery by Dr. King and Dr. Gordon Campbell, who inserted pins in the displaced fracture...missed 68 games with the injury, with Giants going 28-40 in his absence, dropping 8.0 games in the standings...at the time of the injury, he was leading the league in avg. (.381), homers (13), RBI (35) and hits (50)...was named the N.L. Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .405 (45-for-111) with 12 homers and 31 RBI...was elected to start All-Star Game in Arlington, TX, but unable to play due to the injury...hit fifth career grand slam, first since 1990, taking Cubs' Frank Castillo deep on Sept. 9 in Wrigley. 1994—Led the majors with a career-best 43 home runs in the strike-shortened 115-game season, setting an all-time franchise record (NY and SF) for homers by a third baseman...at the time of the strike he was on pace to tie Roger Maris' then single-season major league record of 61...voted the starting third baseman on the N.L. All-Star team, first time elected, second game...he finished second in the MVP balloting behind Jeff Bagwell, while earning a spot on The Sporting News, Associated Press and Baseball America Post-Season All-Star teams...earned third Rawlings Gold Glove, while also winning Silver Slugger Award...had more extra-base hits (62) than singles (57)...40 homers through July 31 set then N.L. record, surpassing previous mark of 36 by Johnny Bench, Willie Mays, Willie Stargell and Mike Schmidt...also set N.L. mark with 33 home runs prior to All-Star break...hit career HR #200 off of Cincy's Erik Hanson on August 1. 1993—Finished second in N.L. in total bases (325), second in extra-base hits (75), third in homers (38), third in slugging (.561), fifth in RBI (110) and sixth in runs (105), finishing sixth in MVP vote and earning the LIP! Comeback Player-of-the-Year award...was also named the top third baseman in the majors by Associated Press...season mark of .294 was a 67-point increase over '92 season, the biggest gain in the N.L...teamed with Barry Bonds (46 HR) to produce SF's first 40/30 homer tandem since Bobby Bonds and Willie McCovey in 1969...earned second Rawlings Gold Glove, leading all N.L. third basemen with .970 pct. 1992—Hit a pair of homers on May 13 in Philadelphia, then had the longest home run drought of career, 128 AB's from May 22-July 7. 1991—Ranked second in the N.L. in home runs (34), fourth in total bases (294) and 10th in RBI (98)...earned first Rawlings Gold Glove, joining Jim Davenport as only Giant 3B to win award...drove in runs in 10 consecutive games (August 27-Sept. 6)...hit career homer #100 off Darryl Kile on October 1. 1990—His 122 RBI were most ever by a Giant third baseman, breaking Mel Ott's mark of 116 in 1938. 1989—Opened the year as the Giants' third baseman and hit his second career grand slam on April 9 in Cincy off of Danny Jackson...set LCS 5-game record for RBI with 9, featuring a home run and 4 RBI in game #4... homered off Dave Stewart in game #3 of the World Series vs. Oakland. 1988—Had a pair of stints with the Giants, recalled from Phoenix for the first time on June 2 and started 10 games at short in place of the injured Jose Uribe...hit 3 homers and drove in 9, including first career grand slam on June 4 off Houston's Nolan Ryan...had second career 2-homer game on Sept. 24 at L.A...while with Phoenix, tied a 25-year old PCL record with 4 homers on May 25 vs. Albuquerque. 1987—Assigned to Phoenix, but had contract purchased on April 11 and had first major league hit that day off Dodgers' Orel Hershiser...hit first big league homer in Candlestick Park on April 19 off Atlanta's Jeff Dedmon...was the starting shortstop when Giants set major league record for most double plays in 3 games, (13) and 4 games (17), on April 24-27 in Atlanta...replaced Joel Youngblood (broken wrist) on the LCS roster vs. St. Louis but did not play. 1986—Signed with Giants in June after being the third overall pick in the June draft and reported to Everett (Rookie)...knocked in 10 runs in 4 games before earning quick promotion to Clinton (A).

Tony Womack

Infielder

Ht: 5-9

B/T: L/R

Age: 31 (Turns 32 on September 25)

Born: September 25, 1969 in Danville, VA

Residence: Greensboro, NC

M.L. Service: 4 years, 137 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates in exchange for minor league outfielder Paul Weichard and a player-to-be-named (Jason Boyd), February 26, 1999.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Tony topped the National League in triples with a club record 14, breaking David Dellucci's previous team standard of 12 in 1998...Womack was bothered throughout the latter months of the season with a left knee injury that required surgery on September 26 bringing his year to an abrupt end...he still managed to establish career highs in RBI (57), home runs (7) and triples...he also finished fourth in the league with 45 stolen bases, the first time in 4 seasons that he didn't win the league theft crown...his season started slowly offensively, hitting just .133 through his first 10 games (6-for-45)...he returned from his maternal grandmother's funeral in North Carolina on April 18 and had a 3-hit game against the Rockies, igniting an 8-game hitting streak...Tony opened the month of May with a 3-hit effort in Milwaukee on May 2 which triggered a career-high 24-game hitting streak, the longest in the N.L. during the 2000 season, matched in July and August by Houston's Tony Eusebio...Womack batted .360 (40-for-111) during his streak with 23 runs scored...he hit his fourth career game-opening home run on May 14 in San Diego...he had a 10-game hitting streak in mid-June, his second of 4 streaks of at least 10 games during the 2000 season...Tony added another 10-game streak from July 2-14, then had a 12-gamer from August 3-15...he recorded his 10th career 4-hit game on June 21 against the Padres, highlighted by a pair of triples, tying his own club record, the only Diamondback to triple twice in a game...he established a franchise record with 4 stolen bases vs. the Braves on August 3, tying a personal best established while with Pittsburgh in 1997...he made a late-season run in the stolen base race, matching a personal high for any month by stealing 17 bases in August while getting caught only once and featuring a streak of 15 consecutive successful thefts...Tony finished the year making good on 25 of his last 27 theft attempts...the most dramatic of his 7 home runs was the first walk-off homer of his career staking Randy Johnson to a 3-2 win over the Cardinals on July 20, hitting a game-ending 2-run shot off of Dave Veres...Womack finished off the first triple play in franchise history on May 31, taking Damian Miller's throw and tagging out Edgar Renteria of St. Louis at third base after Mark McGwire's fly ball was caught by Steve Finley and relayed to Miller, catching Placido Polanco as he tried to score.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Acquired from Pittsburgh just a week into spring training (February 26), Tony led the majors in stolen bases with 72 while making the position switch from second baseman to rightfielder...he became the first player to lead the N.L. in thefts for at least 3 straight seasons since Vince Coleman (1985-90)...the year did not start as smoothly as he would have liked, suffering a fractured right ulna just a couple of days into the exhibition season, the result of a Jim Parque pitch, delaying his D'Back debut until the home opener on April 12...he had a career-high tying 4-hit game on May 7 in New York, featuring the first 2-triple game in franchise history...he also established a club record with 14 consecutive thefts without being caught...he hit the first inside-the-park home run in franchise history on July 21 in Houston, a grand slam that staked the D'Backs to a 7-4 win...trailing 4-3 in the eighth inning and facing an 0-2 pitch from Billy Wagner, Tony delivered a sinking liner to left that went to the wall untouched, and the race was on...it was also the first grand slam of his career, and the first inside-the-park grand slam in the majors since May 3, 1998 (Seattle's Dan Wilson)...the last N.L. inside-the-park slam was Tony Gwynn on June 26, 1997 in Dodger Stadium...things only got better for Womack as the year progressed, hitting safely in 20 of the last 21 games, including a season-high 14-game hitting streak that ran through the season finale, hitting .317 (20-for-63)...on the bases, Tony went 63-for-76 (83%) when swiping second base, and was a perfect 9-for-9 while pilfering third base. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Tony was the leadoff man in each of the 4 games vs. the Mets, playing in rightfield in the first and third games, and serving as the starting shortstop in games 2 & 4...he scuffled offensively, going just 2-for-18 (.111) with a triple and 2 runs scored...the triple occurred in his second post-season at bat in the first game of the series on October 5. 1998—Tony's second full season with the Pirates, he led the National League in stolen bases for the second straight year, pilfering 58 bases, the first Pirate since Omar Moreno (1978-79) to lead the league in thefts in consecutive seasons...he was the second toughest to double-up in the N.L., hitting into just 4 double plays, a 1 in every 164 at bat ratio...Tony established a major league record by going 918 at bats without grounding into a double play (May 27, 1997 to August 5, 1998), spanning 220 games and 980 plate appearances...he had 32 infield hits, including 11 bunt hits...he was Pittsburgh's Opening Day second baseman for the second straight year, but closed the year with 5 starts in centerfield...he tied a career-high with 4 hits on July 5 at Wrigley Field...Tony had a then career-best 16-game hitting streak from July 3-22, the longest streak by a Buc in '98, hitting a sizzling .507 (34-for-67), raising his season average from .241 to .284...he had the second inside-the-park homer of his career on July 13 vs. the Cubs...he swiped 20 consecutive bases from July 5-August 16, the second best streak of his career...he was 50-for-56 (89%) when attempting to steal second base and 8-for-10 when trying to take third. 1997—His first full season in the majors, Tony led the N.L. in stolen bases (60)...he grounded into just 6 DP's, a 1 in 106.8 AB ratio, all 6 occurring before May 28...he led the Pirates with 51 multi-hit games, and had a team-high 28 infield hits, including 9 bunt hits...his 60 thefts were the most by a Pirate since Omar Moreno swiped 60 in 1982 (Moreno was also the last Pirate to lead the N.L. in steals with 77 in 1979)...Tony stole a club record 32 in a row between April 6 and July 4, breaking Max Carey's mark of 31 in 1922...he was named to the National League All-Star squad, just the fifth Pittsburgh second baseman to be named to the team, joining Carlos Garcia (1994), Phil Garner (1980-81), Bill Mazeroski (1958-59, 1962-64 & 1967) and Frank Gustine (1946)...hit his first major league homer on April 16 at San Diego off of Dario Veras...collected first career inside-the-park homer on May 26 vs. the Cubs...Tony hit his first career leadoff homer on July 27 at San Francisco, hitting Mark Gardner's first pitch of the first game of a doubleheader, then set a career-high with 4 hits in the second game...he hit his second game-opening homer on August 19 off of San Diego's Pete Smith in Three Rivers...he went 4-for-4 with a club record tying 4 stolen bases on Sept. 6 at Cincinnati (Moreno was also the last Pirate to swipe 4 in a game on June 2, 1980)...he was 44-for-49 (90%) when attempting to steal second base, and 16-of-18 (89%) when swiping third...Tony swiped second and third in the same inning 6 times...he had off-season surgery to repair soft tissue injury in his left knee. 1996—He spent the full-season with Calgary (AAA), earning the fans' vote as the Cannons' Most Popular Player...he ranked second in the PCL in stolen bases, while his 11 triples were the second most in team history...he played 79 games at shortstop, 40 at 2nd base and 16 in centerfield...Tony's contract was purchased by Pittsburgh on Sept. 4, and he made his first major league start in centerfield on Sept. 8 in Los Angeles...he made 3 starts in center and 2 at second with the Pirates, while also playing rightfield on Sept. 27 at Chicago. 1995—Opened the year on the Calgary roster, but was optioned to Carolina (AA) on June 3... despite abbreviated season with Carolina, he led the club with 31 stolen bases. 1994—Began the year with Buffalo (AAA)...he was recalled by the Pirates on May 31, appearing in 2 games, then was optioned back to Buffalo on June 8...was recalled again on July 20, appearing in 3 games, then was optioned once again on August 2, finishing the year with Buffalo...he led the club and ranked second in the American Association in stolen bases (41)... set a Buffalo franchise record for most at bats in a year without a home run (421), breaking Felix Fermin's mark in 1988 (352 at bats). 1993—Split the year between Salem (A) and Carolina, combining the 2 stops for a .301 mark with 41 RBI and 49 stolen bases in 132 games...his contract was purchased by the Bucs on Sept. 8 and he debuted 2 nights later as a pinch runner vs. Colorado...Tony made 5 starts at short for the Pirates and collected his first major league hit on Sept. 21 off the Mets' Dave Telgheder...picked up his first 2 major league stolen bases on Sept. 29 vs. Philly. 1992—Spent the entire year with Augusta (A), swiping 50 bases in 75 tries, ranking fourth in the league in thefts. 1991—His first professional season, Tony signed as a seventh round pick by the Pirates and spent the year with Welland (Rookie).

PERSONAL

Anthony Darrell (Tony) Womack...he and his wife, Janet, have a daughter, Jessica (9/12/95) and a son, Alsander (3/16/99)...Tony graduated from Gretna (VA) High School, lettering in baseball and basketball...his high school #7 was retired, the first Gretna athlete to have a jersey retired...he earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Guilford (NC) College...Tony was the co-recipient with Kevin Young of the 1997 Clemente Award, given annually since 1973 by the Pittsburgh chapter of the BBWAA...he is a huge proponent of literacy, and has instituted the "Tony Womack's Cover-to-Cover Reading Competition," a program to encourage grade school kids to read and attend Diamondback games as his guest as a reward...he is also a member of the Greater Phoenix Black Chamber of Commerce...he has also been a 3-time participant in the Pepsi All-Star Softball Game in Palm Springs.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

The Australian native spent the majority of last year with Ottawa (AAA) in the Montreal chain, but was placed on the temporary inactive list in order to represent his home country at home in the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney...his best overall outing with Ottawa was on May 15 at Indianapolis with 6.0 shutout inning, a 2-0 victory...he made a pair of appearances in the Olympics, suffering tough losses in each outing...he incurred a 6-4 defeat to the Netherlands in Australia's opening game, allowing 4 unearned runs in 4.1 innings, the big blow a 3-run homer after an error in the third inning...Shayne then dropped a 1-0 decision to Cuba allowing a run on 9 hits over 7.2 innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Appeared in 5 games (1 start) for Montreal, losing his only decision...he pitched for the Intercontinental Cup champion Australia, winning 3 times during the tournament...he was a 3-1 winner in the series opener over the Netherlands, allowing 3 hits over 6.1 shutout innings...he followed that with an 11-3 triumph over Chinese Taipei, then posted a victory in the semi-final against Japan, allowing 3 hits over 5.1 innings. 1998—His only full season in the majors, Bennett finished fourth among relievers in the N.L. with 91.2 innings of work, spanning 62 appearances...he was second among rookie hurlers in appearances...Shayne picked up his first major league win on May 2 against the Diamondbacks, tossing a scoreless 12th inning in the 5-4 contest...he was outstanding in July allowing 4 earned runs in 20.1 innings, a 1.77 ERA...included was his first big league save on July 30 vs. San Francisco, tossing 1.2 innings in a Montreal win...he had shoulder discomfort in late-August and was limited to just 6 games in September. 1997—His year began in AA, but he finished with his first big league experience...he did not allow an earned run in 13 straight appearances at Ottawa (AAA) from July 21-August 20, spanning 19.0 innings...Shayne had his contract purchased from Ottawa (AAA) on August 21, becoming the first Australian to play for the Expos...he made his debut on August 23 in Wrigley Field, tossing 0.2 of an inning...his first big league decision was a loss on September 22 at Atlanta. 1996—He was acquired from Boston with Rheel Cormier and Ryan McGuire in exchange for Wil Cordero and Bryan Eversgerd on January 10...Bennett spent the entire year with Harrisburg (AA), leading the staff with 53 appearances. 1995—Shayne split the year between Sarasota (A) and Trenton (AA)...he recorded 24 saves in just 52 games with Sarasota.

PERSONAL

Shayne Anthony Bennett...he is single and makes his home in Glenelg, South Australia...he attended Junior College of Du Page in Illinois...a computer aficionado, Shayne started a weekly column called the "Roo Report" on Major League Baseball's web site (www.mlb.com) in 1997 with a diary during his spring training days with Harrisburg...regular readers followed his tales of life on and off the mound through his stop in AAA then his first promotion to the majors...upon his return home, he set up the Adelaide Giants' web site (www.adelaidegiants.com.au)...he also pitches "summer" ball in Australia for Adelaide...he once played Australian football before crowds of close to 100,000 as a full-forward and full-back for the Collingwood club...Shayne was signed to his first professional contract by current Diamondbacks' Director of Scouting Mike Rizzo, as Boston's 25th pick in the 1993 June draft.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the San Francisco Giants with outfielder Chris Van Rossum as the players to be named in exchange for pitcher Felix Rodriguez, December 21, 1998.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Troy's season didn't get started until late-July due to ulnar nerve transposition surgery on April 28...Dr. Donald Sheridan performed the procedure that rerouted the nerve in his pitching arm to prevent elbow inflammation...the surgery was such a success that Brohawn was throwing in just 3 weeks...he made a trio of rehab starts in mid-July for the Rookie League club in Tucson, then was tabbed the starting pitcher for the Diamondbacks in their July 24 appearance at the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, working an inning against Cleveland...Troy then reported to the AAA club in Tucson, making 11 appearances (1 start) for the Sidewinders...he was scored upon in 4 of 5 games from August 5-19, then finished the year with 7.0 consecutive scoreless innings of relief, spanning 4 appearances...despite missing the majority of the year due to surgery, he walked just 5 men in 16.2 innings, and never more than one man in any appearance.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Troy was acquired from San Francisco in the winter leading up to the '99 campaign, going to spring training as part of Arizona's 40-man roster...he was optioned to AAA prior to the completion of camp and the injury bug bit hard early in the season with Tucson...after making 3 appearances (2 starts), he was diagnosed with a left elbow injury that required "Tommy John" surgery...Brohawn was subsequently disabled from April 24 through the end of the season...his lone decision with the Sidewinders was a win in relief on April 8, working 5.0 innings allowing 2 runs with 5 K's over Colorado Springs. 1998—Troy had his first exposure to AAA action, spending the entire season with Fresno in the San Francisco chain...he opened the year with 3 starts, then had only 2 starting assignments over his next 13 outings, before finishing the year with 14 starts. 1997—Had a breakthrough campaign for Shreveport (AA), earning Texas League in-season All-Star honors...led the league and the Giants' organization with a 2.56 ERA...he was a 3-time winner of the Howe SportsData Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Week award...kept the opposition to 3 earned runs or less in 24 of his 28 regular season and post-season starts, including the last 20 in a row...had 3 consecutive scoreless starts from July 17-27, totaling 21.0 innings, going 3-0...went 9-1 with a 1.45 ERA in his final 12 starts, beginning the stretch with an 8-game winning streak...also, picked up a double and a home run among his 4 hits. 1996—First full year at AA, where he was plagued by the long ball, surrendering a league-high 30. 1995—Second consecutive year to be affected by injury, undergoing left elbow surgery during the winter after missing latter half of '94...was not activated until July 19, but posted a 7-3 mark and 1.65 ERA in 11 outings (10 starts) for San Jose...was the Howe SportsData Pitcher-of-the-Week in final week of regular season...continued to shine in post-season play, going 2-0 with a 0.61 ERA (1 earned run in 14.2 innings), as San Jose advanced to league finals. 1994—Signed and was assigned to San Jose...season ended abruptly on July 19, when he was disabled due to left elbow tendinitis...the elbow was subsequently operated on over the winter.

PERSONAL

Michael Troy (Troy) Brohawn...he is single and makes his off-season home in Woolford, MD...he was a 1990 graduate of Cambridge South Dorchester (MD) High School...he then attended the University of Nebraska, setting 6 different team mound records, including 123 strikeouts in 111.0 innings, while earning All-America honors...he was also a teammate of current Anaheim Angel All-Star outfielder Darin Erstad.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the fifth round of the 2000 June Free Agent Draft.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS—The 2000 season was a long, yet exciting year for Brad, who was part of a College World Series champion at Louisiana State University, then enjoyed terrific success in his first professional test and wound up his year with a stint in the Arizona Fall League...once the college season ended, he signed as Arizona's fifth pick in the June draft and was assigned to High Desert (A) where Cresse dominated offensively, hitting .324 with 17 home runs and 56 RBI in just 48 games...he was 2-for-4 with a 2-run homer in his professional debut on June 25 vs. Lake Elsinore...Brad hit a pair of 3-run homers over the final 2 innings on July 17 vs. Lake Elsinore to lead the Mavs to a 9-8 win...he added another 2-homer game on July 22 to lock up California League Player-of-the-Week honors for July 17-23...Cresse had his third multi-homer effort over an 8-game stretch on July 24, drilling a first inning grand slam and a game-tying solo shot in the eighth...all told, he hit 8 home runs over an 11-game stretch from July 15-25...he finished his first full professional month with a league best 11 home runs and 40 RBI, earning the organization's Player-of-the-Month award...Brad was promoted to El Paso (AA) on August 15, where he hit .262 over 15 games with a home run and 10 RBI...Cresse was tabbed an Honorable Mention for the California League All-Star team though he played less than 2 months in the league...the long year finally caught up with Brad in October as he batted just .169 in 22 games for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS—Brad was 1 of 5 finalists for the 2000 Golden Spikes Award, a consensus first-team All American, a first-team All-SEC selection and 1 of 3 finalists for the Smith Award, presented annually by the Houston Rotary Club to the College Player-of-the-Year...he was named the recipient of the Johnny Bench Award, presented annually to the nation's outstanding catcher...he hit .388 for the College World Series champion Tigers, leading the nation in home runs (30), RBI (106) and total bases (217), with the homer and RBI totals the second best season in SEC and LSU history to Brandon Larson (1997), who had 40 homers and 188 RBI...Cresse's 78 career home runs finished second all-time in the SEC, 2 behind Eddy Furniss (LSU, 1995-98)...Brad was named to the NCAA Baton Rouge All-Tournament team hitting .545 (6-for-11) with a double, 4 homers and 9 RBI...he climaxed his amateur career by driving in the game-winning run in the championship game of the College World Series at Omaha, a single off of Stanford's Justin Wayne to snap a 5-5 tie in the bottom of the ninth and stake the Tigers to their fifth NCAA title in 10 seasons.

PERSONAL

Bradley G. Cresse...he is single and makes his home in Rancho Mirage, CA...Brad is the son of Mark Cresse, a long-time coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers, while Brad's godfather is Hall of Fame manager Tommy Lasorda...Brad was named the 2000 winner of the Win Clark Award, presented annually to the most outstanding first-year professional baseball player from Southern California, joining the likes of Mark Grace, Tony Gwynn, Tim Lincecum and Jeff Cirillo.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed to a minor league contract with an invitation to major league spring training camp, January 4, 2001.

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

Bobby signed with Cleveland on January 21 and made 7 appearances (2 starts) for the Tribe, going 0-1 with a 7.63 ERA before being released on May 16...he worked out of the pen 5 times in April, allowing 4 earned runs in 9.2 innings, a 3.72 mark...Bobby's first start resulted in a 4-2 loss at home to the Yankees on May 2, allowing 3 earned runs in 4.0 innings...he was roughed up in his final outing, surrendering 6 earned runs in 1.2 frames at Toronto on May 7, though the Indians rallied for a 10-8 victory.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1999—Witt signed with Tampa Bay in January and went to camp as one of 35 non-roster invitees to spring training... he was the only member of the Devil Ray rotation to not spend time on the disabled list, as he's been shelved only twice in his 13+ year major league career (last in 1991)...he made a team leading 32 starts, 1 shy of his career high, his eighth season of 30+ starts...tossed a 3-hit shutout on June 27 vs. Toronto and blanked the Angels on 4 hits on July 26, both in Tropicana Field and the 10th and 11th blankings of his career...the shutout of the Jays was his first since July 3, 1994, a span of 4 years, 11 months and 23 days...he lost his last 7 decisions, and combined with last year at Cleveland, entered the 2001 campaign with an 8-game drought...Bobby's last win was August 12, 1999 at Kansas City. 1998—Witt opened the season with Texas, going 5-4 with a 7.66 ERA in 14 games (13 starts)...he won his first 3 decisions of the year...he was dealt to St. Louis on June 23 for a player-to-be-named (outfielder Scarborough Green), going 2-5 with a 4.94 ERA in 17 games (5 starts) for the Cards...Bobby left the Rangers ranking second in club history behind Charlie Hough in wins (104), strikeouts (1,405) and innings (1,680.2). 1997—Led the Texas staff in innings (209.0) and tied for first on the club in starts (32) and complete games (3)...went 12-12, the seventh double-digit victory year of his career...won first 7 decisions of season, but finished year 5-12 in last 24 starts...Bobby opened the campaign with 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings (3 games-2 starts), the second longest streak by a Ranger pitcher to Jon Matlack's 19.0 straight shutout frames in 1980...the 7-0 start was the best of his career and matched Jim Kern (1979) and Jeff Russell (1988) for the best by a Texas hurler...he hit the first American League home run by a pitcher since the advent of the designated hitter on June 30 at Los Angeles off of Ismael Valdes...it was the first A.L. homer by a pitcher since Baltimore's Roric Harrison on October 3, 1972 at Cleveland...Witt's bat was sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. 1996—Went 16-12 with the Rangers, his second highest personal total while tying for the staff lead in wins, and tying for fourth best in the A.L....his 5.41 ERA was the highest ever for a pitcher who posted at least 16 victories, higher than Dan Spillner's 5.29 mark with Cleveland in 1980...Bobby picked up career win #100 on May 8, 1996 vs. Toronto...he fanned Cleveland's Jim Thome on May 29 in Arlington to record his 1,500th career strikeout. 1995—Combined stops in Florida and Texas for a 5-11 mark...he established a Marlin club record with 12 K's on July 20 vs. the Dodgers...he returned to the Rangers on August 8 for pitcher Wilson Heredia and outfielder Scott Podsekneik...Witt defeated Toronto on August 12, his first win as a Ranger since July 25, 1992 at Baltimore. 1994—Bobby led the Oakland staff in complete games (5), shutouts (3) and strikeouts (11)...he tossed a career-best 1-hitter on June 23 vs. Kansas City, the lone hit a disputed bunt single by Greg Gagne with 1 out in the sixth...Bobby fired his fourth career 2-hitter in his next start on June 28 vs. California, then blanked Boston on a 6-hitter on July 3 in Fenway Park, his third consecutive shutout, tying the Oakland club record set by Mike Torrez in 1976...Witt's scoreless inning streak was halted at 28.0 in the second inning at Baltimore on July 8. 1993—He topped the A's in wins (14), innings (220.0), complete games (5) and strikeouts (131)...Bobby tossed a 3-hit shutout on his 29th birthday against the Rangers on May 11 in Oakland, his first career start against his former club. 1992—He went a combined 10-14 with a 4.29 ERA in 31 starts with Texas and Oakland...he was traded to the A's with pitcher Jeff Russell, outfielder Ruben Sierra and cash for Jose Canseco on August 31...Witt fanned Chicago's Lance Johnson on May 28 for his 1,000th career strikeout. 1991—Season was shortened to 16 starts due to shoulder and elbow problems...he felt pain in his right shoulder after a start on May 26 at Seattle and was diagnosed with a partial tear of his right rotator cuff...no surgery was required, and after an extended rest he did a rehab stint at Oklahoma City...he was activated on July 31, then after an outing on September 17 he was diagnosed with a bone spur in his right elbow and shut down for the remainder of the year...the spur was surgically removed on September 24. 1990—Bobby was named the Rangers Pitcher-of-the-Year, leading the club with a career-high 17 wins...he finished second in the A.L. with a career-high 221 strikeouts, trailing teammate Nolan Ryan...Witt went 14-2 in his last 19 starts, including a Ranger record 12 consecutive wins from June 28-September 6, the longest victory string in the majors since 1986...he was the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month for July with a 5-0 mark...his 17th win of the year was a 2-hitter at Minnesota on September 21. 1989—Bobby worked 10.0 innings for the second time in his career on July 23 vs. the Yankees...he tossed a pair of 2-hitters, July 18 vs. Boston and September 29 at California. 1988—Bobby finished third in the A.L. with 13 complete games...he went the distance in 12 of his last 16 starts, posting an 8-5 mark and 2.93 ERA, pitching 138.0 innings out of a possible 140.1...he tied a team record with 9 consecutive complete games from July 10-August 24...he opened the year 0-5 with a 7.68 ERA in 6 starts and was optioned to AAA on May 10. 1987—Witt led the A.L. with a .219 opponents average against and a ratio of 7.17 hits per 9-innings...he was on the D.L. for the first time in his career from May 21-June 20 with a right shoulder strain...he matched a big league record with 4 strikeouts in an inning on August 2 vs. Baltimore...he tossed his first career complete game on September 30 vs. Minnesota, his 55th career start. 1986—Just his second year as a pro, Bobby spent the entire season with the Rangers...he went 7-0 with a 3.76 ERA over his final 12 outings...he became the first pitcher to post his first professional win in the majors since David Clyde on April 22, 1973 at Toronto (Witt went 0-6 in the minors in 1985)...a 4-0, 0.75 spring training allowed Bobby to jump from 11 games of minor league experience to the majors...he debuted with a no decision on April 10 vs. the Blue Jays. 1985—Bobby went 0-6 with Tulsa, missing the majority of August with a sore pitching arm.

PERSONAL

Robert Andrew (Bobby) Witt...he and his wife, Lauri, and daughters, Nicole (9/25/88), Kianna (1/15/91) and Shaley (9/14/94), make their home in Colleyville, TX...Bobby was a 1982 graduate of Canton (MA) High School, where he lettered in baseball and football...he then attended the University of Oklahoma in Norman, OK, combining 2 seasons for a 17-6 record and 3.76 ERA, fanning 231 men in 196.2 innings, earning All-Big 8 honors while leading the conference in strikeouts for both seasons...Witt was also an All-American in 1985 going 7-3 with a 3.90 ERA...he was a member of the 1984 U.S. Olympic team...Bobby was the third overall player selected in the first round of the 1985 draft by the Texas Rangers...he was initially drafted by the Cincinnati Reds in the seventh round of the '82 draft, but did not sign...Witt was the 1997 recipient of the Harold McKinney Good Guy Award by the Dallas-Fort Worth BBWAA...he also donated tickets to the Multiple Sclerosis Read-a-thon program in 1996.

MLB All-Star Tour of Japan

Diamondbacks' Randy Johnson and Luis Gonzalez were among 28 members of the Major League Baseball All-Star team that made an 8-game tour of Japan last November. The MLB Stars went 5-2-1.

The "Big Unit" answers questions through an interpreter after his Game #2 start in the Tokyo Dome.

"Gonzo" continued his torrid hitting in November, batting .300 during the visit to Japan.

Expansion History

On November 18, 1997, at the Phoenix Civic Plaza, the Arizona Diamondbacks and Tampa Bay Devil Rays officially joined the major league baseball fraternity by drafting 35 players each to make up their inaugural rosters. Tampa Bay started the festivities by selecting Tony Saunders, then the Diamondbacks followed by drafting Brian Anderson from the Cleveland Indians. Entering spring training 2001, the Diamondbacks have six players on their 40-man roster who were among the original expansion selections. Included is Russ Springer, who was selected in the third round and opened the 1998 season with Arizona before being traded to Atlanta at mid-season. He has since rejoined the D'Backs as a free agent.

Following are the original 35 players selected by the Diamondbacks. The players in boldface type are the six original draftees who were with the Diamondbacks in spring training this year.

Division Series -- 1999

The Diamondbacks not only had their first taste of post-season play in 1999, they also had the fastest taste in major league expansion history, winning the Western Division by 14 games to qualify for the second season in their second season, a year faster than the previous best. Colorado held the previous quickest qualification at three years, though they did so in 1995 as a Wild Card entry and in a 144-game season. Arizona's division title came six years faster than any other expansion club, beating the New York Mets and Kansas City Royals who each won a title in their eighth campaign.

By virtue of their division title, the Diamondbacks had a home-field advantage, taking on the New York Mets, who qualified as the Wild Card club with a one-game playoff victory in Cincinnati the day before. The Mets seemed to still be riding the momentum from their visit to Cincinnati, immediately taking the home-field edge away from Arizona with an 8-4 win in the series opener. The D'Backs rallied to even the series at a game apiece behind the arm of Todd Stottlemire and bat of Steve Finley, cruising to a 7-1 win in game #2. Stottlemire, continuing his amazing return from a tear in his right labrum, worked 6.2 innings of 4-hit ball, allowing just a run, while Finley went 2-for-3 with a double and 5 RBI. Matt Williams also chipped in with 3 hits and 3 runs scored.

The Diamondbacks weren't as fortunate upon arriving in New York, losing both games before getting a shot at returning to Bank One Ballpark for a possible fifth game. The Mets dominated game #3, posting a 9-2 win in their return to Shea, scoring 3 times off of starter Omar Daal in a 4-inning stint, then putting the game away with a 6-run sixth inning.

Arizona's season came to an abrupt and heartbreaking end in a Saturday matinee at Shea, as Todd Pratt ended the affair and the Diamondbacks season with a 10th inning homer. The Diamondbacks had taken a 3-2 lead in the eighth, when Jay Bell doubled home a pair of runs, missing a 3-run homer by a matter of inches. Pratt, subbing for the injured Mike Piazza, had been hitless in 7 at bats in the series prior to sending the Mets to the next level with his shot just out of Finley's reach in centerfield.

A full-page photograph of a baseball player in a white pinstriped uniform, wearing a black helmet and batting gloves, captured in the middle of a powerful swing. The player is in the foreground, with another player in a similar uniform visible in the background, also swinging. The scene is set on a baseball field with a dirt infield and green grass.

Minor Leagues and Scouting

Arizona's fifth round pick in last summer's draft, Brad Cresse went from a College World Series title with LSU to hit .324 with 17 home runs and 56 RBI in 48 games with High Desert.

Scouting

Kendall Carter
National Supervisor

Kendall Carter was promoted to National Supervisor prior to the 1997 season after a year as the Diamondbacks' Western Region Supervisor. He joined the Diamondbacks after five years as a scout for the Seattle Mariners.

Signed as the Texas Rangers' 14th round selection in the 1984 June draft, Carter spent two years in Class A with Ranger farm teams in the Midwest and Florida State Leagues.

An Arizona native, Carter was the Class AAA player-of-the-year at Scottsdale Coronado High in 1980. He stayed in the area and pitched for Arizona State University from 1981-84, compiling a 47-9 record. He still holds the school mark for most pitching appearances (102) and shares the school record for most victories (47) with Craig Swan. Carter set an NCAA freshman record for victories (19-1) for ASU's 1981 national championship team, and earned All-America honors for his effort. The 19 wins also tied the school record for victories in a single season.

As an assistant coach at ASU from 1986-90, his primary position was recruiting coordinator. The Sun Devils advanced to the College World Series in 1987 and 1988.

Ed Durkin
Eastern Supervisor

Ed Durkin was promoted to his current position, Eastern Regional Supervisor, a year ago. He enters his fifth season with the Diamondbacks, having joined the organization in September, 1996. In his first role with the club, he was the team's professional scouting supervisor, which involved him heavily with the 1997 Major League Expansion Draft.

Durkin became a member of Arizona's scouting department after serving the Milwaukee Brewers as a full-time scout beginning in 1988 and a national cross-checker from 1993-96. He makes his home in Safety Harbor, FL.

Kris Kline
Central Supervisor

Kris Kline is in his second season with the Arizona organization, both as Supervisor for the Central Region. After four seasons as a player in the Anaheim Angels' minor league system, Kline spent the next 10 years as a scout for the Angels before joining the Diamondbacks.

As an amateur in Arizona, Kline helped Scottsdale Coronado High School capture the state title in 1979 and was a member of Grand Canyon's NAIA national championship team in 1982.

Charles Scott West Supervisor

Charles Scott joined the Diamondbacks in November and took over the duties of Western Regional Supervisor. After serving as a scout for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays for four years, he switched to the other of Major League Baseball's newest teams. He received the Topps Scout-of-the-Month Award for August 1997. In addition to his scouting duties, Scott also coached a high school Connie Mack team in 1998 and 1999.

He played collegiately at Arizona State University and was drafted in 1985 by the Cleveland Indians. Scott played parts of nine seasons in the Indians, Minnesota Twins and Seattle Mariners systems. He resides in Novato, CA.

International Scouting

Junior Noboa

From the first players signed (both from the Dominican Republic) by the organization in 1995, the Diamondbacks have placed a great emphasis on scouting talent from around the globe. The D'Backs have scouted and signed players from Australia, Canada, Colombia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Korea, Mexico, Netherlands Antilles, Nicaragua, Panama, and Venezuela. In addition to players from the U.S. and Puerto Rico, the Diamondbacks have also signed players who previously played in Japan and Taiwan.

Junior Noboa serves as Latin-American Coordinator and also acts as director of the Diamondbacks' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic.

Noboa was the team's first international hire in August 1995, and a month later signed the organization's first players. In 1997, he was also the first recipient of the Roland Hemond Award, given annually to the member of the baseball department who best exemplifies the "Diamondback" approach to their work. In 1999, Noboa found Geraldo Guzman, a carpenter who had not played professionally since 1992 and appeared in 13 games for Arizona in 2000.

Jim Marshall continues to serve as Director of Pacific Rim Operations, a role he has filled since joining the organization in 1996. His main duty is to maintain relations with baseball organizations in Australia, Japan, Korea, and Taiwan. He also serves as a major league and advance scout for the Diamondbacks.

Marshall played in the major leagues for five seasons from 1958-62, including stints with the Baltimore Orioles, the Chicago Cubs, San Francisco Giants, the original 1962 New York Mets and the Pittsburgh Pirates. He managed the Cubs from 1974-76 and the Oakland Athletics in 1979.

His first visit to Japan came on a 1960 goodwill tour while with the Giants. Three years later he signed with the Chunichi Dragons of the Japanese Central League and hit .268 with 78 home runs and 252 RBI in three seasons there.

2000 Organizational Awards

Alex Cabrera
Player of the Year

Bret Prinz
Pitcher of the Year

Power-hitting Alex Cabrera led all minor leaguers with 39 home runs, despite playing only 76 minor league games. He earned Howe Sportsdata's and USA Today Baseball Weekly's Minor League Player-of-the-Year awards. The accolades did not stop there, as he was also the designated hitter on Baseball America's Minor League All-Star team and Topps' Texas League Player-of-the-Month for both May and June.

Cabrera hit 21 home runs during May, the second most ever for a minor league player (Dick Stuart, 23, June 1956 for Lincoln of the Western League). Upon his recall to the major leagues on June 26, Cabrera homered in his first major league plate appearance becoming the 78th player to hit a home run in his first major league at bat.

Signed as a minor league free agent after playing two years in Mexico and a year in Taiwan, Cabrera also led Diamondback minor leaguers with a .353 average.

During spring training, Bret Prinz changed his delivery and role on the pitching staff. At the urging of the minor league coaching staff, he dropped down to a sidearm delivery that maintained his velocity and increased his control. He went from starting 23 games in 1999 to a dominant closer in 2000.

An 18th round draft pick in 1998 out of Phoenix College, Prinz opened the year with the South Bend Silver Hawks of the Class A Midwest League going 1-0 with a save while working 7.1 innings (10 strikeouts and only 2 hits and a walk). He was promoted to Class AA on April 25 and went 9-1 with 26 saves for the El Paso Diablos, as they captured the Texas League's second-half title. He combined the two stints for a 10-1 record with 27 saves, a 3.18 ERA and 79 strikeouts in 68.0 innings.

Prinz finished second in the Texas League in saves and earned the circuit's Rolands Relief Man Award with 94 points. Combined with his work with South Bend, he finished fourth among all minor leaguers with 99 overall points.

2000 First-Year Player Draft

Arizona's first selection in the 2000 June free agent draft was righthanded pitcher Mike Schultz from Loyola Marymount. It was the first time in the organization's history that the team's initial pick was a collegiate player. Schultz was the first of 18 college pitchers taken by Arizona in the draft. The D'Backs signed their first nine picks, 18 of their first 20, and 29 of 49 overall.

Player Development

Ron Hassey
Field Coordinator

Ht: 6-2

Born: February 27, 1952 in Tucson, AZ

Wt: 200

Residence: Tucson, AZ

As Field Coordinator, Ron Hassey will oversee the hitting, pitching, and catching programs throughout the Arizona's farm system. He will be responsible for the minor league spring training operations and after the season will run the Diamondbacks' instructional league in Tucson. During the season he will serve as a roving instructor.

Hassey spent 14 seasons in the majors as a catcher playing for the Cleveland Indians, Chicago Cubs, New York Yankees, Chicago White Sox, Oakland Athletics and Montreal Expos. He hit .266 in 1,192 career contests and is the only catcher in major league history to catch 2 perfect games. While with Cleveland, Hassey called the signals on May 5, 1981 for Len Barker's perfect game against the Toronto Blue Jays, then was behind the plate ten years later when the Expos' Dennis Martinez mastered the Dodgers in Los Angeles on July 28, 1991.

After his playing career ended, Hassey spent 1992 as an advance scout for the New York Yankees before becoming a member of the Colorado Rockies' original coaching staff in 1993. Following three seasons in Denver, Hassey served as bench coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and joined the Diamondbacks prior to the 1997 season. He was involved in scouting for the 1997 Major League Expansion Draft.

A native of Tucson, Hassey played baseball at the University of Arizona, earned All-America honors and was a member of the 1976 squad that won the national championship.

Bobby Dickerson
Infield Coordinator

Ht: 6-0

Born: September 4, 1965 in Laurel, MS

Wt: 182

Residence: Laurel, MS

Bobby Dickerson returns as Infield Coordinator after spending the 2000 season in the dugout for the Class AA El Paso Diablos. He guided the Diablos to the second-half title, his third post-season berth in as many seasons as a minor league manager. In 1998, Dickerson joined the Diamondbacks as Infield Coordinator after working in the Baltimore Orioles farm system for five years. A year later he assumed the duties of Field Coordinator.

Originally drafted by the New York Yankees in 1987, Dickerson played seven seasons in the minor leagues and began his coaching career as a player/coach in 1993 for the Orioles' Rochester affiliate in the Class AAA International League. He was the Orioles' minor league infield instructor from 1994-97 and added managing duties in both 1996 and 1997. He guided the Orioles' short-season Appalachian League affiliate in Bluefield to league championships both seasons.

While playing college ball at Nicholls State, he set school records for home runs (28) and doubles (58).

Keith Wilson
Strength and Conditioning Coordinator

Ht: 6-0

Born: December 31, 1973 in Phoenix, AZ

Wt: 200

Residence: Oro Valley, AZ

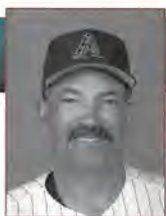

Keith Wilson returns for his sixth year in the Arizona organization and fourth season in the strength and conditioning program. This is his second season as the strength and conditioning program's coordinator.

Wilson oversees the strength and conditioning program including the strength coaches for the six minor league affiliates and the Diamondbacks' baseball academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic. During the winter, Wilson monitors the off-season programs of all the players throughout the minor league system.

After graduation from Grand Canyon University, Wilson signed with the Diamondbacks as a non-drafted free agent. He played in the farm system in 1996 for Lethbridge and 1997 for the California League champion High Desert Mavericks. He returned to Lethbridge for the 1998 season in a player/coach role. He was promoted to a full-time coaching position as the strength and conditioning coach for High Desert in 1999.

John Denny - Organizational Pitching Instructor

Born: November 8, 1952 in Prescott, AZ

Wt: 190

Residence: Tucson, AZ

Ht: 6-3

John Denny joins the Diamondbacks and will serve as Pitching Instructor. In addition to working with pitchers during spring training, extended spring training and instructional league, he will remain in Tucson during the summer and assist players with their "on the field" rehab work.

Denny spent parts of 13 seasons in the major leagues and won the NL's Cy Young Award in 1983 with a 19-6 record and a 2.37 ERA to help lead the Philadelphia Phillies into the World Series. He won the first game of the series 2-1 over the Baltimore Orioles. It was the only game the Phillies won.

He made his major league debut with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1974 and led the NL with a 2.52 ERA in 1976. He went to the Cleveland Indians in 1980 and was traded to Philadelphia near the end of the 1982 season. He finished his career with Cincinnati in 1986. He had a 123-108 record and a 3.59 ERA. He struck out 1,146 hitters and walked 778 in 2,148.2 innings.

Covering the Diamondbacks

A veteran of sitting behind the microphone, Bob Brenly meets the press after being named manager of the Diamondbacks

Broadcasters

Thom Brenneman Television and Radio Play-by-Play

One of the most versatile announcers in the industry, Thom is in his fourth season on the air with the Diamondbacks, but his sixth year with the organization. Thom will handle the play-by-play duties on 3TV and FOX Sports Net, and make periodic appearances in the play-by-play chair on KTAR Radio. He also serves as host of the weekly magazine show "D-Backs, Playin' Hardball" on 3TV.

In addition to his work with the Diamondbacks, Brenneman continues his role with FOX Network's Major League Baseball telecasts. Last season, Brenneman capped his regular season with several postseason assignments, including Game Five of the American League Division Series between Oakland and the New York Yankees.

Brenneman, 37, joined the Diamondbacks two years before they took the field. He came to Arizona after six years with the Chicago Cubs, working on both WGN Television and Radio. Prior to that, Thom spent two seasons working alongside his father, Hall of Fame broadcaster Marty Brenneman, with the Cincinnati Reds. In addition to calling Reds games on television with Hall of Fame catcher Johnny Bench, Thom spent time as a weekend sports anchor for WLWT-TV, and as morning drive sports anchor on WLW Radio.

Thom's play-by-play resume includes college basketball for the University of Cincinnati telecasts and NFL Football for FOX. In addition, Thom manned the FOX microphone for the Cotton Bowl Football Classic the last two years. He also accepted an invitation from Host Communications to work the NCAA Basketball Tournament this March for CBS Radio. Fans can even hear Thom's work on their computers. For the last two years, Thom served as the "voice" of Microsoft Baseball, and this year can be heard with former partner Bob Brenly as the voices of Acclaim Baseball.

Over the off-season, Thom lost a broadcast partner when the aforementioned Brenly accepted the Diamondbacks managerial role, but gained a life partner, as he and the former Polly Rassi were wed in November. The Brenneman's have three dogs in their Scottsdale home, Bear, Wiley and newcomer Bora, who the couple "adopted" and imported from Bora Bora where they honeymooned there last year. As if he weren't busy enough last year, Thom returned to Ohio University to complete degrees in both political science and communications.

Jim Traber

Television and Radio Analyst

Former major league first baseman/outfielder Jim Traber is the newest member of the Diamondbacks' broadcast team. Traber will serve as analyst for telecasts on 3TV and FOX Sports Net, as well as on KTAR Radio.

Traber spent seven seasons in the Baltimore Orioles organization, playing in 264 games at the major league level over a four-year span (1986-89). Traber then spent two seasons with the Kintetsu Buffaloes in Japan. In two seasons, Traber had a batting average of .287, with 53 home runs and 184 RBI, tying Orestes Destrade for the Pacific League RBI title with 92 in 1991.

Jim made a successful transition from athlete to broadcaster, becoming a sports talk show host. Traber's broadcast experience includes a stint in the Valley, hosting a talk show in Phoenix for one year, and has been host of a show for the past nine years in Oklahoma City, and has been a frequent host of ESPN Radio's "GameNight". While in Phoenix, Traber appeared as a contributor to FOX Sports Net's pregame show prior to Diamondbacks' telecasts during the 1999 season.

Traber played his college baseball at Oklahoma State University, where he also quarterbacked the Cowboys during the football season.

Traber and his wife Julie have five children, Trabes (13), Chelsea (11), Beau (10), Katelyn (9) and Courtney (8).

Greg Schulte

Radio and Television Play-By-Play

Valley sportscasting veteran Greg Schulte is in his fourth year as a play-by-play announcer for the Diamondbacks. Greg will be heard again on KTAR Radio, and will move to the television side on both 3TV and FOX Sports Net when Thom Brennaman is away on his FOX Network assignments on weekends.

A part of the Phoenix radio scene since 1979, Greg joined the Diamondbacks after spending 14 years at the Diamondbacks flagship radio station, KTAR. Over that time, Schulte was involved with nearly every major sports entity in the market. He served for 15 seasons with the Phoenix Suns, working with Al McCoy first as producer, and, for the last two seasons, as color commentator. He also served as analyst for Arizona State University football and basketball, and shared play-by-play duties for ASU Baseball. In addition, Greg spent three years as pre and post-game host for the NFL Cardinals broadcasts after they arrived from St. Louis.

While he has been involved in a variety of sports, it doesn't take long to realize that baseball is Greg's passion. Intense preparation is the key to each Schulte broadcast. That, coupled with a natural enthusiasm for his craft, has made Greg a favorite with Diamondbacks fans. Greg's talent has also been noticed nationally, as he and partner Rod Allen were selected to broadcast selected Arizona Fall League games last November on MLB Radio.

Prior to his arrival in Arizona, Schulte was sports director at WQUA in Moline, IL, and also handled play-by-play duties for University of Iowa basketball. Greg and his wife of 27 years, Nancy, have two children, Scott (20) and Stephanie (16), and reside in Glendale.

Rod Allen

Radio and Television Analyst

A former player and coach, Rod Allen brings a unique insight to Diamondbacks' game broadcasts. Allen is in his fourth year on the broadcast team, and will offer analysis KTAR Radio, as well as 3TV and Fox Sports Net telecasts.

Rod's knowledge of the game and the players is evident in each broadcast, and has made him a favorite with Diamondbacks fans. Rod's work has also gained him notoriety with his peers, as he and broadcast partner Greg Schulte teamed to broadcast selected Arizona Fall League games on MLB Radio this past October and November.

Allen spent 15 seasons as a player in professional baseball, including major league stints with Seattle (1983), Detroit (1984) and Cleveland (1988). Allen then played three seasons with Hiroshima of Japan's Central League. Allen hit a pair of home runs in the 1991 Japan Series against Seibu, and set a Japan Pro Baseball record with home runs in 4 consecutive at bats. He was originally selected by the Chicago White Sox in the 6th round of the 1977 draft.

Rod's coaching resume includes four seasons as a hitting instructor with the Florida Marlins (1992-95). He and his wife, Adrian, have a son, Andrew (7/10/89), and daughter, Rachel (2/12/91). Rod also has a son, Rod Jr. (9/21/83) who is following in his dad's footsteps, playing baseball at Arizona State University, and a daughter, Rhonda (11/13/76).

Joe Garagiola Television Analyst

Any baseball team would love to have a Hall of Famer to pinch-hit when called upon, and the Diamondbacks' broadcast team can boast just that, as Joe Garagiola returns for his fourth season as an analyst.

The 1991 winner of the Ford C. Frick award and member of the broadcasters' wing of the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Garagiola has combined insight and humor over five decades of baseball broadcasting, including nearly 25 years on the Saturday Game of the Week telecasts on NBC. In addition, Garagiola spent 11 years as a co-host on NBC's Today Show, as well serving as host of a number of popular game shows.

Garagiola's broadcasting career began shortly after his playing career ended. Joe broke into the major leagues in 1946 as a catcher with the St. Louis Cardinals, and contributed four hits in Game Four of the 1946 World Series, won by the Cardinals in six games. Joe also played with the Chicago Cubs, New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates. Upon retirement in 1954, Garagiola was offered a position on the Cardinals' broadcast team, working with fellow Hall of Famers Harry Caray and Jack Buck. Garagiola would eventually move to the television booth with the New York Yankees, working with the initial co-winner of the Ford C. Frick award, Red Barber. At NBC, Garagiola shared the booth with two more Cooperstown enshrinees, Curt Gowdy and Vin Scully.

A Valley resident, Garagiola has been extremely active in the community and was honored as the 1998 recipient of the Children's MVP Award presented by the Jim Eisenreich Foundation. The award goes to a former player who has made significant contributions to children's causes. Garagiola has been cited for his anti-tobacco efforts and for his work with Native American children. He works tirelessly for B.A.T., the Baseball Assistance Team, and is very visible at major league spring training camps, educating players on the evils of spit tobacco.

Jeff Munn Radio Play-by-Play

Jeff Munn, the Arizona Diamondbacks' Public Address Announcer since the club's inception, will add to his duties this season as the club's radio play-by-play announcer during weekends when Thom Brennaman is away on assignment for FOX, and Greg Schulte is handling television play-by-play duties.

Munn, a veteran of 17 years in radio, primarily as a news anchor and reporter, will continue to serve as the Public Address Announcer when he is not behind the radio microphone. Over the past 10 seasons, Munn has served as the Public Address Announcer for the NBA Phoenix Suns and has also been the stadium announcer for Arizona State University football for the past 14 seasons, and been the voice of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl for a decade.

In 1996, Munn was selected as one of four announcers for the basketball competition at the Atlanta Summer Olympics, and handled the announcing duties for the Men's Gold Medal Game. His resume also features P.A. work for the 1993 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, the 1995 NBA All-Star Game, 2000 WNBA All-Star Game, and the 1997 ArenaBowl (Arena Football).

Munn has been an announcer for 25 years, starting as a senior at Phoenix Carl Hayden High School. A year later, he took on the football and men's basketball announcing at Phoenix College. In 1980, he was hired by Arizona State to be the baseball stadium announcer, and served in that capacity for 12 seasons. In addition to baseball, Munn announced Women's Volleyball, Wrestling, Gymnastics, Women's Basketball, Softball and Track and Field for the Sun Devils. He also served as men's basketball announcer for four seasons.

Munn, 42, attended Arizona State University, majoring in history. He resides in Tempe with his wife Laurie, and their two children, Patrick (5) and Hayley (2).

Diamondbacks en Español

The Diamondbacks have new homes for their Spanish broadcasts in 2001. All 81 home games and 13 selected road games will be broadcast on KSUN (1400 AM), while 25 home games are set for telecast on ¡MAS!

Miguel Quintana Spanish Radio Play-by-Play

Miguel Quintana, who began his broadcast career in Phoenix 20 years ago, begins his fourth season as the Diamondbacks' Spanish play-by-play voice. Quintana will be heard on all 91 games to be broadcast on KSUN Radio.

Miguel began his career as a 15-year old sportswriter for El Sol in Agua Prieta, Sonora. In 1981, he joined KIFN Radio (now KVVA) in Phoenix as a sports commentator, and later moved to KTVW (Channel 33), eventually becoming sports director. Quintana also worked in Los Angeles for KVEA-TV, before returning to the Valley in 1995 to serve as play-by-play voice for the Arizona Sandsharks indoor soccer team.

Miguel has been a baseball commentator for the Mexican Pacific League and has done play-by-play for the Arizona Rattlers. He has three daughters, Lisette (17), Jasmine (12) and Jennifer (7).

Oscar Soria

Spanish Television and Radio Analyst

At the tender age of 30, Oscar Soria is one of the most respected baseball commentators in the Hispanic community. Oscar is in his second full season as an analyst on Diamondbacks' Spanish broadcasts, working with Miguel Quintana on KSUN Radio, and lending his insights to the telecasts on ¡MAS!

Soria is a veteran of 12 seasons as a broadcaster with the Hermosillo Naranjeros, and has been in the booth for four Caribbean Series, including the 1996 series when Mexico took the crown in Santo Domingo. He also covers the Diamondbacks for El Imparcial, writing a daily column, and when in Hermosillo, he hosts a television show on baseball. Oscar was among the nominees of announcers for the Mexican Pacific League "All Century Team", finishing second in the balloting.

Oscar has also covered basketball, boxing, soccer, tennis and football for Telemán in Sonora. The 30-year-old graduated from Universidad del Noroeste with a degree in accounting. Oscar and his wife, Benny, make thier home in Hermosillo.

Richard Saenz Director of Hispanic Marketing/Spanish Radio Analyst

The man overseeing the Diamondbacks' marketing efforts in the Hispanic community will put on the headset this season, as Richard Saenz will serve as a fill-in analyst on the Diamondbacks' Spanish radio broadcasts on KSUN, when Oscar Soria is working on ¡MAS! Telecasts.

Saenz has been with the Diamondbacks' organization since 1996. Prior to that, he spent 18 years with the Arizona Electric Power Cooperative in his native Benson, eventually becoming the company's Director of Business Development. Saenz also served for years as Mayor of Benson (1989-93).

Saenz played baseball for two years at Cochise College in Douglas, then continued his education at Eastern Oregon State University in LaGrand, Ore.

Remembering Our Friends

Sadly the Diamondbacks lost another member of their family over the winter with the untimely passing of John Michaelson, a veteran behind the scenes in radio broadcasting for years, including three seasons as the producer/engineer on Diamondback broadcasts. For his tireless work and friendships gained over the years, the Diamondbacks have named the radio booth in Bank One Ballpark in his honor, the John Michaelson Radio Booth. The honor bestowed on the late "Johnny V" joins two other areas in the Bank One Ballpark press box that have been titled to honor a pair of members of the media who dedicated their lives to sports coverage, Steve Pascente and Dick Dozer.

Steve Pascente

Memorial Press Lounge

Steve Pascente was one of the most dedicated at his craft and died while on location covering football in Washington D.C. His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the Diamondbacks opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

Dick Dozer

Memorial Press Box

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. After leaving the beat of the big leagues, he arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an oldtimers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Kams. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994, yet his memory lives on daily in the Diamondbacks' front office, as his son, Rich, is the team President.

Media Policies

Director - Public Relations — Mike Swanson

Assistant to the Director — David Pape

Media Coordinator - Public Relations — Susan Webner

Staff Assistants — Jeff Munn and Casey Wilcox

It is a privilege for our staff to be of assistance as you cover the Arizona Diamondbacks . Bank One Ballpark already ranks as one of the premier sports facilities in the world, and our department will do its best to take care of any reasonable requests. Following are the Public Relations policies for the 2000 season. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and we will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

WORKING PRESS CREDENTIALS: Daily passes will be issued to media members who do not qualify for season credentials. Media who qualify for daily credentials include: freelance writers on a specific assignment for a publication, representatives of weekly and monthly publications working on special coverage, and additional radio and television representatives when the need arises for extra pre-game personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.). Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer, or director, on company letterhead at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. Requests may be made via FAX only if the requesting affiliation is currently on file with the P.R. office.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Daily photo passes will be issued to photographers on assignment for legitimate news gathering organizations, and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests for photographer credentials must follow the procedure detailed above. The Arizona Diamondbacks will not issue credentials to freelance photographers. Please remember that priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. Field photo space at Bank One Ballpark is at a premium and priority for space will be given to daily publications and wire services. For the 2001 season, we have also designated a small space for in-game photography in the front row of the press box. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products only. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and bar future use.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in Bank One Ballpark where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. The clubhouse is the dressing and preparation area for the players for that day's game and is not a place for the media to congregate. The clubhouse will close 50 minutes prior to the first pitch, and there may be times where the clubhouse will close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Post-game access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the individual club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to the start of the game. The field must be cleared 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game, and at no time is the media permitted in fair territory, or outside the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Bank One Ballpark prior to and after every game. All television live shots must be done in designated areas outside the clubhouse due to space limitations, or on the warning track area outside either dugout. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give inning or half inning score updates. At no time can they file reports once play is under way. Any violation of these policies will result in immediate revocation of credentials.

CELLULAR PHONES: The use of cellular phones for radio interviews is prohibited on the field or in the clubhouse. The only time a radio correspondent can use a cellular phone for an interview would be in either dugout after receiving advance permission from the player or staff member. Any other telephone interviews must be arranged through the Diamondbacks' Public Relations Department.

ROVING CAMERAS: Television stations are prohibited from using a camera light in the seating area of the ballpark. Should a light come on, the game will be stopped by the umpiring crew. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to games. For the comfort of our fans, interviews are to be conducted on the concourse, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The press box at Bank One Ballpark is located directly behind home plate. The writers' wing is on the first base side, while the broadcast booths are behind the plate and towards the third base side. Game notes and statistics will be available for pick-up at least 2 hours before game time in the area immediately behind the working press box. The Diamondbacks are also pleased to offer additional working space, with television monitors, in the area behind the press box. A fax machine and copier are available in the press box should the need arise. The press box is an active working area and cheering and loud conversation will not be permitted. At no time will guests be permitted in the press box. The Arizona Diamondbacks prohibit any person under the age of 18 from entering the press box level on game days.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the press box. As is consistent with all National League clubs, pre-game meals for the media will be available for a nominal charge ($7.00), and will be served 2 hours prior to game time and up through the end of the first inning. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Arizona Diamondbacks are fortunate to have an ample supply of Charge Call phones in the press box. If for some reason media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season. To have a phone extension installed for the season, or for a single visit to Bank One Ballpark, please contact Vicki Berryman at (602) 462-6099.

BANK
ONE
BALLPARK

Bank One Ballpark

What About B.O.B.?

When one thinks of Bank One Ballpark, baseball certainly is the first thing that comes to mind. However, in just three short years, the home of the Arizona Diamondbacks has become one of the most versatile, and as a result, busy venues of its size in America.

Since its official opening on March 31, 1998, the Ballpark has hosted events ranging from Monster Truck shows to a college football bowl game, with conventions, college basketball and concerts thrown in for good measure. All this, and Bank One Ballpark remains one of the most attractive destinations in Major League Baseball.

Owned by Maricopa County, the Ballpark (seating capacity 49,033) joins its next-door neighbor, America West Arena, in making Downtown Phoenix the sports hub of the Valley of the Sun. Located just one block east of the Arena, the Ballpark is bounded by Jefferson Street on the north, Fourth Street on the west and Seventh Street on the east, and is within easy driving distance of two major freeways (Interstate 10 to the north, Interstate 17 to the south).

Bank One Ballpark also holds the distinction of being the second-highest facility in the major leagues, sitting 1,100 feet above sea level. It trails only Denver's Coors Field in terms of elevation.

THE STRUCTURE

Ground was broken on Bank One Ballpark on November 16, 1995, with the construction project taking 28 months at a cost of $354 million. Bank One Ballpark was designed by Ellerbe Becket, with architect Bill Johnson as the design principal. John Wasson was the project manager for the Diamondbacks, with Huber Hunt & Nichols serving as the managing contractor.

The Ballpark incorporates the traditional look of red brick and green structural steel in a setting that blends into its surroundings. Many of the building's design details are borrowed from the historic warehouse district that surrounds it. One former warehouse, the Arizona Citrus Growers' Packing House, is actually preserved and incorporated into the south facade of the building. Appropriately, that former food warehouse is used as a commissary for the Ballpark's concession stands.

THE ROOF

Game in and game out, fans attending Diamondbacks games are always anxious to see the retractable roof in action before or after the game. The roof comprises nine million pounds of structural steel, operating on the same tried-and-true technology found in drawbridges and overhead traveling cranes. A pair of 200-horsepower motors open or close the roof in slightly more than four minutes, utilizing more than four miles of cable strung through a pulley system. Each half of the roof consists of three moveable trusses which telescope over a fixed-end truss. The east and west sides of the roof can operate either in unison or independently. Either side of the roof can be opened in order to maximize sunlight on the turf and minimize sunlight on the interior steel and concrete.

In 2000, the Diamondbacks played 58 games with the roof closed, the most in the club's three-year history, while 24 were played with the roof open. The highest temperature for a game played with the roof open last season was 99 degrees (May 10, a night game versus Los Angeles).

ROOF OPEN - ROOF CLOSED?

It's a major discussion point among fans on a daily basis - to open or not to open the Ballpark roof.

The decision is made on a game-to-game basis, and it depends on the outside conditions. In the early portion of the season, conditions are generally more favorable to opening the roof, not just because the air temperature is lower, but also because the air is drier, meaning the temperature drops rapidly after sunset.

Into the summer months, the famed Arizona monsoon adds higher humidity to the triple-digit temperatures, making it necessary to keep the roof closed. Even with that, there have been days where daytime cloud cover has kept the temperatures down, allowing for the roof to be opened that night.

Last season, a hotline was established for fans to call in and get that day's "roof forecast". The number is 602-379-ROOF (7663).

THE FIELD

The playing field at Bank One Ballpark consists of Bull's Eye Bermuda, which has proven to be the best suitable grass for a facility with a retractable roof. A sign of that suitability is the fact that, in 1999, 135,000 square feet of sod had to be replaced during the season. In 2000, that figure dropped to 8,100 square feet - 94% less than the year before.

Even though more than half of the Diamondbacks' games are played with the roof closed, the turf receives sunlight at every opportunity. On game days, the roof remains open into the afternoon to allow maximum exposure. When areas of the field receive little natural sunlight, large incandescent growth lights provide a substitute.

One unique feature of the Ballpark takes fans back in time almost 100 years. There is a dirt path between the pitcher's mound and home plate, reminiscent of the paths seen in very early pictures of the game. The path is actually symbolic of the Bank One Ballpark experience - The best of baseball history and tradition displayed in a setting that features all the modern conveniences.

KEEPING COOL

The 8,000-ton cooling system is the equivalent of air conditioning for 2,500 typical Arizona homes. The system incorporates air handlers and a large cooling tower on the south side of the Ballpark. The air handlers push 1.2 million cubic feet of air per minute across cooling coils containing water chilled to 48 degrees.

The system, which is designed to bring the temperature by 30 degrees in three hours, is configured to deliver cool air only to the seating areas and concourses. It will not cool the entire volume of the Ballpark.

SEATING AND TICKETS

Sightlines in Bank One Ballpark are second to none. More than 80 percent of the seats are inside the foul poles, and there is no upper deck around the outfield. What's more, the seats down the foul lines beyond the infield are slightly canted toward the infield so that no fan will have to twist his or her body to look toward second base and the pitcher's mound.

All lower-deck seating is directly accessible from the lower concourse, which is at the same level as the outside pedestrian entry plazas and gates. The concourse itself is open to the playing field so fans can stay in touch with the game while visiting the concession stands, merchandise stores or other amenities.

The Infiniti Diamond Level provides exclusive locations and amenities. Lounges and dining areas serving approximately 4,400 club seats are featured. Above the club seats are 69 private luxury suites, which offer the utmost in comfort and catering.

The upper concourse seats approximately 20,000 fans. Escalators on the west side of the Ballpark can take fans to either of the upper levels.

VERSATILITY

While it is primarily known for baseball, Bank One Ballpark has hosted a wide range of events in its three years of operation. The list includes concerts, religious convocations, the Arizona National Boat Show and two annual motocross events. However, the versatility of the Ballpark was displayed in full during the holidays last December.

On December 17, 2000, over 12,000 fans came to Bank One Ballpark to see the U.S. Women's Soccer team play Japan. Ten days later, the Ballpark was ready for the most hectic 24-hour stretch it had seen in its young life, first serving as the site of the first-ever outdoor college basketball game, followed the next night with a major college football game. With the field in football configuration, a basketball court was placed on the turf to allow the Arizona State women's basketball team to host the University of Tennessee Lady Vols, before over 17,000 fans (right). Less than 24 hours later the Ballpark was turned into a college football venue, as the University of Pittsburgh and Iowa State battled before a crowd of over 42,000 in the Insight.com Bowl (below).

To put an exclamation point on the week, just 12 hours after the completion of the Insight.com Bowl, the annual Fiesta Bowl National Pageant of Bands was held for the third consecutive year at the Ballpark, attracting another five-digit crowd, and proving again that Bank One Ballpark is perfectly suited for year-round activities, all while continuing to gain recognition as one of the finest venues in Major League Baseball.

FOOD

You name it, and you can find it at the nearly quarter mile of concession stands in the Bank One Ballpark concourses, but the dining experience begins before fans go through the Ballpark gates.

Fans entering the Ballpark through the main gates will notice Hi-Tops Cafe and Sporting Nightlife, located on the west side of the Ballpark Plaza. Hi-Tops, which also boasts a location across the street from Chicago's Wrigley Field, will offer traditional pre-game pub fare, and will add postgame nightclub-style entertainment postgame.

Among the concession stands on the concourses are those that feature McDonald's, Little Caesar's Pizza, Blimpie's Subs and Garcia's Mexican Food. In addition, specialty ice cream, yogurt, smoothies, shaved ice and specialty popcorn are also available. Fielder's Choice offers fans a wide selection of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Friday's Front Row Sports Grill continues to be a popular year-round destination for Ballpark visitors. Friday's offers fine food and beverages, along with patio seating during Diamondbacks' games. The restaurant is open every day except Christmas. The upper concourse features two Miller Lite beer gardens, which overlook the playing field. The Arizona Baseball Club, located in right field on the Infiniti Diamond Level, provides fine dining and a spectacular view for fans with club seats or luxury suites.

SUN POOL PARTY PAVILION

No matter what the event in Bank One Ballpark, the Sun Pool Party Pavilion always attracts attention, even when it's not in use.

It is in use, of course, during Diamondbacks games. The Pavilion offers up to 35 guests the chance to watch Diamondbacks' games while enjoying a swimming pool and Jacuzzi. Catering and other amenities are included in the nightly rental of the Pavilion.

Located behind the outfield wall in right-center, the Sun Pool Party Pavilion sits 415 feet from home plate. This, of course, means home runs will occasionally find their way into the Pavilion. When a Diamondback homers into the Pavilion, water cannons fire streams of water 30 to 35 feet into the air.

For the trivia buffs, we offer this note: the first player to hit a home run into the Sun Pool Party Pavilion is one of the newest members of the Diamondbacks. Mark Grace had the first "splashdown" on May 12, 1998, while a member of the Chicago Cubs.

PARKING

Bank One Ballpark utilizes the established downtown parking infrastructure for its guests. An attached 1,500-car parking garage provides parking for guests on the Infiniti Diamond Level. Away from the park, downtown Phoenix offers some 33,000 parking spaces within a 15-minute walk of the Ballpark. The Diamondbacks estimate that about 15,000 spaces are needed to accommodate a sellout crowd.

Downtown parking was virtually unaffected by the Diamondbacks' first-ever weekday day game on July 20, 2000, when a near capacity crowd watched the Diamondbacks and St. Louis Cardinals. The Diamondbacks have scheduled two weekday matinees this year.

FOX SPORTS NET DIAMONDTOWN

Fans making their way along the Ballpark's main concourse can experience baseball's history and tradition through Fox Sports Net's DiamondTown. Video walls, a graphic timeline and three-dimensional exhibits give fans 10 themed areas featuring the best of baseball and Diamondbacks history.

BAXTER'S DEN

Every mascot needs a home, and the home of D. Baxter the Bobcat can be found behind the picnic area in center field. Baxter's Den will offer fans a variety of interactive games, and will give fans of all ages a chance to meet Baxter in his home. Baxter will appear in his "den" during each Diamondbacks' game to pose for pictures and sign autographs.

MUSIC

As is the case with the overall atmosphere of Bank One Ballpark, music at Diamondbacks' game is a blend of the old and the new. Traditional organ music is provided by Bobby Freeman, a popular organist for many years in the Valley. Freeman also served as ballpark organist for the Pacific Coast League Phoenix Firebirds before joining the Diamondbacks in 1998. In addition to the organ, Diamondbacks' Audio Engineer Eric Hanson "plays the hits" through a variety of current songs recorded on tape. As is the case in many ballparks, Diamondbacks' players are serenaded with their favorite tunes as they come to bat.

Grant Trenbeath
Head Groundskeeper

In his fourth year as Head Groundskeeper at Bank One Ballpark, Grant Trenbeath has added soccer and football to his turf accomplishments.

Trenbeath spent last December overseeing the transformation of Bank One Ballpark into a soccer venue for the December 17 match between the U.S. and Japan women's national teams, then supervised groundskeeping efforts for the December 28 Insight.com Bowl between Iowa State and Pittsburgh. The football game came with a unique challenge - the first-ever college basketball game played outdoors, a women's game between Arizona State and Tennessee, took place the night before the bowl game, with the court placed in the south end zone.

It was a landmark year for Trenbeath and his staff, as their efforts to find the right turf for a venue with natural grass and a retractable roof paid off. In 2000, Trenbeath's sod squad replaced 8,100 square feet of turf during the season - down from 135,000 square feet the year before.

Trenbeath has worked in turf management for 10 years, spending three seasons with the Oakland Athletics' minor league affiliate in Medford, Oregon, then joining the A's as head groundskeeper for their minor league complex and spring training for three seasons before joining the Diamondbacks seven months prior to their inaugural season.

Trenbeath attended Willamette College in Oregon. Grant and his wife, Trina, make their home in Chandler.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities

Established in 1997, before the Arizona Diamondbacks ever played a major league game, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities focuses on the three areas of need: homelessness, indigent healthcare and children's programs of all types, including education and youth baseball field development.

A 13-member board of Diamondback and Maricopa County appointees are responsible for annually approving all grant applications. The grant application period runs through the calendar year closing on December 31. Any 501(c)3 non-profit organization in Arizona is welcome to apply.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities generated over $650,000 in 2000 to be distributed before the beginning of the 2001 season. Funds for Arizona Diamondbacks Charities are raised through events such as the annual Diamondbacks Charities Golf Classic, "Shirts Off Our D'backs," ALS Autograph Party, MDA Wives Auction, Bank One Ballpark tour program and other team related activities.

The Arizona Diamondbacks take great pride in being recognized as a leader in community giving. Our commitment to the needs of our state will continue to be a cornerstone of our corporate mission.

Pictures Worth a Thousand Words...

The Diamondbacks kicked off their successful youth field program with a pair of original D'Backs joining corporate sponsors with donations to construct fields for area youth. Matt Williams Field (left) was the first diamond dedicated, followed last spring with the opening of Jay Bell Field (below), officially dedicated when the veteran infielder placed second base in its proper spot.

The contract extension agreement with Curt Schilling last December brought with it $1 million to charity. He donated $500,000 to the Valley of the Sun United Way (left), then earmarked $250,000 to ALS Chapters of both Phoenix and Philadelphia.

D. Baxter the Bobcat

Mascot

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 200

B/T: R/R

Introduced: June 23, 2000

Residence: The confines of
Bank One Ballpark

D. Baxter the Bobcat came out of the bag on June 23, 2000 at Bank One Ballpark. The idea for the mascot came from Diamondback second baseman Jay Bell's son, Brantley, who explained to his dad that the team should have a "BOB" cat as a mascot since the team plays in the BOB (Bank One Ballpark). Jay informed management about his son's idea and the mascot was developed.

Today, Baxter has gained acceptance throughout the baseball world for his athleticism and his mean "fur" ball. Along with his numerous game-day responsibilities, Baxter also serves as an ambassador for the Diamondbacks organization via visits to hospitals, schools, community festivals, and corporate functions throughout the Phoenix-metro area and the state of Arizona.

For more information on Baxter, call (602) 462-6632.

Diamondback Chronology

1990

June 28: A bill submitted by Rep. Chris Herstam, R-Phoenix, allowing Maricopa County to assess a quarter-cent sales tax for a baseball-only stadium, passes the Arizona Legislature. The tax can be levied only after a franchise is granted.

1993

July 25: Major League Baseball talks of adding new teams. Phoenix Suns owner Jerry Colangelo gets assurance from owners that Phoenix and Tampa are the top prospects. He begins a drive for investors and a stadium.

November 10: At a jam-packed news conference at America West Arena, Colangelo announces he will put together an ownership group that will apply for a Major League Baseball expansion franchise.

February 17: Maricopa County Supervisors vote 3-1 for the stadium tax, with one abstention. Baseball owners have until April 1, 1995, to award Phoenix a new franchise, or the stadium financing deal is off.

June 17: Ellerbe Becket beats out two other finalists working on the design of the new downtown stadium. A site just south of Jefferson Street and west of Seventh Street is selected for the retractable-roof, natural-grass showplace.

November 2: At a meeting in Chicago, the expansion committee hears presentations from Colangelo and other would-be ownership groups from Orlando and Tampa-St. Petersburg and two from northern Virginia.

March 9: At a meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., baseball's owners name the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays the 13th and 14th expansion teams in Major League Baseball history. The franchises are priced at a record $130 million apiece. Richard H. Dozer is named president and Joe Garagiola Jr. becomes vice president and general manager.

March 11: Season ticket deposits are first taken at a celebration party on the plaza in front of America West Arena. Despite a soaking rain, more than 2,000 people show up to take part in the team's first official fan celebration.

April 5: The Diamondbacks finalize a deal with Bank One that will result in the new downtown stadium carrying the name of Bank One Ballpark.

Aug. 17: The Diamondbacks unveil their first farm team, the Lethbridge Mounties, soon to be renamed the Black Diamonds, of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada in the Pioneer League.

November 15: Still two seasons away from Opening Day, the Diamondbacks have a manager. Buck Showalter, who was the American League's Manager of the Year in 1994 with the New York Yankees, leading them to a wild-card playoff spot in 1995, signs a 7-year contract that will put him in the dugout when the expansion team takes the field in 1998.

November 16: Ceremonies, including a game between two Little League teams, celebrate the groundbreaking for the Bank One Ballpark.

1996

May 17: America West Airlines rolls out a Boeing 757 painted in a Diamondbacks' theme, with a huge baseball logo on the tail. Immediately, fans, staff, sponsors and investors climb on board and head to Denver, where they see the Colorado Rockies defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-11.

May 31: The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox jointly announce that they will share a new spring-training facility in Tucson, beginning in 1998.

June 4: Lefthanded pitcher Nick Bierbrodt of Long Beach, Calif., becomes the team's first-ever choice in the amateur draft.

June 24: More than 6,000 fans turn out at Scottsdale Stadium to see the Diamondbacks' Arizona League team make its debut. Outfielder Juan Garcia homers to lead off the first inning and then adds another, but Oakland's rookie-league team wins, 15-7.

October 11: The Diamondbacks announce the signing of Olympic first baseman Travis Lee, the second overall choice in the June draft. He and three other players had been declared free agents by Major League Baseball. Three weeks later, another of the four, righthanded pitcher John Patterson, signs with Arizona.

January 16: Meeting in Scottsdale, baseball's owners vote to place Arizona in the National League's West Division.

March 3: Pitchers and catchers report to Yuma, Ariz., for the Diamondbacks' first minor league spring training camp. Players will be assigned to High Desert in the California League or South Bend in the Midwest League.

Chronology (Continued)

September 12: Affirming that they are a statewide team, the Diamondbacks sign a player-development contract that makes Tucson the franchise's Class AAA affiliate in the Pacific Coast League.

November 17: Shortstop Jay Bell becomes the Diamondbacks' first major leaguer when he leaves the Kansas City Royals to sign a five-year contract with Arizona.

November 18: Arizona and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays each select 35 players in the MLB Expansion Draft held at Phoenix Civic Plaza. The Diamondbacks' first choice is lefthanded pitcher Brian Anderson of the Cleveland Indians.

December 1: Third baseman Matt Williams comes to the Diamondbacks from Cleveland in a headline-making trade that sends third baseman Travis Fryman and lefthanded pitcher Tom Martin to the Indians. Williams signs a five-year contract extension which commits him to Arizona through 2003.

1998

January 10: Single game tickets go on sale for Opening Day on March 31 against the Colorado Rockies. All tickets are gone before lunch.

February 13: Pitchers and catchers take the field at Kino Veterans Memorial Sportspark in Tucson to inaugurate the Diamondbacks' first major-league spring training.

February 27: In the Diamondbacks' first Cactus League exhibition game, Edwin Diaz hits a ninth inning sacrifice fly that scores Kelly Stinnett with the winning run in a 6-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox at Tucson Electric Park.

March 20: Jerry Colangelo and county officials break bottles of sparkling water over the rotunda railings to highlight the official dedication ceremony at Bank One Ballpark.

March 29: The final exhibition game of the season serves as a trial run for Bank One Ballpark as 49,198 fans see the White Sox defeat Arizona, 3-0.

March 31: With 50,179 fans overflowing Bank One Ballpark, the Diamondbacks celebrate the first regular season game in franchise history. Colorado wins, 9-2, but not before Travis Lee collects Arizona's first hit (a first inning single), first homer, first run and first RBI.

April 4: Arizona celebrates its first victory, a 3-2 win over San Francisco that evens Andy Benes' record at 1-1.

July 30: Omar Daal pitches the franchise's first complete game shutout, scattering four hits in a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Bank One Ballpark.

September 4: A 3-1 win over Houston gives the Diamondbacks their seventh consecutive victory, equalling the longest winning streak by any expansion team in history.

September 13: Andy Benes comes within two outs of pitching a no-hitter in a 5-0 win at Cincinnati, highlighting a September in which he was 3-0 with an 0.47 ERA. Benes ends the season with a string of 27.1 scoreless innings.

December 1: Lefthanded pitcher Randy Johnson decides to pitch in his hometown and agrees to a 4-year contract.

February 25: President Clinton visits the Diamondbacks at their spring training facilities in Tucson, visiting with players and staff members before accepting a team uniform jersey with his name and the numeral 1 on the back.

February 26: Tony Womack arrives from the Pittsburgh Pirates in exchange for minor league outfielder Paul Weichard and a player to be named later (pitcher Jason Boyd).

April 11: Luis Gonzalez cracks a seventh-inning homer off Atlanta's Greg Maddux, beginning a hitting streak that will last through May 18. Gonzalez is the 37th player in major-league history to reach the 30-game plateau.

April 19: Jay Bell is named National League Player-of-the-Week, becoming the first Diamondback ever to win the award. Before the season ends, he will be joined by Matt Williams (twice), Randy Johnson (twice) and Steve Finley. Williams was also NL Player-of-the-Month for April and Johnson was Pitcher-of-the-Month for July.

May 12: Matt Williams 2-run, game-winning homer caps a 5-run ninth as Arizona comes from behind for an 8-6 win over Montreal. It is the third straight night that the Diamondbacks beat the Expos with a homer in their final at bat. Jay Bell was the hero on May 10, with Luis Gonzalez doing the honors on May 11.

June 25: Bank One Ballpark plays host to its first no-hitter as St. Louis' Jose Jimenez outduels the Diamondbacks' Randy Johnson, 1-0. The game's only run scores on Thomas Howard's single in the top of the ninth inning.

July 9: Arizona's bullpen is solidified with the addition of closer Matt Mantei, acquired from Florida for pitcher Vladimir Nunez, pitcher Brad Penny and a player to be named later.

July 11: Jay Bell's grand slam in the sixth inning wins $1 million for fan Gylene Hoyle of Chandler, who predicted the player and the inning before the game as part of Shamrock Farms Grand Slam Sundae. As an afterthought, the Diamondbacks beat Oakland, 7-4.

July 13: Third baseman Matt Williams and second baseman Jay Bell become the first Diamondbacks to start an All-Star Game. Pitcher Randy Johnson and left fielder Luis Gonzalez also make appearances. No team had more representatives.

July 21: Tony Womack legs out a ninth-inning, inside-the-park grand slam off relief ace Billy Wagner to give the Diamondbacks a 7-4 victory in Houston. It is the first inside-the-park homer in franchise history.

September 24: Matt Williams scoops up Doug Mirabeli's ground ball and throws to first base for the final out of an 11-3 victory in San Francisco that mathematically clinches the National League West championship for the Diamondbacks. Arizona becomes the first expansion team to reach the playoffs or win a division title in its second year of competition.

September 26: An estimated 8,000 fans jam the Bank One Ballpark Plaza to greet the Diamondbacks on their return home from their sweep of the Giants.

October 3: The Diamondbacks notch win No. 100 of the year in the season finale. Bernard Gilkey and Rod Barajas hit back-to-back home runs in a 10-3 win over San Diego at Bank One Ballpark.

October 5: In the team's first post-season appearance, Arizona drops an 8-4 decision to the New York Mets. Edgardo Alfonzo's ninth-inning grand slam, his second homer of the day, makes the difference.

October 6: Todd Stottlemyre scatters 4 hits over 6.2 innings to help the Diamondbacks notch their first post-season win, 7-1, Steve Finley's two-run single in the third puts Arizona ahead to stay.

October 9: Arizona's season ends when Todd Pratt homers in the bottom of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory in Game Four of the NL Division Series.

November 11: The Diamondbacks earn their first Gold Glove Award when Steve Finley is honored as one of the National League's top fielding outfielders.

November 16: After leading the major leagues in strikeouts, innings pitched and complete games, Randy Johnson gives the Arizona franchise its first major individual trophy by winning his second Cy Young Award.

2000

April 11: Randy Johnson is selected co-National League Player-of-the-Week, sharing the honors with Montreal's Vladimir Guerrero. Johnson was also selected N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month for April. Later in the season, Luis Gonzalez would be selected Player-of-the-Week for the week of June 5-11, and again for the week of July 24-30.

May 31: Arizona turns its first-ever triple play, in the fifth inning of a home game with St. Louis. With the bases loaded and nobody out, the Cardinals' Mark McGwire hit a fly ball to center, which was caught by Steve Finley, who then fired to home plate, where catcher Damian Miller tagged Placido Polanco, then threw to third base, where shortstop Tony Womack tagged out Edgar Renteria.

July 5: Luis Gonzalez becomes the first Diamondback to hit for the cycle, accomplishing the feat in Houston with a ninth-inning home run in a 12-9 Diamondbacks win.

July 11: Pitcher Randy Johnson and outfielder Steve Finley represent the Diamondbacks at the All-Star Game in Atlanta. Johnson is the starting pitcher for the National League, while Finley enters the game as a defensive replacement as singles home a run in his only at-bat.

July 20: The first-ever weekday matinee at Bank One Ballpark ends in dramatic fashion, as Tony Womack's two-run homer in the ninth gives Arizona a 3-2 win over St. Louis, in front of 40,937 fans.

July 24: The Diamondbacks defeat the Cleveland Indians, 12-7, in the Hall of Fame Game at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown. Minor league outfielder Luis Terrero was named the game MVP collecting 2 hits with a double and 2 runs.

July 26: Pitcher Curt Schilling is acquired from Philadelphia for pitchers Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla, and first baseman/outfielder Travis Lee.

July 28: In his debut game with the Diamondbacks, Curt Schilling scatters six hits over eight innings, leading the Diamondbacks to a 4-1 win at Florida.

September 10: Randy Johnson becomes the 12th pitcher in major league history to record 3,000 career strikeouts with a fourth inning strikeout of Florida's Mike Lowell at Pro Player Stadium. Earlier in the game, Johnson records his 300th strikeout of the season, joining Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers to collect 300 strikeouts in three consecutive seasons.

October 2: Buck Showalter is relieved of his duties as manager of the Diamondbacks.

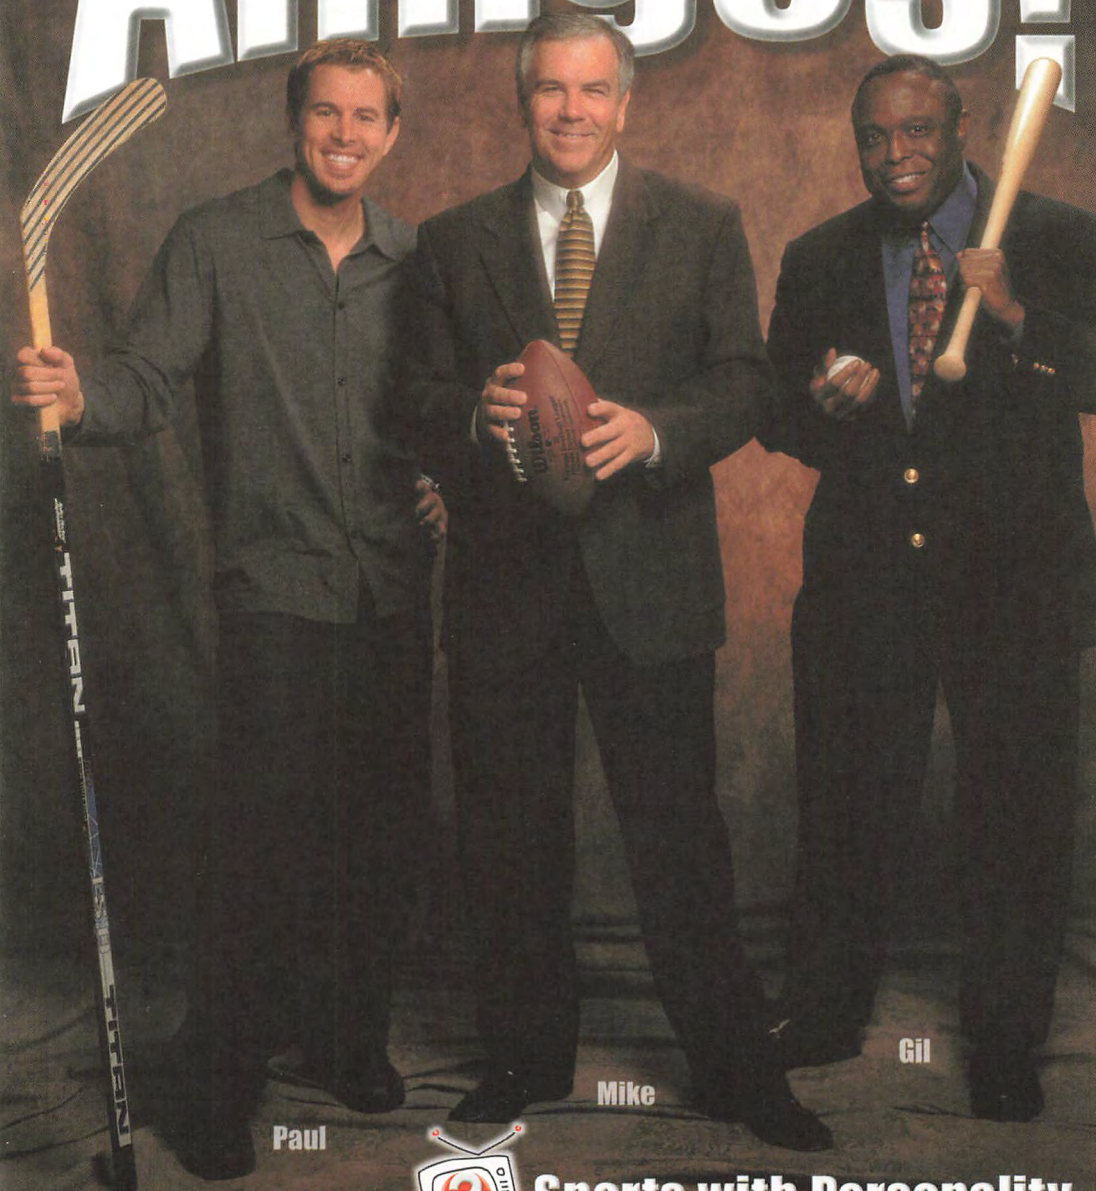

October 30: Former major league catcher and broadcaster Bob Brenly is named Diamondbacks manager.

November 7: Outfielder Steve Finley wins his second consecutive Gold Glove award, his fourth award overall.

November 14: Randy Johnson wins his second consecutive National League Cy Young Award, becoming the eighth pitcher in history to win the award three times.

December 8: Free agent first baseman Mark Grace signs a two-year contract with the Diamondbacks. Grace comes to Arizona after nearly 13 full seasons with the Chicago Cubs.

Spring Training 2001

Steve Finley, Tony Womack and Matt Williams take their turns in batting practice prior to the annual exhibition contest in Hermosillo, Mexico. The Diamondbacks and Oakland A's meet on March 18 in Hermosillo.

Spring Training - 2001

Tucson Electric Park

The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox share Tucson Electric Park during the month of March, with thousands of fans from both the Valley and Windy City making the trip to the Old Pueblo for exhibition action. T.E.P. seats 11,000 which includes room for 3,000 fans on the lawn beyond the outfield fence.

The Diamondbacks not only have the good fortune of training less than two hours away from Bank One Ballpark, they have the opportunity to work in one of the most modern spring facilities in baseball. Tucson Electric Park is the centerpiece of the Pima County Kino Sports Complex, that also includes six-field practice facilities for both the Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox.

Tucson Electric Park has a capacity of 11,000, including 8,000 seats in the main grandstand and another 3,000 available on the outfield lawn. Also the summer home of the Tucson Sidewinders, T.E.P. features a major league clubhouse that the Diamondbacks use during the spring, and clubhouses for visiting clubs and umpires. The home clubhouse also has an indoor batting cage located on the lower level on the way to the playing field.

During the spring session, the Diamondbacks will dress daily in the major league clubhouse at Tucson Electric Park, while doing the majority of their work at the minor league complex across Ajo Way. Once the exhibition season begins, Arizona will take batting practice either on the stadium field, or on a diamond behind T.E.P., where the D'Backs also have a half-field for infield work. Arizona generally hits the field at 9:30 on a daily basis during the workout phase of camp.

The spring of 2001 marks the 55th year for spring training in the Tucson community, with last season the first time that three clubs called the Old Pueblo home. While the D'Backs and White Sox work at the Kino Complex, the Colorado Rockies continue to call Hi Corbett Field their spring home.

Tucson Electric Park has a symmetrical playing surface, measuring 340 feet down each foul line and 405 to straightaway centerfield. The spring home for the Diamondbacks is located at 2500 East Ajo Way in Tucson.

Items of Interest

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual field champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
 - (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
 - (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION—If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.
- (NOTE—These figures DO NOT determine the Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.)

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

- (1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or
- (2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or
 - (b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

How To Figure

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Fast ball. Short stop.

We've put together a home team that's pretty tough to beat. With one quick stop, you can get 76 gas with PROpower, it's clean burning for more powerful performance. And at the same time, stop by Circle K for everything from snacks to cell phones. So come to 76 and Circle K after the game. As a baseball fan, you'll really appreciate our fast ball, our short stop and most of all, our team spirit.

Your Home Team.

Perhaps this looks familiar.
Probably because it's on your wallpaper, license plate, coffee mugs, pajamas, mowed into your lawn and tattooed on your body.

We're such big fans of the Diamondbacks, our name's on the ballpark.
